while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Everybody agrees that marriage these days is difficult and couples need all the help they can get to persevere and grow in love and fidelity. The culture has shifted and what makes for good family life has become a challenge. With work demands and financial pressures, people experience fidelity, communication, family time, and closeness as more complicated than in the past. And we all sense the best gift you can give to your kids, the best thing you can ever do to improve your family life, is to grow in love for your spouse. But for many, it is very, very hard to do.

Next Saturday, Feb. 16 at St. Lawrence we'll celebrate St. Valentine's Day with a Celebrate Marriage evening. Bring your spouse for an evening of renewal, starting with drinks and a romantic dinner and closing with a renewal of marriage vows. It is a beautiful evening to renew that love you promised years ago. Celebrate Marriage is for marriages of all ages. Sign up at stlawrenceotoole.org/Celebrate_Marriage.

Starting March 16 we'll begin our popular Alpha Marriage program – a seven week series of “date nights” – dinner and talks on key topics on how to increase your happiness in marriage. People who have taken this have all loved it and report their marriage is much better. You dialogue only with your spouse, and have a chance to discuss those things that perhaps you haven't had time to deal with. The results are improved communications, closeness, and understanding. Register at BrewsterAlpha.com

On Ash Wednesday, March 6, we will start our Alpha Course. Alpha is a great way for you to renew your faith and ask the kind of questions you have on your mind in a judgement free zone! Each night starts with a delicious meal, some new friends, a video on basics on Christianity, and then a small group discussion of what it means to you.

You'll make new friends and come away with a deeper understand of God in your life. Give it a try and bring someone with questions – no prior faith needed!

Also, remember a priest is available for Confession every Monday from 4:00 to 7:00. Don't miss out on the chance to receive God's loving forgiveness, his mercy and his healing power.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Are you struggling with problems in some area of your life? Most of us have some issue that is dragging us down. One of the best things we can do is to drop into the quiet of the Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel and spend a little time – even if it is two or three minutes. Just come and talk it over with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament: He is the one with the answers you need.

Centennial Campaign Phase II

Since 2014 we have paid down over $2.6 million of the $3.8 million cost of the renovation of the Church. Over the next five years we need to pay off the rest of the $1.05 million that remains. We are looking to pay down $200,000 principal and approximately $50,000 interest each year between now and 2024.

If you haven't yet made a pledge to the campaign, please help the parish by using the Gold Centennial envelopes you receive in the mail each month. You can drop them in the collection any time during the month. Or you may also give through WeShare at stlawrenceotoole.churchgiving.com/CentennialRenovations

Your gift of $50 or $25 each month, or whatever you can give will go a long way to helping the parish pay down our loan. 100% of all the monies raised goes straight to our loan, and none of it is taxed or assessed by the Archdiocese. Thank you for your support!

cardinal dolan: why are cuomo, democrats alienating catholics?

By Timothy Cardinal Dolan

It's been a rough time for faithful Catholics recently in our state government's frantic rush for "progressive" ideas.

I'm thinking first of the ghoulish radical abortion-expansion law, which allows for an abortion right up to the moment of birth; drops all charges against an abortionist who allows an aborted baby, who somehow survives the scissors, scalpel, saline and dismemberment, to die before his eyes; mandates that, to make an abortion more convenient and easy, a physician need not perform it; and might even be used to suppress the conscience rights of health care professionals not to assist in the grisly procedures. All this in a state that already had the most permissive abortion laws in the country.

As if that's not enough, instead of admitting that abortion is always a tragic choice, and that life-giving alternatives should be more vigorously promoted, the governor and his "progressive" supporters celebrated signing the bill. At the governor's command, even the lights of the Freedom Tower sparkled with delight.

Those who once told us that abortion had to remain safe, legal and rare now have made it dangerous, imposed and frequent.

Then our governor insults and caricatures the church in what's supposed to be an uplifting and unifying occasion, his "State of the State" address.

The bishops of this state have long supported a reform of the inadequate laws around the sexual abuse of minors. Yes, we and many others expressed reservations about one element, the retroactive elimination of the civil statute of limitations, but urged dramatic reform that, in many ways, was tougher than what was being proposed by legislators. A month ago we renewed that stance, and even dropped our objections to the "look-back" section if all victims would benefit. The governor was aware of all this.

Why, then, would he use his address to blame the church, and only the church, for blocking this bill? Why would he publicly brag in a political address about his dissent from timeless and substantive church belief? Why would he quote Pope Francis out of context as an applause line to misrepresent us bishops here as being opposed to our Holy Father? Why did he reduce the sexual abuse of minors, a broad societal and cultural curse that afflicts every family, public school, religion and government program, to a "Catholic problem?"

I'm a pastor, not a politician, but I feel obliged to ask these questions, as daily do I hear them from my people, as well as colleagues from other creeds. I've been attacked in the past when I asked — sadly and reluctantly — if the party that my folks proudly claimed as their own, the Democrats, had chosen to alienate faithful Catholic voters. Now you know why I asked.

As an American historian, I am very aware of our state's past record of scorn and sneers at Catholics. It used to be called "know-nothings." Now it's touted as "progressivism."

Genuine progressives work to pass a "DREAM act," a "voters rights act," a "prison reform act," and we pastors of the church pitch in to support them. That's government at its best. I pray that spirit returns.

scout sunday

February 3, was Scout Sunday. There were 23 scouts from the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts combined. Paul Schmidt read the the first reading and Finlay King read the second reading. Sarah Borsari and Michael Curtain brought up the gifts. After Mass the scouts had a snack and created over 75 Valentine's for our Veterans.

The St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus Council 1495 Italian Dinner was another one for the books. With over 230 people, at the Starr Ridge Banquet Center, fun was had by all.

Preparations were all made by the Knights from Meatballs to Tiramisu. In addition to the salad, they added in pasta fagioli which will probably be a keeper for next year.

This year honoree was Drew Durkin, represented by his family. Mrs. Durkin said many kind words and reflected on Drew's time serving as a Knight.

There was a 50/50 and Penny Social with prizes from all over the Brewster area. Winners took home jewelry, Teeth Whitening, wine, and various gift certificates.

Charlene Todd made the amazing centerpieces which were festive to the night's theme. Music by Johnny B and Teri entertained us all evening. People were dancing and singing along to the tunes from yesterday.

This Italian Dinner was an event that had great food, entertainment and gave us a reason to socialize with our fellow parishioners. Every dollar raised at this dinner will go towards charity, Thanks for all who attended and we look forward to hosting other events during the coming months for your enjoyment.
