while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

This week in the Gospel Jesus praises a scribe who grasps the truth of the “first of all the Commandments”, namely, “to love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength”. Jesus assures him he is not far from the Kingdom of God. Sounds easy, right? Just love God. And everything will be fine. Free ticket to heaven.

NOT SO FAST... TO ME THIS SEEMS LIKE A VERY TOUGH CHALLENGE FOR US TODAY.

Loving God in a general, abstract way, in our heads, is pretty easy. But “with all our heart, all our soul, and all our strength”? That is tough. It means God has to have the first place in our lives, that we have to serve others out of love for God, that we have to want to please God in all we do. He has to be at the center of our thinking, our judgments, our decisions and our actions. He has to be the main influence on our conscience.

It's like saying you love your spouse, “but...”. In practice we don't show it, we don't put much effort into it, we don't sweat the details of the relationship. It's just there, sort of an obligation where we do the minimum to get by. So many relationships aren't in much more than “maintenance mode”

I started thinking about this when I read an article by an old friend who is now a scholar and writer. His point was that if we don't love worshiping God in Church, a being with God in prayer, we are not going to like heaven very much, and we won't belong there. I think he has a point.

The Gospel is challenging us to reorder our priorities, to clear away some of the busy-ness, the distractions, the useless stuff, to spend more time on the things that last forever.

I see more and more people waking up to what's most important. They spend time in Adoration. They drop in to the Church for a few minutes to be alone with God during the day. They crack open the Bible every night for ten minutes. They get a rosary in. Before they make a big decision, they check their conscience and ask, “what does God want in this situation?”.

Like the scribe Jesus praised, let's get God back in the center of our lives.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

EARLY BIRD RAFFLE WINNER IS DEB HEALY

thanks for everything

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected when received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the invocation of God in prayer.

—1 Timothy 4:4-5

I was sitting in my car, waiting to pick up my daughter from an area teen Bible study. When I finally saw her I noticed she was walking with her friend from school, who had recently been talking about getting baptized. Her parents were divorced and because of circumstances beyond her control, she never received the sacrament. Now she was older and growing in faith and longed to belong. I realized both she and my daughter were coming toward my car. I rolled down the window. My daughter's friend just wanted to say hello and thank me for inviting and taking her to Mass with us the previous Sunday. I told her she was welcomed anytime. I thought to myself how nice it was for her to thank me for something I had not even thought much about.

When you begin to see all that is around you as a gift, you cannot help but give thanks. You give thanks for the obvious: life, family, and love. But you also give thanks for the smaller things: a ride, a gesture, and a prayer. And you begin to realize that all actions of thanks, whether it is directly to God in prayer, or it is to a person who has been kind, end up glorifying God. For it was God that created all things and any acknowledgment of that goodness glorifies the Creator.

Everyday stewards can find it easier to be optimistic in this crazy world because they see life as so precious and all that works in concert to sustain it as good. The gratitude expressed and experienced by a person provides a pathway to hope when it all seems hopeless, and to love in the face of hate. It makes things like the longing of a young girl to be washed clean in baptismal waters possible in the face of a culture, and perhaps parents, that see this as foolish. Thanks be to God.

Idea for response

Sit down and handwrite a thank-you note to someone that deserves your gratitude. Make sure you send it. (Yes, snail mail!)

Take time to reflect

How can I begin to show greater gratitude for those who have really touched my life?

finding all you need in Jesus

family program BBQ

Kim Santerre

The Family Program had its annual BBQ to kick off another Religious Education year. This year's event took place on 10/20/18 at the Elks Lodge on Route 22 in Brewster. What started out as a cool and wet early morning during set up, turned out to be a lovely weather afternoon for the actual BBQ.

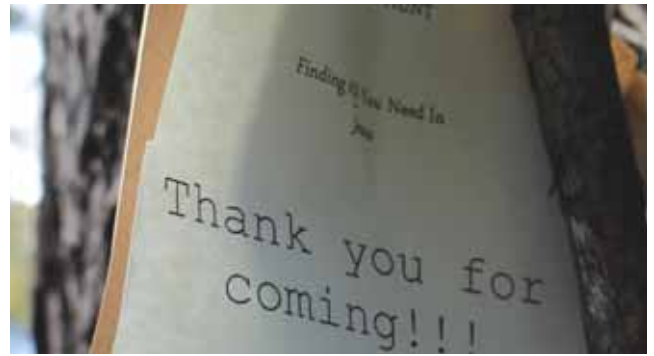

The Knights of Columbus generously offered their assistance in providing the food, snacks and drink, and cooking and serving up delicious hotdogs and hamburgers for a very large crowd! We had 150 students who attended with their parent(s), sibling(s) and even friends!!!

Families were able to participate in a Treasure Hunt: Finding Jesus event through "Station Experiences" that brought God's word to each person through hands-on activities. These are the four bible verses highlighted: "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."-John 13:7, "Seek His will in all you do, and He will show you which path to take."-Proverbs 3:6, "May I never forget the good things He has done for me."-Psalm 103:2 and "Jesus is the anchor to my soul."-Hebrews 6:19. Each verse had its own activity coupled with it. Each child received a "map" to complete the stations. Each station completed earned a bible verse sticker to be placed on the map. A completed map earned candy from the treasure chest of Jesus, for each child. Families worked together on completing the following activities: digging for the treasure of Jesus, making a Jesus bracelet, constructing a Jesus anchor and illustrating themselves with Jesus on the cross. Families also participated in games like flag football, kickball and a relay race.

It was wonderful to watch everyone enjoying themselves, and each other, while working, playing, eating and mingling. We are so thankful not only to our Knights of Columbus, but to all of the people who assisted us for this event. We could not do any of this without all of them!

Dear Friends In Christ,

As many of you know, my family and I lost our dear father after a long illness. It was difficult to say goodbye to the man who was the pillar of our family in matters of morality, faith and self-discipline. However, your expression of love and generosity of prayers aided us in turning this painful loss into grateful admiration and thanksgiving.

For this, I would like to express our immeasurable gratitude to the parishioners of Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence O'Toole, all parish ministries and staff, and especially to our Pastor, Fr. Richard Gill, whose prayers, support and love are imbedded in the hearts and memories of us all. In addition, I would like to offer a special thank you to my brother Deacons for their prayers and words of encouragement.

Once again, I thank you all from the bottom of my heart. May the good Lord reward you for the kindness you have shown to me and my entire family. You will always be in our prayers.

In Christ,
Deacon Mark Shkreli
