while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

I apologize I might be a little scarce around the parish for a few weeks, mostly during the week but home on weekends for the most part. With Fr. Raphael on board for the summer, I'm able to get in my annual retreat. This past week I was in West Virginia with 200 priests (about 8 from our Archdiocese) at a retreat directed by Scott Hahn and leaders from the St. Paul Biblical Institute. It's a good time to refresh and pray for all of you. Next week I'll spend some time at a conference on Discipleship and how to form intentional disciples in a parish setting. Later on I'll go to Rhode Island where the Thomistic Institute is offering a short program for diocesan priests on Evangelization in parishes. We've got to keep learning how to do this better! We want to make our amazing parishes even more amazing and effective.

In August I'm hoping to get away for a little vacation time as well. Let's hope nothing goes wrong to change those plans.

I'm getting a lot of good feedback for the Wednesday Wisdom videos – they come to you on Flocknotes, Facebook, and are on the website. The idea is simple... just a 2 minute video on something real going on and a thought or two about how to think as a Christian. Tune in and if you like it, share it on your social media. The same goes for the audio of my homilies each week... you never know who you might be helping.

This past week a parishioner got me over to visit with a very sick friend she had been helping for some time. It turns out the woman had left the Catholic Church many years ago, and all her family as well. Now she was close to death and our parishioner encouraged her to see a priest and make her peace with God. I was able to administer the sacrament to her and with some family members present, she told them she wanted to be buried as a Catholic. She died the very next morning and she will have a Catholic funeral.

Last week we read the parable of the Good Samaritan, and it finished with Jesus saying "Go and do likewise". What a beautiful act of charity – the greatest charity, really: to help someone go home at peace with God and with others.

Be sure to do the same with your elderly and sick relatives and friends, to gently and lovingly help them reconcile whatever they need to with our good and merciful God. Get them to the sacraments... in the end, eternal life is what most matters. And we should never take that for granted.

"Go and do likewise."

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

cit's at vbs

Greg Rabito

Roar! Vacation Bible School (VBS) was a weeklong wild safari adventure. Each morning began in the church as the group learned about the sacraments, church etiquette, and how to pray.

After, the kids bounced from station to station playing fun games, arts and crafts, and acting out the Bible passage of the days. The campers heard stories like Moses parting the Red Sea and learned that God is always good, even when things seem scary. Jesus is always with us!

A whole crew of teenagers helped as councilors in training (CIT's) to make camp a wonderful time for the little ones. The teens of the parish acted as station and group leaders to help the kids. We are grateful for their assistance over the week. Camp ended with a final performance for family and friends as the kids and teens danced to the VBS theme songs. We hope all the campers can join us next year!

vbs-god is good!

Kim Santerre

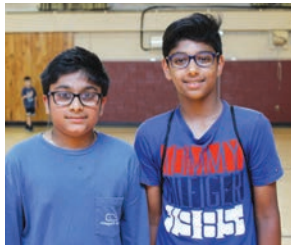

Vacation Bible School 2019 was a huge success this summer! We are so proud to announce that we had a total of 42 campers and 52 Teen Counselors, as well as all of our adult volunteers.

Everyone enjoyed the activities of the week!!! Campers learned about how God is good all of the time. When life is unfair...God is good. When life is scary...God is good. When life changes...God is good. When life is sad...God is good. When life is good...God is good!

It was so heartwarming to watch campers and counselors forming relationships and bonding through their love of God. Campers were assisted by teens and adults to move through their daily schedule. Each day, campers were focused on a particular bible verse. Every station the campers visited reinforced the bible verse for that day. Campers had fun filled days, learning about God through a thematic approach using Bible scripture, song, dance, games, sports, science, arts and crafts and video. Some of the songs and dances the campers learned were performed for their families at the end of the week.

Each day started and ended with a happy camper, finding peace that God is GOOD!

teens go all out wash!

Greg Rabito

It was the perfect day for a car wash! The sun was out and the teens were ready to wash some cars. Sponges and buckets in hand the group washed about 50 cars last Sunday. It was a morning of hard work that all ended with a water fight in the parking lot. We thank everyone who came out in support and donated to the program. The teens appreciate the chance to serve the greater parish community and take an important role in parish life. From the three morning Masses served we raised 1,000 dollars! The funds will be used for the Lifeteen program and the Steubenville NYC summer camp the teens are attending in July. Please pray for the group traveling to St. John's University for this amazing retreat experience. We hope to further grow in community and love of Jesus Christ!

life teen overnight

Katie Thompson

The Life Teen Overnight Retreat was in all honesty one of the best nights in lifeteen! While we did “religious” things, like adoration and confession, we also played games, laughed and met new friends. It was so much fun being able to hang out with my friends (both new and old) and it didn’t even feel like a retreat at times.

The night started off with dinner and getting to know the other teens who also decided to take a leap of faith and go on this retreat. After dinner we went into adoration and spent time sitting and reflecting in front of the blessed sacrament. There was also time for confession, which was a great experience to be able to go and have a clear conscience. After adoration concluded, the fun commenced.

We played manhunt, ate s’mores by a bonfire, and played mystery games. Manhunt may not sound adventurous, but we were given permission to hide anywhere in parish center!!! Two of my friends and I hid together, making each other laugh so much my stomach hurt! The rain stayed away, and we were able to have a bonfire to roast marshmallows and crack jokes by the fire. It just felt amazing. From the bonfire, we commenced into a few rounds of a mystery game. It was such a fun game to play around the bonfire because of the spooky element of it. The accusations began and we immersed ourselves in the game and time flew by.

All too quickly we were to call it a night. I am thankful I made the choice to go to the Life Teen retreat, I was able to get to know teens I didn’t know very well, laugh and have fun all the while being at a retreat.
