while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

We've got some great things for you to take advantage of this month:

- After the 11:00 Mass today Sunday June 2, join us for a book signing with the author of the fascinating Memoirs of St. Peter – a study of the Gospel of St. Mark, by author Michael Pakaluk. It will be held in the St. Lawrence Parish Center Large Conference Room. Drop in to meet the author and get your copy.

- If you have suffered the loss of a loved one, St. Lawrence O'Toole's Bereavement Ministry meets weekly to help you recognize the complex emotions and experiences of grief and to work through your loss with group support and the GriefShare program. Practical strategies will help you move through the grief process with the goals of rebuilding your life, while experiencing significant healing, and a growth in faith.

A new program began on Tuesday, May 28 from 7:00-9:00 pm in the New York Room.

- Transformed is a mini course that will challenge you by exploring what the Bible has to say about every essential area of our lives: Spiritual, Physical, Mental, Emotional, Relational, Financial, and Vocational. The last time we ran this course people were really transformed!

Starts Wednesday, June 5, 7-9:00 Large Conference Room

- Learning the Meaning of the Mass Family Style. If you're like most Catholics, you don't really understand parts of the Mass you attend each week. Or maybe there are things you have forgotten. I'll direct three lessons and answer questions in the Church. But it's for the whole family : the 4-12 year olds will have their own session with Cecilia Britez and teens with Greg Rabito.

Bring the whole family for this immersion in the Mass. It will be three Thursday evenings, June 6, 20, 27 from 7-8:30 in the Church.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

Alpha...what does it mean, and what it is all about?

Cecilia Britz

At the beginning all I knew was that we have some big red signs outside our church, with white font and big question marks that read "Got Questions about Life?" I remember saying inside of me "you bet I have questions about life!"

I attended Alpha because I was invited, and because I was promised nice dinners and the opportunity to ask questions. The atmosphere at an Alpha table was relaxed, as we each arrived, we served ourselves dinner, proceeded to our table with our usual group of people, and just talked about our day, our week, and sometimes our lives. We watched interesting and well made videos, and had some hardcore honest conversations, and other times I had some good listening nights when questions from people at my table left me thinking and reflecting upon my own life and soul. I realized during the Alpha course that even though each of us at our table were at a different stage in our quest for the meaning of life, we were all longing for the same thing. We all wished that there was something that we could hold on to, and call it real, and know that it is constant, never-changing and even eternal answer to our thirst for fulfillment and completeness.

I felt connected to the people in my group, and as a matter of fact I made some really awesome new friends. Alpha afforded us the chance to meet each other, to hear each other's stories, to open up about our experiences and genuinely speak of our fears, hopes and desires.

I know that we can explore important questions about life and the purpose of life with friends that we already have, or family members. However, when you take time out of your ordinary everyday schedule, and come and make community with people who are after the same quest, something extraordinary happens. I cannot put my finger on it, but I know that something opened up inside me, and that the same happened to those with whom I had the pleasure of sharing conversations. I know now that Alpha delivers what it promises: the brilliant opportunity to share the common interest of growing spiritually, intellectually and in friendship over a delicious meal and with an environment that is suited for an encounter with our Creator.

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

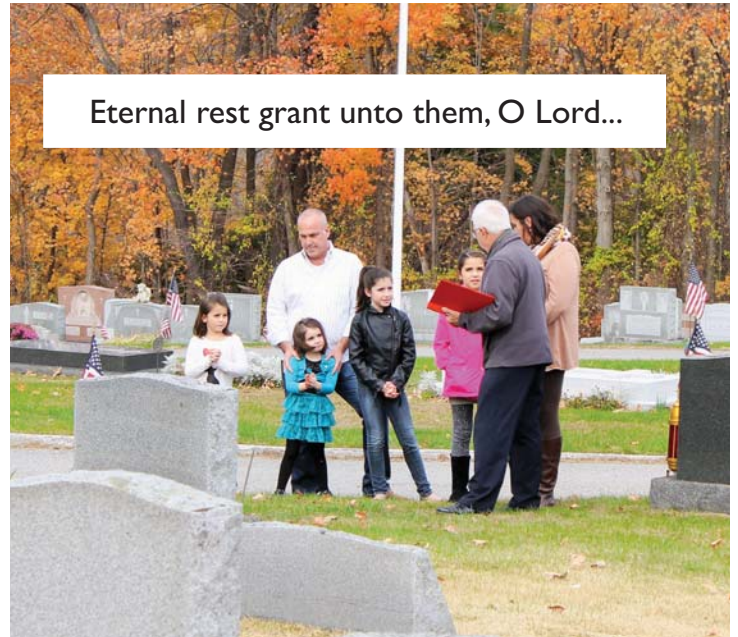

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
