The St. Edmund Campion Classical Homeschool Cooperative invites families from St. Lawrence O'Toole to join us for the 2019-2020 academic year. We meet weekly at the parish center, offering a full day of classes for children aged pre-K through grade 8, in subjects including history, science, geography, Spanish or Latin, literature and drama. We have an excellent classical curriculum and can offer help to families new to homeschooling. We would love for you to join our community of Catholic homeschooling families. our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Today at St. Lawrence we will have a religious brother from the Marists to speak on their missionary work and the important work of the Propagation of the Faith, and there will be a second collection. Next week a missionary will visit Sacred Heart to appeal there as well. Please be as generous as you can.

We all know we live in a time and a culture where we tend to “privatize” our faith – it’s something very personal and we don’t want to “impose” it on others. That is fair enough, but it also misses something essential to faith – that it is a gift from God we have to share with others. We never “impose” faith, but we must always “propose” the truth of the Gospel that Jesus came to teach us, because that is the way to salvation.

That is the heart of missionary work in the Church. We all grew up learning of the heroic missionaries of old like St. Francis Xavier, who brought the message of Jesus to pagan peoples around the world.

Today is Pentecost Sunday – the day when the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles and Mary and sent them out into the world as witnesses of Jesus Christ. He gave them the power and the courage to go forth.

The Church is by her very nature missionary, because Jesus himself told us to “go forth to all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit”. Missions are not something “extra”, but essential to what Jesus asked of us.

Today, we face the sad reality that many of the places that were long traditionally Christian and Catholic countries no longer are such, due to secularization and decline in passing on the faith to new generations.

We have to admit that our own country and Archdiocese is now “mission territory” and we ourselves are the missionaries sent forth.

Today all of us must be missionaries in our own families, in our neighborhoods, in our workplaces, in our schools, in our towns and cities. Each one of us is an “apostle” sent out. We do this first by our witness of a true Catholic lifestyle that is obedient to what Jesus said and did. And then we do it by our words, offering the truth that he taught us – the truth that “sets us free”.

And we need to pray the Holy Spirit come upon all of us Catholics and send us out as to our world today. It is no longer something just for specialized missionaries in far off countries, but for every Catholic to do.

Who is it that you can reach with the Gospel? Who needs you to be a better missionary? Just look around you – pretty much everyone around you needs your witness.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

my teddy bear's visit to school

Kim Santerre

On Wednesday, May 29th, the Early Childhood Learning Center had a Teddy Bear Picnic. Every child was able to bring their teddy bear to school! All of the teddy bears experience a morning at pre-school. Each bear had their own teddy bear holder which was made out of brown grocery bags and was decorated by each child. The teddy bears hung off of the backs of chairs in their holders in the classroom while the children were busy learning their ABC's! Then, when it was time to attend the picnic, each teddy bear was hand carried by each child to the gym where the picnic took place. The children and their teddy bears started the picnic off singing the song "Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear" and doing a special dance. Then, the children and their teddy bears listened to a teddy bear story. Finally, the children and their teddy bears enjoyed a delicious picnic of Teddy Grahams, Honeycombs and watermelon. Yummy!

building stronger marriages

Phyllis LaRusso, Vinny LaRusso
Chris Sherman, Lynn Sherman

A few weekends ago, the Alpha Marriage Program wrapped up its second year with 10 couples completing the seven week program. Phyllis & Vincent LaRusso along with Lynn and Chris Sherman are facilitators for this program and this year had four additional couples from the previous program assist them with the preparation for this years couples.

Each week the couples were warmly greeted with a wonderful dinner, wine and beverages and sat at their intimate candle lit table for two where they watched a different video each week on many different topics pertaining to their marriage.

The couples all enjoyed this special date night out that gave them the opportunity to focus on many of those issues that they normally don't get to discuss at home.

Direct quotes from the program included:

“It gave us the opportunity to spend time with each other every week and to be reminded that our marriage is important”.

“At times it was challenging to face things, but the date night was always amazing and we feel closer than every now”.

“We were able to have conversations that we hadn't had in a long time”.

“The food and beverages were perfect and the atmosphere was very comfortable”.

Please consider joining us for our next session of Alpha Marriage so that you too can have this amazing experience in making your marriage stronger!

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
