while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

In tumultuous times like ours filled with crisis and conflict everywhere – in politics and in the Church too – I think the Holy Spirit becomes more active than ever. He pours out his graces on his people so we not only don't get discouraged but actually renew our faith in the Lord Jesus and grow spiritually. These are difficult times for sure, but even more certain is the power and the presence of our God in the midst of it all. When I pray, I am more convinced of this than ever – that God has it in control and he will be faithful to us no matter what.

I mentioned last week that as a parish we need to be doing our part to make reparation for our sins and the sins of others in the Church so God will heal and renew us all. So beginning Friday October 5 and every First Friday after that, we will have a special Mass of Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus at 7:00 pm. It will be preceded by an hour of Confessions at 6:00 pm, and Adoration and Benediction until 8:15 pm. What a beautiful thing it will be for our parish to gather specifically to pray for our Church, for those guilty of sin, and for victims in need of healing. Join us.

These are not times to stand on the sidelines.
They are times when God will raise up men and women to be saints filled with the Heart of God.

We have some great programs going on this semester designed for you. For those who are looking to start a relationship with God again, or rise up out of routine, the Alpha Course is a great way to do it. Starting October 3, we gather and share a meal, make new friends, and take an evening for a video and small group discussion on issues of faith and life. We have a morning and an evening session every Wednesday for ten weeks. Come along and bring a friend. Alpha is a way to make a new start in your faith.

For married couples of all ages, we also have Alpha Marriage, a seven week series that helps you go from a good marriage to a great marriage. Maybe it's time you invested a bit in your most important human relationship and make it the best it can be.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

i am not god

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commanded even the unclean spirits and they obey him."

—Mark 1:21-27

While at a conference for pastors, I heard someone address the audience with, "Do not think your job is to go about changing the world. Your job is to go about testifying to the truth that the world is already changed through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ." I was stunned to hear what I already knew: God is God, and I am not. All the work that I do amounts to very little in the face of what God has done. And yet, my little actions can have such a big impact when it is God working through me.

Jesus stunned crowds with His authoritative teaching and His miracles. They were amazed saying, "He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." It seemed that He was in control of everything. Of course, He was.

Often times we fall into a trap of thinking that we are the key to success in the actions of social justice, peacemaking, and community building. We think the walls will fall down if we are called away to journey elsewhere. We have succumbed to the lie that it is all due to us, and that God played only a minor role. We forget that God is bigger than that and His plan is always better than ours.

A good steward allows Jesus Christ to exercise His authority in our lives. We give of ourselves freely and work to grow the gifts that have been entrusted to us, but we also submit to His will as to how those gifts will impact the world around us. We do all this knowing that His plan has a beginning and an end. The end has already been determined. We are working in the between times to make the journey reflect more fully the reality of His love.

Idea for response

The next time you feel frustration about a situation you cannot control, pray to God these words: "You are God and I am not. Please come to my aid. Amen."

Take time to reflect

What are three aspects of my life I try to control but know I am unable to do so? How can God take control of those situations?

Mucic Director

Greetings St. Lawrence O'Toole parishioners!

My name is Veronica Champa and I recently moved here from Toledo, Ohio. I am one of five kids and took an interest in liturgical music at a very young age by listening carefully to the music at Mass each weekend. Coming from a musical family and noticing my interest in music, my parents had me take piano lessons starting in third grade. After graduating from Cardinal Stritch Catholic High School, I began my college career at the University of Dayton and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts with a concentration in Music with piano as my primary instrument.

During my time at UD, I spent three years working as an Undergraduate Music Minister which helped me understand what goes into planning, playing, and directing music for Masses. The summer of my senior year, a parish in Toledo hired me as an intern Music Minister to work under their Music Director. He took me under his wing and showed me what I needed to know about this ministry. Just two months after graduating in 2016, I was hired to be the Director of Music and Liturgy at St. Mary Catholic Church in the Toledo Diocese. Within the two years I spent at St. Mary, I was able to gain the experience and knowledge I needed to work as a professional Pastoral Musician and Liturgy Director. After some time, I felt God nudging me more and more to continue my ministry in a different parish, which eventually led me here.

I am so excited that God has put me here to serve you. I have a love for creating beautiful music at Mass, and my goal as a pastoral musician is for the congregation to participate fully, actively, and consciously during the Mass- which includes singing! I cannot wait to meet all of you and celebrate the Eucharist at Mass with you each weekend! Be sure to stop by and say hi after Mass!

first days of school

3's and 4's at St. Lawrence's Early Childhood Learning Center

Barbara Blank

The Early Childhood Learning Center reopened for the new school year on Monday, September 10th. Excitement filled the air as the returning students saw their classmates and teachers who they had not seen since June.

The new students quickly began to settle in; we hope that they will soon feel the warmth and love in their "home away from home", ECLC. The four year olds seem to have grown so much over the summer both physically and emotionally. Some took it upon themselves to show the new students the ins and outs of St. Lawrence and even to give a reassuring hug to a frightened child. We all are looking forward to an exciting school year.

If you would like to learn more about Early Childhood Learning Center visit our website stlawrenceotoole.org/eclc or call 845- 279-5164 to arrange a visit.
