while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Today is Father's Day where for one day at least we stop and thank our dads for all they do for us. It's very well deserved and it's a good think we take time to reflect on the people who shape and influence and teach us right from wrong. I guess we usually take that for granted, but only by the sacrifice of men who love us have we all gotten to where we are today. Give thanks to dad today!

An increasing body of research has show that fathers have even a greater role than mothers in shaping the religious behavior of their children. It's a surprising conclusion that researchers have come to – that the decisive factor in whether children persevere in faith is the religious fidelity of dads. So if you want your kids to grow up and stay close to God, you can't out-source that – you have to live it and show them you believe it.

That made me reflect on my own experience with my dad – he was a quiet guy, but a man of steady faith. Now that he has been gone for 30 years, I am still growing in respect for him and the good influence he had on me. That's where dads leave a legacy – long after they are gone their good efforts pay off.

Next week we celebrate the great Feast of Corpus Christi, with our annual parish pilgrimage through the streets of Brewster to the Church (starting at the train station at 3:45 pm Sunday, June 23rd). Join us for this great public witness to our faith as we walk with Jesus through our streets and proclaim publicly that we believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

What a blessing it would be fathers and their children walking with other believers, united around Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament!

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

why i converted to catholicism from islam

Deacon Artie Lekovic

God knows what He is doing; there is no coincidence but only "God-incidence". So how did I convert? First of all, I married a Catholic woman who prayed for me continuously. Every Sunday, and with a gentle invitation, she would ask me to go to Mass with her. And I, of course, would gently refuse. God used my strong temperament and arranged a situation that would shake, disturb, disappoint and brake me down. However, as I was going through this hardship, Jesus touched my heart and infused His love in it so much that my heart literary burned within my chest. I just did not know the meaning of all this until one day. As I was sitting on a bench at a bus stop a lady came to me, looked at me straight in the face and said "Jesus loves you", then walked away. Later that day, I told my wife what had happened and asked her who is this Jesus and what does He want from me. She replied with "Why don't you ask Him yourself?". So I decided to go to Mass the following Sunday with my wife. It was the first time stepping into a church – something I had never thought I would do. But it was at that moment during the Mass when the priest raised the Eucharist and said those words "This is my Body which will be given up for you" that I felt that burning love for Him. And I couldn't help but stare at the crucifix. At the end of the Mass, my nervous wife asked me how I felt and my response was "I felt like I was home". I immediately entered the RCIA program and received my sacraments at the Easter Vigil of March 2002. And now here I am, serving my Lord the best way I can.

donuts with dad

Kim Santerre

The Early Childhood Learning Center celebrated "Donuts With Dad" last Monday, June 3, 2019. All of the PreK 3 and PreK 4 students honored their fathers or 'special someones' by serving yummy donuts and coffee to their guests during the morning event.

The staff and the children have been preparing for this event by making special keepsakes for the fathers. The children worked on a special picture to match the read aloud that was shared during the event. They also made matching ties, one for themselves and one for their dads, and each wore it during the event. The dads were presented with gift bags from their children filled with tributes and artwork especially made for them. They were served donuts and coffee while enjoying quality time with their little ones.

It was an AMAZING way to celebrate Father's Day!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
