while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

May this be a Happy New Year for all.

For some in our parish, this past year has been a struggle. Perhaps the loss of a loved one, perhaps a personal challenge, a serious illness, a family crisis, a professional setback, loss of a job or a financial problem. Perhaps it has been a trial for some to help a family member or friend with an addiction, or to try and heal some divisions between others.

I hope for those who are suffering you have found that God is always faithful, that Jesus walks with us in our trials and "has borne our wounds". He is the companion in whatever trial we face.

I hope you also find comfort and support in our parish communities. The parish is a place where God's people gather together to worship him and love and support each other on our journey. My prayer is that in this new year we be ever more a place people find understanding, support and unconditional love.

The mission of our parish is to create more and more disciples of the Lord, people who love and embrace him as the center of their lives, convinced Jesus is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life" for every person alive.

That commitment to authentic discipleship leads us to offer our ministries for people facing challenges – our Senior Group provides a place for many to gather and find friendships and support. Our GriefShare Bereavement Ministry reaches out to those who have lost a loved one. Our collaboration with the homeless shelter is ongoing this winter as is the work of many parishioners in the local food pantry. We open our doors to AA and NA for those with addictions, and Encourage serves family and friends of those experiencing same-sex attractions.

Please continue to pray for and support our parishes in the year to come. May it be a time of grace for you and for your family, and of deeper commitment to Jesus day by day.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

celebrating our lady of guadalupe

Sunday, December 9th, was the celebration of Our Lady Guadalupe. Parishioners came up one by one to place flowers and candles around the image of Our Lady and pray.

This celebration commemorates the appearance of Mary to the Mexican peasant Juan Diego in 1531. After Mass, the celebration continued in the gym for a dinner, dancing and festivities. Special thanks to Esleban and Jorge Jimenez of La Guadalupana Restaurant for providing the food for all.

TRANSFORMED

How God Changes Us

Transformed will challenge you by exploring what the Bible has to say about every essential area of our lives: Spiritual, Physical, Mental, Emotional, Relational, Financial, and Vocational. The world is shouting for our attention with answers to our relationship struggles, solutions to our financial trouble, and explanations for our search for meaning. But the world's promises leave us empty and searching for more. God's Word is the only answer that promises to transform our lives from the inside out. Be Transformed Together.

there is much to be done

Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS

Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.'

-Matthew 25:34-40

Growing up Catholic means I must have heard a million times the passage in Matthew's Gospel about how doing things for the "least of these" means you have done them for Jesus. Okay, that is an exaggeration to make a point. But it has been a slogan for so many social justice activities, from clothing and canned food drives, to letter writing campaigns and peaceful protests.

Growing up I only knew how to help the least of these through the school and church activities of the time. Today, YouTube and GodTube are filled with videos of creative ways people reach out to one another. Have you seen the one about the pizza party for the homeless? How about the fake lottery ticket or the house bought from online donations for a poor man? There are even videos of people paying for the car behind them at the drive-through! The awesome thing about this is that it serves as a witness to others. It is not boasting but instead sharing the Good News. Giving and good stewardship can be contagious!

Our pastor has several times over the years handed out $10 bills to confirmation candidates and asked them to "pay it forward." They can keep the money or use it to make a difference in someone else's life. One teen planted a garden for an elderly woman. One bought ingredients for brownies and sold them to give even more than $10 to charity. The teens not only learned something about good stewardship in the process, but also served as great examples to the parish community.

As always, there is much to be done. The King is coming soon! Let's spread the news and some love at the same time!

Idea for response

Today, find a way to do something for someone you do not know, or at least do not know well, and then ask the person to "pay it forward."

Take time to reflect

In what ways do I regularly care for "the least of these?" What can I change in my life to make this part of it more profound?

cyo breakfast

Tim Nevins

On December 9 the CYO Basketball Program held their annual “Mass and Breakfast” to celebrate the 2018 season. This year St. Lawrence has almost 100 kids participating on 10 teams. Our guest speaker was Ed Mulvihill, a lifelong Brewster resident and longtime teacher and coach in the Brewster School District. Mr. Mulvihill spoke to the players and families about teamwork, sportsmanship, respect, and Catholic faith and how these principles help nurture and develop the players in the CYO Program.

The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy will draw you closer to your heavenly Bridegroom. If we consider that God is the Divine Bridegroom and the Church is his Bride, then the prophets can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors."

Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom, and show us how to share him with others.
