our vision

Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

while we're at it

September 2, 2018

Dear Friends,

We spoke about the sad, tragic crisis in the Church, and I've been encouraging everyone not to lose heart. Instead, in "hard times" when people we trust let us down, we should remember that the goal of our religion and our faith grow closer to God, not just to run a Church well. We can do that even when human failings hurt and shock us.

Remember what we learned in Catechism class: "God made me to know him, to love him, and serve him in this life so as to be happy with him forever in the next." If we hang on to that basic truth, even if others fall away, we will be on the right path.

God always has graces and blessings for us going through the darkest times. "Where sin abounded, grace abounded all the more". So let's keep growing in faith and love for Christ – that is what the Christian life is all about.

No doubt the best thing we can do is get on our knees before the Blessed Sacrament. Without prayer, we don't have a chance. But when we are in the presence of God, all things are possible. Our next Seasons of Praise Holy Hour is coming up Sept. 17 and the whole series this fall will be on the person of Jesus in the Gospels.

Our first priest speaker will be Fr. David Rider. Many of you will remember him for the summer he spent with us at St. Lawrence a few years ago, before his ordination. Fr. David is now working at St. Barnabas in the Bronx and he'll be joining us on Monday the 17th at 7:00 p.m. for a powerful talk and an evening of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Confessions from 4:00 p.m. to 8:30 pm.

And this fall, we should all take a step to grow in faith. So we're offering many good programs and you can register for any of them on the parish website.

1. Financial Peace University is a program that helps people find a healthy way to manage their income and expenses, taking a responsible stewardship approach to debt and spending. If you can use some help getting organized and on top of your finances, you will find peace of soul. Classes start Tuesday Sept 11 and run for 11 weeks.
2. Knowing the Bible - The Bible Timeline is a 24 week course over the fall and winter that gives you the full scope of the whole story the Bible reveals about salvation history from the beginning through Jesus and the early Church. If you want to know your faith and how it all finally makes sense, this is a great help. It is held Thursday evenings starting Sept. 13.
3. Developing Christian virtue - The program Walking to Eternity runs eight weeks on Tuesdays starting Oct. 2. It helps a person understand the virtues needed for a happy and holy life, and helps us overcome the things that drag us all down.
4. Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John – Most people feel that John's Gospel is the richest and most fascinating revelation of who Jesus is for us. We're offering it Tuesday morning and evening starting Sept. 13.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.

women's cornerstone retreat 2018

The Women's Cornerstone Retreat will be held on Friday, September 28 & Saturday, September 29. The theme this year is At the Foot of the Cross. Come and spend a little over 24 hours in faithful contemplation, prayer, and fellowship with other women who share their faith and friendship.

Our Cornerstone team has planned delicious meals for you and will provide accommodations for an overnight stay at St. Lawrence O'Toole's Parish Center.

It is an amazing opportunity to give yourself the gift of a renewed relationship with the Lord and the blessings of new life-long relationships.

The application forms can be found in the back of the churches. If you have any questions or need additional information, please call: Peg Smith at 845-216-9005, Charlene Todd at 845-490-0442 or Alexis Lenahan at 845-803-6778 or contact cornerstonesisters@gmail.com.

for God's sake, take a break

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place.

—Mark 6: 30-32

Being a parent is one of those jobs where you never really get to rest. Even on vacation, a parent never stops performing the task of being a parent: providing, driving, disciplining. That's one reason why so many people desire a vacation after their vacation.

There are some people who never rest from work. They have a cell phone to their ear at home, at a restaurant, and, of course, at a hotel during vacation. Their jobs might be pretty demanding and hopefully they perform their tasks well for their employer, but they always seem preoccupied.

Jesus tried to have His apostles take a break and rest in Mark 6. They had been so consumed with the crowds and had not even had a chance to eat. So Jesus took them to a desert place. However, the crowds found them there too, so Jesus continued to teach. It does not say what the apostles did during that time, but I am going to guess it wasn't genuine rest.

Everyone needs a rest. The problem is we fail to understand how important it is to rest. We think rest is void of action. Not only is resting an action in itself, it is sometimes the only time we have to spend with God one-on-one. How can we truly say a relationship with God is important when we never spend time alone with God? Not to take the time to rest in God's presence is poor stewardship of time. Apostles need it. Workers need it. Parents need it. Everyone needs rest. Some say we never rest because we feel we do not have permission to rest and people will see us as lazy. Read Mark 6. Sometimes circumstances make it hard to rest, but you have surely been given permission: from Jesus Himself.

Idea for response

In the coming week, take 15 minutes to just sit quietly and try to clear your mind and think of nothing. Just allow yourself to rest in God without using words or thoughts.

Take time to reflect

What 3 small things in your life that could be changed in order to make life less hectic, therefore making it easier to focus on God?

eyes on the goal

Sports Camp at St Lawrence wrapped up this past week! We offered both basketball and soccer. The kids had a wonderful experience playing together and making new friends. Most importantly, the children were able to strengthen their relationship with Christ through sports.

Soccer Camp had almost 60 campers. Each session started out with a warm up type activity while the participants arrived. The soccer sessions started and ended with the game of soccer. In between, the children participated in a prayer piece, including scripture and meditation, had a snack, completed a hands-on, soccer themed arts-and-crafts project which then transitioned into a brief soccer related video.

While I thoroughly enjoyed each and every day with all of the children, there was one day that was my absolute favorite. We were lucky enough to have two special guests join us on one of the afternoons. Father Raphael and Luis Rueda, both of whom are quite the soccer players, made a surprise appearance!! Luis spoke to the children about his soccer experiences and did a few demonstrations for them. He spoke to them about how important it is to start each game in prayer, and showed them how he got down on his knee to praise God. The children listened with intent to him. They were also completely entertained by, and totally in awe of, his soccer moves!! After the talk ended, I decided to ask Luis and Father Raphael to stay to play a game of soccer with the children. On a side note, Father Raphael was dressed down (and warmly) that afternoon, in a long sleeved sweater, sweatpants with his comfy summer slip-on, fancy Gucci shower shoes paired with his socks. I don't think he was expecting I would request this of him, to stay and play, nor did I ever think he would actually respond the way he did. He looked at me, looked down at his feet, looked back at me and said, "I will play barefoot in my socks!". What a good sport!!! The kids roared in celebration as Luis and Father Raphael (otherwise known as "Gucci" to all of us now, thanks to my son) took their places to play goalie on opposing teams.

The energy in the gym was incredible throughout the entire 90 minutes that the game lasted! All of the players giving 100%, cheering and chanting for each other and celebrating the moment. I spectated from the sidelines, in my flip flops, because I am not as brave, or as skilled, as Father Raphael. I watched with a smile on my face, and warmth in my heart, because I knew the Holy Spirit was present in that moment for each and every one of us. It felt perfect, like we forgot about everything else but that soccer game. All of us living that joyous, stress-free moment, as God's children, the way God wants His children to live each and every moment, there with Jesus, doing what He wants us to do every day, in this life we have been blessed with here on Earth, no matter what else is going on.

As much as we wanted it to last, sadly, the game had to come to an end. We gathered for a group photo in an effort to forever capture the great game of soccer shared between all of us that day. It was a day I think everyone will remember when they think back to soccer camp at St Lawrence.

summer sports camps- teens who gave their all

Greg Rabito

The youth of the parish came together to play sports at the Give All the Glory to God Basketball Camp and Heaven is Our Goal Soccer Camp. This group of teens volunteered to share their talents and time with the younger kids by teaching dribbling, passing, and shooting drills. The campers also made sports themed crafts and played many fun activities. The two weeks were a great time for all of the kids from preschool to 5th grade. I cherished seeing the counsellors and older campers help the younger children in all of the activities. A real effort was made to create a fun environment for all.

We even squeezed in time to play our own soccer game and socialized while the kids were eating their snack and watching a movie.
