while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Happy Mother's Day!

It's beautiful to see our kids receiving their sacraments, as 23 youngsters did at Sacred Heart last week, and 80 more at St. Lawrence. This week will also feature Confirmations at two different Masses.

Among those receiving the sacraments are several kids from families who are returning to the Church and have gone through a special program to learn the faith. Congratulations to all our kids and to their families! We're especially happy for those who have come home to the Church and are living their faith in a new and deeper way.

Nurturing the faith of our next generation is a major task of the parish and a primary responsibility of every Catholic parent. I want to thank you for the time and interest all you parents put into educating your kids in the faith and bringing them to Mass each week. It is so encouraging to see that in a world that has more than its share of confusion and conflict our Catholic parents are trying to steer our kids in the right direction. Parents have a great responsibility and we're here to help them.

I mentioned recently that a study shows that it is dads who have the decisive influence on the perseverance of children in the faith. If parents don't attend Mass or pray at home or educate their children in the faith, almost no child becomes a believer later on. But if both parents, and especially the dads are practicing the faith, kids respond and live it out themselves. A father who attends Mass weekly and teaches the faith to his kids practically insures they will grow up as good Catholics.

It's beautiful to see so many parents fulfilling the promises they made when they had their children baptized: "to bring them up in the practice of the Faith".

Our St. Lawrence Family Program is a unique and wonderfully successful approach to religious education that involves the family in the process. The days when kids were just dropped off for "CCD" are fading away and new, creative ways to transmit the faith are becoming more popular. I'm proud to say our great religious education staff has pioneered a better approach to forming families in the faith.

We introduced a new director for the Family Program last week – Cecilia Britez. She looks forward to getting to know all the families and kids and helping you all pass on the most precious thing you have to your kids – the gift of faith.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

$10 each luminare
after Mass 5/18-9

JOIN
TEAM

TOGETHER WE ARE STRONGER THAN CANCER

create a luminare for a loved one

After all the Masses on May 18/19 there will be a table set up outside the church to purchase your own luminare. There will be markers and crayons to make it personal. This is your chance to create a special luminare for someone in your life who survived cancer or who has past away. Each Luminare is $10.

You can also register for the June 1st RELAY FOR LIFE at Brewster High School where your luminare will be displayed and you can walk for team St. Lawrence O'Toole. Opening Ceremony is at 5PM. The Opening Ceremony is all about celebrating Survivors and their Caregivers. Survivors receive a purple shirt and take a victory lap around the track as the highlight of the Opening Ceremony. Survivors are then invited to a free dinner which is catered by the Aversano Family.

The evening is filled with music, games and entertainment. Relay is not a "relay race" it is called a Relay because the goal is to have someone walking on the track at all times to symbolize the community uniting in the fight against cancer.

Around 9:30 pm we have our Luminarie Ceremony. The white bags that you purchase at church on May 18/19 are placed around the track in honor of all those who have survived cancer and in memory of those lost to the disease. A bagpiper will play during the beautiful solemn ceremony. Please join the St. Lawrence Team.

The Eucharist is the source and summit of our Catholic faith. Through the work of the Holy Spirit, ordinary bread and wine truly become the consecrated Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. On Saturday, April 27, 23 children from Sacred Heart were so enthusiastic to make their First Holy Communion. It was such a joyous day for the children, their families and fellow parishioners. Congratulations!!!

Cecilia Britez

This was my first time helping during First Holy Communion for our beautiful children here at Saint Lawrence O'Toole. We had two ceremonies, the first one with 31 children and with over 350 people in attendance. These were parents, friends and families of our first communicants. During the second ceremony we had 28 children. And again, our church was filled with families, and loved ones who came to pour out their hearts while witnessing their sons and daughters receive Jesus for the first time.

During the preparation and rehearsal hours I kept on trying to remember how I felt during my own First Communion. Do you have a recollection of how your first communion went? What did you feel, were you thinking on the flavor Jesus had while the Holy Host was melting in your mouth? I can tell you that some of our kids were making faces, and looking for each other's reactions after receiving Jesus for the first time. Their innocence and their full presence and participation at every moment of the Mass reminded me of why Jesus said that 'unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 18:2) Why would Jesus invite us to be like children?

Well, I believe that last Saturday I was able to understand this better: when your sons and daughters came to their First Holy Communion, they didn't think of anything else other than their First Communion, and receiving Jesus. They were worry free. They were not preoccupied with the weather, with their elegant dresses and suits, or the order or the length of the ceremony. They were all thinking and talking about their First Communion. They were fixed on Jesus, from their hand postures, to the pace at which they walked, to the way they dressed, and the way they behaved. Aside from all the flowers, and gifts and after-parties, these children knew they were going to receive Jesus soon, and their little hearts were jumping and excited and anxious to receive the Lord.

I wondered myself, when was the last time I was like these children? When was the last time I have allowed myself to go back to my First Holy Communion Day and long for Jesus, in the same way I know He longs for me? If you ask yourself this question, what would you answer? Take a few moments...and then think that this very Sunday, or the very next time we come to Mass again, we can ask our Lord and Savior to give us hearts of children. It can be as simple as this: "Lovely Jesus, please teach me to be like a child receiving you for the first time. Jesus, give me the grace to love you like these First Communicants love you."

Next time I come to communion, I will quietly say this prayer and try to receive Jesus into my heart just like your sons and daughters received Him last Saturday.

let the festivities begin! wrapped in a message of love

Kim Santerre

The Family Program had a special event, a Family Festival Day, on April 27, 2019. Children enjoyed indoor “carnival-style” activities while parents listened to a presentation.

Our guest speakers were Caroline and Dan Dirkes. They facilitated the session for our families. Caroline and Dan provided their own testimonials about how they developed their own relationships with Christ and the importance of Him in our everyday lives.

Fun games took place, involving some of the parents and children, to kick off the day’s events. Then, children were escorted to the Parish Hall and rooms in the Parish Center. There, the children were able to participate in games and enjoy a bounce house and some snacks. The parents listened to Caroline and Dan’s presentation.

There was opportunity for parents to examine their own consciences and then receive the sacrament of reconciliation. Parents also prayed together in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Children then joined in with their parents in prayer to bring the beautiful day to a close.

together we can pay it down!

To date we have paid off the bulk of the $3.8 million cost of our Church renovation in just five years. Our remaining debt is just over $1 million plus interest and we are planning to retire the debt by 2024 – five years from now. We will be making payments of $100,000 every six months plus 5% interest.

Please use the Gold Centennial envelopes to make your gift to this wonderful campaign that has transformed our parish. Drop them in the collection any Sunday during the month, or make your gifts through:
stlawrenceotoole.churchgiving.com

Your gift each month will go a long way in helping us paying down our loan. Keep in mind that every dollar raised for the campaign goes directly to our debt, and none of it is subject to assessments or taxes by the Archdiocese.
