our vision

Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

while we're at it

November 12, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

Being good stewards of what God gives to us is part and parcel of what it means to be a committed Christian – we've been focused on this for several weeks now. Our Increased Offertory Appeal – as the use of our treasure – has met with a good response from our parishioners so far. Thank you for your willingness to put God first and be generous with him.

Today at St. Lawrence we're having a Ministry Fair after all the Masses and it is a great opportunity to explore where you can volunteer your time and use your talents in a way that is pleasing to God. Drop by the gym and give it a look... it should be a fun event. Last week at Sacred Heart we had a wonderful event to thank the many parish volunteers for their service.

The Stewardship 17 campaign got me thinking about how a parish is largely the work of people bringing their God given talents along and offering them for the good of the Church. This happens with our dedicated catechists who have the gift of teaching our kids the Faith. It happens with people gifted with musical talent who lead our worship at Mass and Holy Hours. It happens with our Early Childhood Learning Center, our All Stars and KidZone during Masses, our youth ministry... all people with the talent to work with the young and transmit the faith. It happens with people who have the gifts needed to direct Adult Faith Formation, marriage preparation, baptismal preparation...

It happens when people step forward to offer their skills on our Parish Strategic Planning Committee and on my Senior Leadership team. It happens with all the wonderful people who make up the staff of the parish and make it all function: administrative, organizational, clerical talents. It happens with our building staff who use their skills to renovate the Parish Center and adapt it for our use today.

Every single good thing that happens at our parish is the fruit of talented people who cooperate with God by using the gifts he gave them to build up his Church.

We need people with talent. Maybe you have some talent you could offer for the good of our parish mission. Maybe God is asking you to step forward.

Use the talent God gave you for his work. What could be better than that? What could make God happier than seeing you use the gifts he gave you to reach others?

God bless,
Fr. Richard Gill

A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Feast of St. Lawrence O'Toole

Feast date: Nov. 14th

Augustinian archbishop of Dublin, Ireland. He was born at Leinster, the Son of Murtagh, chief of the Murrays, in Castledermot, Kildare. Taken hostage by King Dermot McMurrough of Leinster in a raid, Lawrence was surrendered to the bishop of Glendalough. Lawrence became a monk, and in 1161 was named archbishop of Dublin. He was involved in negotiating with the English following their invasion of Ireland, and in 1172 convened a synod at Cashel. He also attended the General Lateran

Council in Rome in 1179, and was named papal legate to Ireland. While on a mission to King Henry II of England, Lawrence died at Eu, Normandy, France. He was canonized in 1225.

AT ST. LAWRENCE IS OFF TO A WONDERFUL START

Kim Santerre

At St. Lawrence, The Family Program is open to all families with children in grades first through fifth. Children learn at home, through their parents' guidance, via online or textbook. We gather monthly as a community to celebrate Christ while studying bible lessons, participating in events and learning through activities. The goal is to further discipleship in the families.

In October, our families gathered at Wells Park for a "Creation" BBQ event. It was a beautiful day. God blessed us with great weather, the answer to many prayers. With the pleasant temperature and a sunny day, the children and parents had a chance to eat, relax and enjoy some fun, faith centered activities together.

We listened to the story of Creation and then had a multitude of opportunities to "create". Families moved through different stations set up around the park. Children drew self-portraits, the way God sees them, on a mural. They worked with their parents to write their very own creation story, all about them! They even raced in potato sacks and had egg relays while their parents and friends cheered them on. Many of them played a game of flag football. But, most importantly, they prayed and everyone celebrated being one of God's most wonderful creations!

One mom remarked, "This is a great opportunity for the community, we should do this more often." And, asked what he liked about the picnic, one boy responded, "I love to be able to have fun and learn about Jesus."

One of the catechists remarked, "Days like this are so important to our kids, it gives them the opportunity and the freedom to learn about the faith and celebrate God's love together with friends and family."

ADORATION: AN INSIDER

Olivia Lambia

I am very thankful that we have an Adoration chapel where I could spend quiet time for prayerful reflections: To say thanks with a contrite heart for all the blessings that I have received and to ask for guidance. To pray for my family's health and safety, for Father Rich's holy intentions and those who are actively engaged in our church's missionary activities. But most importantly to listen to God's plan on how I could make a difference while still here on earth.

For my Adoration commitment, I chose Wednesday in honor of Our Blessed Virgin Mother Mary's intercessions. I couldn't thank her enough for showing me the way to be unquestionably closer to Jesus, the Son of God. Thus, I have learned to offer my iniquities and sufferings, all of which are no match to her son's own physical wounds that He had sustained on the way to Golgotha where He finally succumbed to His Holy Death. I find myself tearing whenever I meditate on Jesus Christ's sacrifices for mankind's salvation; yet.

On Fridays, I honor of The Sacred Heart of Jesus. Having spent an hour of profound meditation on Friday has made me unquestionably undertake my crosses in varying weight, shape or form. It has enlightened me that there is a reason for each cross given to me but most especially I have become closer to Our Lord Jesus Christ understanding that He will never abandon me. I have learned that agonizing over my crosses instead of embracing them is tantamount to rejecting His love for me and for my family. I have learned to accept all crosses given me without remorse, but I do pray for strength and for help to carry them.

Meanwhile, during these two hours of Adoration each week plus every Saturday at the Adoration chapel, I pray the Divine Chaplet for the sick and the dying in which I invoke the names of people whom I was asked to pray for. In addition, I pray for our president and his cabinet to govern with wisdom and to implement policy on our economy, healthcare, and foreign strategies that are beneficial to all Americans regardless of color/ethnicity, religion, and sexual orientation.

"God is good all the time. All the time, God is good."

Ten Virgins

by Father Peter West

The main lesson that Jesus gives us is to be alert. We must keep the flame of faith alive in our heart. This flame is lit with the oil of charity and prayer; charity performed through and for the love of God.

It was a great honor for the bridesmaids to be chosen to members of the bridal party, but not all the members were ready when the Bridegroom came. Their lamps were going out of oil.

The Bible often uses the symbol of a Bride and Bridegroom to symbolize the love between God and his people; between Christ and his Church. As a Bride becomes one flesh with her Bridegroom, so Christ, the Divine Bridegroom becomes one with his Church. He sacrifices himself for her, even to the point of offering his life for her. All the members of the Church form part of that Mystical Body. In this Gospel, the Church is also symbolized by the whole bridal party. We are reminded of what Christ says in another Gospel passage that many are called, but few are chosen. (Cf. Mt. 22, 14)

The Gospel reminds us that we not saved automatically simply by being members of the Church.

Unless we are striving for holiness we can't hope to enter the Kingdom of God. We must keep the flame of faith alive in our hearts through prayer, reception of the sacraments and works of charity, especially towards those who are least among us, so that when Christ calls us, and we never know when that time will be, we'll be ready to enter his Eternal Kingdom to take part in the Great Wedding Feast.

EARLY CHILDHOOD LEARNING CENTER

In recognition of Fire Prevention Month, ECLC had a visit from the Brewster Fire Department on October 16th. The children learned about Stop, Drop and Roll, what an emergency is, what they should do in case of an emergency and much more. They also had the opportunity to see what the inside of an ambulance looks like and to use the fire hose. Every child received a gift from the firefighters. What a great day!
