while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

The Gospels these past weeks sound pretty ominous – that we are close to the end times. People all over like to worry about this. Jesus encourages his disciples to watch and be ready, to read the signs of the times. No one knows when it will happen. Yet he speaks of it as a reality, as something sure and certain.

And all of Scripture does speak of an end of the world at some unknown time, when human history finishes once for all. And people always look for signs all over, in alien invasions, in weather changes, in wars, in obscure texts and prophecies, in self-inflicted world destruction. People worry how terrible it will be – imagining terror and deprivation and fear. But although we can't know when or how, nevertheless it is certain that day will come, as surely as the end comes for each individual life at some point.

Are we ready if the end were to come now?
He tells us "do not be afraid".

Jesus advises watching and waiting. Anticipate what is to come. He speaks of being ready to give an account of our stewardship of our lives at every moment. He stresses how we must use the talents we have been given by God, he teaches that if we love him, we will keep his commandments. He tells us to follow him, because he is the way, the truth and the life. He reminds us that we need to love the Lord with all our mind, all our heart and all our strength. To love one another as he loved us.

He gave us the program to live, by imitating him and following in his footsteps. He sent the Holy Spirit to guide our conscience and help us discern the right choices to make that will lead us to the kingdom.

On this Feast of Christ the King, we say once again what we believe – that Jesus Christ is the one true King worthy of our allegiance and our devotion, that we look forward with expectation to the day he fully establishes his reign over us.

And with that, we head to the Advent season starting next Sunday...

God bless,

Fr. Richard

married outside the church

If you or a family member are married outside the Church (e.g. By a justice of the peace or a non-Catholic ceremony), it is not considered a valid marriage by the Church. It is important to receive the Sacrament of Matrimony (or as some say, have the marriage "blessed") in order to live fully the life of the Church and participate in the sacraments. We're here to help. Call Fr. Gill at the Parish Office to discuss the situation and see what can be done.

EnCourage

EnCourage is a ministry for relatives and friends of those who find themselves with same sex attractions. It is consistent with the Catholic faith on sexual morality and it offers guidance and support to handle the situation faced with charity and compassion.

If you love someone with a same sex attraction, Encourage can help you feel welcomed and supported by committed Catholics who understand what you are going through.

Meetings are held every third Friday of the month in the Large Conference Room of the Parish Center.

For more information email

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.

TOP 10 REASONS TO JOIN OUR CHOIR

10. You're tired of singing alone in the shower.
9. Rehearsals give you a legitimate excuse to get out of chores and honey-do lists.
8. The view from the choir loft.
7. You'll make new friends.
6. D note, C note, close enough.
5. You get to pretend to read music.
4. We're not recording any of these.
3. Singing is good for the soul.
2. We have clean robes.
1. God wants to hear you sing too!

a living witness

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave from there. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached repentance.

-Mark 6:7-12

When one works for a parish, church organization, or is closely aligned with a Christian community, it causes some to be nervous. I always get a kick out of meeting people for the first time and when they hear I work in the Church, they want to tell me how they have been meaning to get back to attending a church, or how they have not yet found a place to attend on Sundays since they moved to the area...like 10 years ago. Of course, it's funny now how all my non-Catholic friends want to tell me how much they like Pope Francis, as if I have tea with him every Friday at the Vatican.

That being said, as a Christian I do have a responsibility to share the Good News with others. If I had a powerful experience losing weight, finding a great restaurant, or hearing a great piece of music, I would want to share that with others. Surely my relationship with Jesus Christ and what He has done for me by transforming my life is better than any weight loss, steak, or new band. How can I hide the most important aspect of my life?

Being a good steward helps them see what Jesus has done for me. They see that I am striving to be more giving, more gracious, and more welcoming. Hopefully, they see something they want also. I can tell them more about my faith, but hopefully my actions will cause them to inquire first. If they choose to reject me for who I am I can only pray the next good steward that crosses their path intrigues them more. Meanwhile, I can love them as they are, people just like me, looking for what I have already found.

Idea for response

Write one social media post online (Facebook, Twitter, etc.) about what God has meant to you in your life.

Take time to reflect

Who are 3 people I know who need to grow in knowledge and love of Jesus Christ?

fall fête

Barbara Blank

The night of Friday, October 26th was so much fun for our Early Childhood Learning Center Family. We had a great turnout which included our current and past families, our current and past faculty and staff members.

The apparent camaraderie really demonstrated that once a member of the ECLC family, always a member.

Thanks to the tireless efforts of three of our ECLC moms, Dawn Maguire, Jessica FitzGerald and Brittany Gauriloff, the St. Lawrence Dining Hall was transformed into an elegant dining room with beautiful and festive Fall décor. From stuffed shells to Chicken Franchise to seafood ceviche including a nice selection of wines were enjoyed as everyone ate, drank, talked and laughed.

We had a few raffles with some great prizes donated by local businesses and friends of ECLC. Our winners were: the Serrados (50/50), the Maguires (Door Prize), Amanda Tucker (massage), the Tarantinos (Italian Basket) and Jessica FitzGerald (facial). The evening ended with a selection of delightful desserts and coffee with homemade sambucca. Again, many many thanks to Mrs. Maguire, Mrs. FitzGerald and Mrs. Gauriloff. We are already looking forward to next year and hope more of our ECLC family will join us.
