while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

A number of people have spoken with me about the current crisis in the Church of the revelation of abuse and cover ups. It is a painful time for us. We hurt because we love the Lord and his Church. We're heartbroken at the pain, often carried for many years, of the victims. We suffer because our Church, which is supposed to lead people to Christ, has lost credibility and people don't find the holiness and presence of the Lord they should. And some of our members are questioning whether they should stay part of the Catholic Church.

We can't walk away from the Church – she is the place of the sacraments and the place where Jesus's teaching is passed on to us. She is the Body of Christ that brings us his grace and salvation, even when she is weak and sinful to some members.

It's clear to me that there are many things we need to do.
But without prayer and reparation, all the action will fall flat.

As I mentioned last week, we'll start saying the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel at the end of all the Masses from now on. It's a powerful prayer that asks for protection from the Evil One, whose plan is to divide and destroy and lead us to turn our back on Jesus.

The traditional way we make reparation and make things right again are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. We have to dust off those good spiritual practices and give them a renewal in our lives.

So beginning with First Friday in October and every First Friday for the next year, we'll have a special evening Mass of Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus for all the sins committed. We'll start with Confessions at 6:00 pm, Mass at 7:00 pm, and some time for Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction, ending at 8:15 pm.

We'll also be encouraging fasting, preferably on Fridays. You can skip a meal, or abstain completely from meat that day (abstinence), or even do a bread and water fast.

And the final part is almsgiving. We have to make a sacrifice of our material goods so we can be detached from them. We'll be recommending a few good projects you could give to that will make a difference in the life of the poor. One is right here in Brewster – our Brewster Emergency Shelter Program, which starts up in the winter and helps 5-15 homeless people find food and shelter and charity each night. We'll also support a project in Haiti where people are desperately poor and need our solidarity and help.

The Church is all of us. We all have to be part of the solution.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

women's cornerstone retreat 2018

The Women's Cornerstone Retreat will be held on Friday, September 28 & Saturday, September 29. The theme this year is At the Foot of the Cross. Come and spend a little over 24 hours in faithful contemplation, prayer, and fellowship with other women who share their faith and friendship.

Our Cornerstone team has planned delicious meals for you and will provide accommodations for an overnight stay at St. Lawrence O'Toole's Parish Center. This is an amazing opportunity to give yourself the gift of a renewed relationship with the Lord and the blessings of new life-long relationships.

The application forms can be found in the back of the churches. If you have any questions or need additional information, please call:

everyday miracles

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

On leaving the synagogue he entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them. When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

—Mark 1:29-34

Jesus performed miracles of healing quite often in the Gospels. He heal disease, gave sight to the blind, made the lame walk, exorcised demons, and even raised the dead. We believe that He did these things not just because He loved those people, but so those who witnessed such actions or heard the testimonies would believe in him.

It is a bitter pill to swallow when we pray for healing and it doesn't happen. We can begin to wonder if we prayed hard enough or with enough sincerity. In our pain we can even begin to wonder if God was listening.

But if you think of all this logically, if Jesus healed everyone who asked and everyone He loved, no one would ever be sick or even die. Certainly, He does not love those He heals more than others. And surely miracles do not only happen due to the prayers of professionals.

The wonder of miracles occurs so that we might be reminded that God is still near, and regardless of how it might seem, there is little that separates the natural from the supernatural, and the reality we live in and the one we are moving toward. Everyday stewards can see the presence of God in so many people, places, and situations on a daily basis. The realities of the now and not yet are blended so seamlessly that the definition of a miracle becomes unclear. If a miracle means something extraordinary so that the world may believe, then Jesus really does perform them for all of us. We just have to pay attention.

Idea for response

Find someone who needs the everyday miracle of a friend and invite him or her to lunch.

Take time to reflect

What are 3 things in my life that could be considered small miracles? Have I thanked God for these?

who is st. michael the archangel?

Devotion in the Early Catholic Church

Devotion to St. Michael has been present in the lives of the Catholic faithful from the earliest centuries of the Church. As he was the advocate of the patriarchs in the Old Testament, and is believed by many eminent Doctors of the Church to have been the angel assigned to be with the Savior in His 33 years on earth, Michael is now considered the Guardian of the Blessed Sacrament. Due to the various events and miracles associated with St. Michael, Christian Tradition names to him the following four offices:

1. To fight against Satan
2. To rescue the souls of the faithful from the Devil, especially at the hour of death
3. To attend the dying and accompany them to judgment
4. To be the champion of God's people; the Israelites in the Old Law, the Christians in the New Law; and to be Patron of the Church.

The Vision of Pope Leo XIII

Pope Leo XIII received a shocking vision regarding the Devil ravaging against the Church. Shortly after the experience, he composed the short prayer to St. Michael to be included in the prayers after the Mass.

There is some debate as to what exactly Pope Leo XIII witnessed in the vision, since he did not record the vision but instead composed the prayer to St. Michael.

One version of the vision of Pope Leo XIII is that he heard, seemingly from the tabernacle, the voices of God and the Devil. The Devil proclaimed that he could destroy the Church if he had time and power (75-100 years) to which God answered, "You have the time, you will have the power. Do with them what you will." Another account indicates it was a vision of images, rather than a conversation, that he saw the Devil and other evil spirits working to devastate the Church, and of St. Michael's eventual triumph over Satan and his legions.

The significance is obviously great. Saying the prayer at the end of Mass ceased in 1970. At St. Lawrence O'Toole and Sacred Heart we will begin to recite the St. Michael Prayer at the end of all Masses to obtain help in the battle against the forces of darkness and against the evil spirits of this world.

in the streets brewster fall festival

Alan Patrie

On September 9th the Brewster Fall Festival was held on Main Street in the Village of Brewster. Formerly known as Brewster Founders Day, this wonderful family-friendly celebration marked its 27th year.

St Lawrence O'Toole has participated in the event for the past several years, but this year's event was bigger and better than ever and our ministries were there to meet the call. Our booth had plenty of volunteers to help throughout the day. Much thanks to Women's Gift, Men's Ministry, Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus, Cornerstone, EDGE, Adoration, Secular Franciscans, Alpha, Stephen's Ministry, Scripture Study, Religious Education, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, O'Toole Seniors, Music Ministry.

We provided a vital presence to this community event by bringing the great mission we have here at St Lawrence to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. There are many ways to evangelize and we all know how hard it is to provide a path for our family members and friends to the Church in today's culture. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we strive to provide a spark or opportunity to those who are seeking greater meaning in their lives.

This event was definitely one of those opportunities. Whether it was to sign up families for Religious Ed and the Family Program, to invite strangers to Alpha, or to simply highlight the programs and ministries offered here at St Lawrence, many people young and old alike got a good taste of what is available at St. Lawrence O'Toole for everyone in our community.

Evangelization time well spent!

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
