while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

A month from now we'll be starting into Holy Week and we'll all be saying "what happened to Lent? – it went by so quickly!". The weather will be better and we'll forget our complaining about winter. The day we received our ashes and made our Lenten resolutions will seem ages ago.

It can happen that we won't find ourselves very much changed. Or any closer to God. But there's still time to make this a great Lent. Maybe we make it too complicated.

I remember reading a spiritual writer from 700 years ago who wrote, "if we were only to acquire one virtue per year, we would soon be saints".

That sounded easy and straightforward to me. Focus on just one thing.

What is the one thing that most stands between you and God? That one fault, the one sin or bad habit. Give that your attention right now. Pray about it. Read a good spiritual book about it. Think about how it leads to other related sins, about how it weaves its way into your thoughts and actions. In a journal jot down your progress, including the downs as well as the "ups" in fighting it. Then go to Confession about it – and tell the priest this is what you are especially working at.

Guess what? God knows the tough slog you have, and he will give you specific graces and help to overcome it and to develop the opposite virtue. Try it out.

And remember – Lent is a great time for Confession. I believe somehow Confession went out of style some years ago, but it is coming back – for the simple reason that as much as our society tries, we can't convince ourselves that there is no such thing as sin. Or that my bad behavior is because of the way I was raised, or is somehow somebody else's fault. It's real and an unfortunate part of our lives. And we're not very realistic if we don't acknowledge that.

A priest is hearing Confessions every Monday from 4:00 pm to 8:30 pm, and two priests at the Lenten Monday Holy Hours from 7:30 pm to 8:30 pm. Even if it has been a long, long time – don't worry. The priest will walk you through it and make it easy. And many other people are coming back to it and finding real peace and forgiveness.

This Lent can be your time too.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

Alpha is a series of interactive sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each session looks at a different question and is designed to create conversation. There's no pressure, no follow-up and no charge; it's just an open, informal, and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.

ash wednesday

On Wednesday, March 6th the Early Childhood Learning Center students learned about Lent and why we get ashes on Ash Wednesday.

Deacon Greg distributed ashes to the children. Some of the children weren't ready to receive ashes and others were open to it. All the children experienced the beginning of Lent and were taught the meaning behind the ashes.

and the answer is...

Greg Rabito

At Lifeteen's Trivia Night each table battled it out over eight rounds of questions on a variety of topics from geography to Disney movies and sports. The final question of, "which volcanic eruption produced the loudest sound ever recorded" caused some friendly banter. The disputed answer was the eruption of the Krakatoa Volcano. The final score was tight and a great time was had by all, but the Cheetahs won in double overtime against the Dunder Mifflin table. A plaque will be made with the names of this years winning table!

Dinner, dessert, and drinks were donated by so many wonderful parishioners and local businesses. Between rounds the teens of St. Lawrence O'Toole's Lifeteen group shared testimonies and stories on how the group has drawn them closer to Christ.

Katie Westin gave a talk about Camp Veratas

It has been a pleasure for me to spend Sunday nights with these teens! ## The Marriage Course

a date night every week, closer week by week

Francine Chiulli-Rueda

Alpha Marriage was a unique opportunity to rekindle our marriage and grow closer to God. Every week we were welcomed into a warm and inviting cozy room with a candlelit table for two and fantastic food. We were able to watch amazing videos of how other couples deal with challenges and/or express love in their relationships with each other and their families. Then we privately spoke to each other (again only 2 people at a table) and learned new things about each other which we thought was impossible after almost 25 years of being together and recollected memories of things from the past which were long forgotten.

We dealt with a range of emotions but most importantly showing up for Alpha Marriage allowed us just for that moment to forget about the world and all its challenges and noise and just focus on us... something we lost sight of as we raised our family and always found ourselves focusing on our children. We eagerly looked forward to each session as a private date night that we could never do on our own because of so many excuses like our jobs, the kids, the house, the dogs, the cats, our families and friends, and all other distractions. When the program ended, we truly found ourselves to be a better couple for each other and better parents for our children.

We miss those mandatory date nights but still try to keep the premise of making time for each other alive by doing more things together and participating in other courses St. Lawrence has to offer. We highly recommend the course to both married and engaged couples. Our instructors are couples themselves who are truly down to earth, supportive, and did an amazing job! It was great meeting other couples and seeing how the course touched so many of us. It's more than a course. It's a truly special experience that your relationship deserves which will jump start or enrich what you already have. Just do it! God will help you.
