while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

A bunch of stuff this week:

1. By now you've noticed our new look for the bulletin! My hope is it will make it easier and more fun to read. We have so many great things going on and always working to communicate better. Please send any feedback or suggestions you have to our Communications Director, Sally Silvestro.
2. Fr. Tom and I have spoken on the very sad series of scandals afflicting the Church these days and we've encouraged every one to renew our faith and hope in the Person of Jesus. After all, He is the One we believe in, and growing closer to him is our goal in life. Never lose heart – God uses these crises to purify the Church and make her holy. It is painful and it is at times discouraging, but we will grow closer to God.

Individuals, including priests and bishops, are completely responsible for their own sinful decisions. At the same time, we should acknowledge there is something diabolical and evil going on to stop the Church as it tries to lead people to Christ. Remember, everywhere in Scripture we are reminded our lives are a spiritual battle with the forces of darkness and we have to fight to preserve and grow our faith.

With that in mind we are going to introduce a brief prayer at the end of all the Masses starting next weekend. It's the prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, and for sure our seniors will remember it because it used to be standard after Mass:

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

This prayer invokes the leader of the angels in the fight against all the powers of evil that afflict us and the Church... so let's get in the habit of praying it every day. God is more powerful than sin and death. We'll have prayer cards in the pews and at the entrances to the Church.

3. Check this bulletin for all the great programs we are sponsoring this semester to grow in faith – we will have Alpha again (mornings and evenings), Alpha for Married Couples, the Gospel of St. John, the Bible Timeline, Women's Gift, Walking to Eternity, and Men's Ministry... there are so many great ways for us all to grow closer to Jesus and understand and embrace what he teaches us. Go to the website and register for something today.
4. Please keep in your prayers two very special intentions: Deacon Mark's father passed away Tuesday night. And you probably read about the 14 year old Brewster boy who tragically drowned Monday in Tonetta Lake – he was Oscar Gonzalez Mejia, and was an altar server at St. Lawrence.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

trust in the lord

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their mist and said to them, “Peace be with you.” But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.—Luke 24: 36-40

Have you ever participated or witnessed activities that were supposed to instruct you on the topic of trust? Some of these activities feature people falling backward with their eyes closed, sometimes even falling off a chair or table. One variation is when the voice of the person asking for trust trails off into the distance. Secretly other people have crept in and are ready to catch the subjects when they fall backwards, but they are being asked to trust the voice that they know is no longer near them. It is often not easy for the people who are being asked to trust, especially if they have never done this before.

Trusting in God is not always easy either. Sometimes we are scared to give up our freedom. Other times we are consumed by doubt. After Jesus rose from the dead, He appeared a few times to His disciples. One time when He appeared right after some of them had encountered Him on the road to Emmaus, He asked them, “Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts?” Even with Him in front of their eyes they had a hard time trusting. They were being asked to trust and believe, but just like those in the trust activities mentioned above, that was easier said than done.

What is keeping you from trusting in God? To live a stewardship way of life, trust in God is necessary. There are times when we will begin to question if we can persevere, or if this way of living is even valid and worthwhile. That is only human. But through the Church, sacred Scripture, and the sacraments, our hearts and minds will be open to the real crucified and risen Lord. And then, if He asks, we will be able to trust and fall back into His loving arms.

Idea for response

Search for videos of trust-building activities on You Tube and watch a couple. Try to determine how each activity speaks to your relationship with God.

Take time to reflect

What are 3 areas of my life where I need to trust in God more fully?

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.

family movie night BBQ, with an extra side of bubbles

Kim Santerre

The “Outdoor Movie BBQ Night” was such a fun event. We had many parishioners attend, and anyone who brought a non-parishioner guest, received a t-shirt. We hope that everyone who did attend enjoyed the evening under the stars.

The evening started out with a bubble bus and music. The kids, and even many of the adults, danced and chased around bubbles. Bubbles, bubbles everywhere! The smiles and laughter were contagious, and it was hard to watch and not want to join in on the bubble fun!

The Knights Of Columbus barbecued and served delicious food. The Knights never disappoint. We are so lucky to have such a generous group of men, always willing to help out whenever we need them! The best part about their assistance is it comes with a guaranteed smile from each and every Knight!!

The movie Evan Almighty started showing right around dusk coupled with a bag of popcorn and ice cream for everyone. Lawn Chairs, blankets and pillows were sprawled out allowing everyone to get comfy for the viewing. The movie had many faith filled messages while it entertained and brought lots of laughs to the crowd.

We have more movie nights planned throughout the next year, in November, April and August. Definitely join us next time!!
