We've been subjected to a whole summer of bad news in the press about sex abuse and coverups in the Church and unfortunately too much of it is true to ignore or take lightly. Many of our leaders have been irresponsible in trying to protect the institutions and ignoring the hurt of victims of abuse, and too protective of men who should have been kept out of the priesthood in the first place.

The hurt and sense of betrayal felt by so many ordinary Catholics, raised to trust in our priests and bishops, is real and can shake the faith of many of us. But we know at the same time that our faith is in Jesus, the Son of God, and not in imperfect human beings.

We called a meeting to pray together, review the facts and have honest and frank discussions about the crisis gripping the Church we love, and what we can do about it. Forty-five parish leaders gathered September 25 in the parish dining hall. Here are some of the feedback:

- Many said they had feelings of loneliness, anger, and betrayal. But their faith in God was still as strong or stronger.
- A large number of people agreed that this scandal becoming so public is necessary for God to purify his Church of sinful elements. That similar things have happened in the history of the Church and God uses it to make the Church holier. This is God's way of saying "Enough!" and moving the Church in the direction he wants.
- Many felt it is important for us to gather and to talk openly about these issues and take responsibility for changing things rather than wait for someone to fix things.
- People are realistic about the clergy being very human and fallible, but that God is always faithful even when we are not.
- There was agreement that asking for more transparency and honesty from the Church is our responsibility, and also that we should not just rely on the media for information which can be biased and distorted.
- Some expressed their faith in the Church as an institution is shaken, but this makes them cling to God more closely.
- A number of people discussed how they have suffered ridicule from family members and coworkers who are not practicing Catholics on account of the embarrassing scandals.
- Everyone felt this is a call to "back to basics" as Catholics: prayer and living the Gospel with integrity.

At the end we prayed together for the Church, and discussed ideas for renewal. The parish will offer every month special First Fridays of Reparation with Confessions at 6:00, Mass at 7:00, and Adoration and Litany to the Sacred Heart of Jesus for all the victims and those who covered up. We have also begun to recite the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel after every Mass.

Everyone agreed it was important to have sessions like this to experience the camaraderie of others who are keeping the faith and discussing the issues that affect us as Catholics.

We have decided to schedule another similar session Monday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 pm in the Parish Center Dining Hall. All are welcome.

CRISIS IN Church 2018

MONDAY
OCT. 29
7:30 PM
PARISH CENTER

All are invited to an evening to pray together, review the facts and have honest and frank discussions about the crisis gripping the Church we love, and what we can do about it.

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.

Call the rectory to find out more information:

calculating love

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them (a scholar of the law) tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

—Matthew 22:34-40

Have you ever Googled the word "love"? If you did you may have come across something called the Love Calculator. It is a website where you can supply two names, and the percentage chance of a successful relationship is calculated. Curious, I entered my name and my wife's. Twenty percent! I hope my wife doesn't read this!

I then decided to add my name and God. A whopping thirteen percent! Then for the last attempt, I put in my name and Jesus. A very disappointing zero percent! Am I that unlovable? Of course, then I read the small print at the bottom of the page: "Please note that this site has no serious intention whatsoever." Shocking!

The truth is, the modern world increasingly seems to have no real idea what love is or how to determine when love is real. That makes the seemingly simple words of Jesus about loving God and your neighbor very complex indeed. How can you love God with your all your heart, soul, and mind when you have no idea what the act of loving means? And then, what constitutes loving a neighbor? To make it more complicated, Jesus commands you to love them like you love yourself. I bet you can agree with me that there are a lot of people out there who do not even come close to loving themselves. Knowing what love is in modern times is just not that easy. How is a well meaning person able to find out the true meaning of love?

You don't know what true love is? I think you do. Turn your eyes to that crucifix hanging in your church, home, or office. The answer was given over two thousand years ago, and the image remains for the entire world to see.

Idea for response

Find a piece of paper or note card and a pen and sit down to write a note to someone about how much you love that person.

Take time to reflect

How has my understanding of love changed over my life? When I look at a crucifix, what does it say to me about the nature of love?

St. Lawrence Golf Outing

Chris Feehan

On Friday, Sept. 28, St. Lawrence O’Toole had it’s annual golf outing at Centennial Golf Course. Fortunately, the sun came out shortly after the shotgun start at 1pm. We had a total of 15 foursomes for the day, which was a few less than normal due to the nasty early weather forecast. All in all just a great day of golf, food & laughs.

Our winning team for the day was captained by Eileen De-Paoli playing along with her brother Vinny and nephew Brendan recording score of -10 for the day. One unfortunate mishap that occurred about half way through the round was that to our esteemed leader Joe Cavanagh.

As the story goes it was after his 3rd swing that he took a fall while walking down a hill to his ball. We believe his feet came out from under him and his hand took the impact of the fall. We are conducting an investigation on this story as it does have some holes...no pun intended.

As we no longer had Joe to emcee the dinner a few of the backup acts rallied to share some thoughts and thanks. Grand Knight Ed Lestrangle did an excellent job recognizing our honorees that included all of the past Grand Knights of the 1495 Council. In attendance to receive recognition included Jan Anthony, Bruce Colombraro, Vinny LaRusso, Mike Brady, Deacon Greg Miller, Fred Santi and Dom Romano.

A special word of thanksto our major sponsors: PCSB and Icon Interior and Burdick Blacktop for their constant support.
