while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

You've probably been hearing the ads on the radio and seeing some on TV as well – from law firms searching for potential clients to sue the Church as victims of sexual abuse. I'm writing this to prepare you in advance for what will be very unpleasant news over the next few months.

The reason sexual abuse is suddenly a thing once again is that the Governor and the state legislature in Albany lifted the statute of limitations on civil lawsuits for sexual abuse for the coming year. That allows anyone who claims to have been abused to sue, no matter how long ago and no matter if the perpetrator is long dead and gone and can't defend himself. That is perhaps unfair, but it is a new law.

In the coming months, many lawsuits will be filed against the Archdiocese of New York. No doubt there will be plenty of press and media coverage as attorneys try to grab the spotlight and press for larger settlements. There is a distinct possibility that as this develops, the Archdiocese will be faced with bankruptcy.

The first concern of the Church is the victims and for that reason, Cardinal Dolan has asked us to pray the novena this week which we are praying at Mass. There are a few other things I would like you all to keep in mind:

1. Almost all these allegations are from decades ago. Newer incidents of sexual abuse by priests have dropped to almost zero in the entire country in recent years.
2. Three years ago, the Archdiocese proactively set up an "Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Commission" headed by non-Catholics to meet the needs of victims and make settlements. To date, they have settled with over three hundred verified victims. The lawsuits that will come unfortunately are from attorneys who refused to accept a settlement in order to seek more money and publicity.
3. We are not aware of any priest who abused anyone here at St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart in the past. Although in 2002 a pastor of Sacred Heart left the priesthood over allegations against him, they were from his time at previous parish elsewhere. As a result, we do not expect there will be any lawsuits against us.
4. Parishes are organized in the law as separate corporations, so a lawsuit against the Archdiocese will not affect the savings or assets of the local parishes.
5. We do support the Archdiocese with a portion of our regular collection. But the Cardinal assures us that none of our donations will be used in settlements. Much of it will come from insurance companies and from other sources the Archdiocese has access to.
6. For donations to fundraisers and to our Centennial Campaign, 100% of the money remains in our parish for the use of the parish. You may always restrict any donation for the exclusive use of our parish.

Any priest who has been credibly accused of abuse of minors has already been removed by the Archdiocese. It has implemented strict "safe environment" protocols for all clergy, staff, and volunteers in the Church. These are in place and are working well, and many outside commentators say that the Catholic Church today is perhaps the safest environment around. It is a fact that most abuse that occurs today is in public schools and other institutions and not in the Catholic Church.

Please continue to pray for our Church. Although enemies of the Church may use our failings to attack her, what is most important is God is using it to purify our Church of sin and make it holier. It is a painful process but a necessary one. In the end, we will be a Church that reflects the heart of Jesus more faithfully and credibly in the world.

That will happen if we unite in penance and prayer. Every one of us. Please spend time before the Blessed Sacrament asking God to renew us in holiness of life and in obedience to his holy will. Each month we hold a special First Friday Mass of reparation for the sins of sexual abuse. Join us Friday, September 6 at 7 pm.

Sincerely,

Fr. Richard Gill

edge - preparing for the sacrament of confirmation

Greg Rabito

Before receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation each candidate writes a letter to the bishop. Bishop Bryne asked the kids to explain why they would like to receive Confirmation and how they plan to live the Faith in their daily life afterwards. Many of the kids spoke on how they will feel empowered by the Gifts of Holy Spirit to more fervently profess the Catholic Faith in word and deed. An example of two of these letters can be seen to the right.

St. Lawrence O' Toole offers a unique Religious Education Program for kids in 6th to 8th grade called EDGE. Most of the 8th graders who received Confirmation last spring were in the program. EDGE is a different approach to teaching the Faith than the typical classroom model. Each child is engaged in the teaching of the day through group discussions, activities, and times of prayer in the church at the end of the night. Every Christian has a right to be instructed and learn the Faith in a way that is easiest for them to understand and to foster a love for Jesus Christ and His Church. EDGE nights are orientated around the kids being immersed in all aspects of the Catholic Christian life from teachings on the Trinity, the creation, the Mass, and so much more. Then the kids have a chance to discuss, reflect and ultimately grow in understanding of the material. The night ends with a time of prayer for the group to offer thanksgiving and praise to God.

Educating every child in the faith in a dynamic and relevant setting is the goal of the Religious Education Program. If you have not done so already, we encourage you to sign-up and register your child! We are now organizing our EDGE, RCIT, and Family Program groups for the upcoming year, which begins this September. Registration is easy and can be done by calling, online or stopping by the Religious Education office.

Dear Bishop Peter Byrne,

I would like to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation because I would like to be closer to God, receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit and be a better member of the Catholic Church. Confirmation is the fulfillment of the Sacrament of Baptism because it helps you share more fully in the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Like the Apostles who went out and lived the Gospel after Pentecost, I intend to use the fullness of the Holy Spirit to live out my Catholic faith by proclaiming the Gospel, making the right decisions through the gift of right judgement, and following what all the gifts tell me to do to be a good Catholic.

Thank you, An 8th Grade Edge Student

Dear Bishop Peter Byrne,

I am looking forward to making my Confirmation this May. I want to make Confirmation so that I can continue my growth in the Catholic Church. I asked my parents about it and they told me that by making my Confirmation, I continue my faith and when I have a family of my own, I can pass on my faith to my family.

When I was baptized as a baby, my parents and godparents took vows to renounce Satan and believe in God and the Church for me because I was too young to answer for myself. Confirmation I take these vows and answer for myself and receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

After Confirmation, I take my faith in my own hands. It is my responsibility to live the teachings of Jesus Christ and his Apostles. It is my responsibility to grow as a Catholic and make sure I take it very seriously. The best way is to make sure I live my life as a good Catholic and continue to grow in the Church, I look forward to making my Confirmation.

passing on my faith

Susan Gargiulo

This past year my grandchildren were enrolled in the Religious Education Program here at St. Lawrence O'Toole. I was able to attend the Family Program sessions with them each month. It was incredibly rewarding for me to be able to participate in all the faith-based activities and crafts with them and spend time with them as they learned about our Catholic faith.

I strongly feel that my presence with them at these sessions reinforced to them how much my faith means to me and therefore made them more aware of how important what they were learning is. They really looked forward to attending these sessions with me.

Since it was the year my granddaughter received her First Holy Communion, I was able to be an integral part in her preparation for this Sacrament. It is so special to me to receive Communion with them when we attend Mass together.

I highly recommend any grandparent who has the opportunity to join their grandchildren at this program to do so. Not only do the children learn about our faith in a loving, family-oriented environment, but it gave me such a feeling of joy to be able to help them on their spiritual journey.

at the 4H fair Kim Santerre

St Lawrence was at the 4H Fair hosted by Cornell Cooperative Extension on July 25th, 26th and 27th. We were there to spread the word about the Early Childhood Learning Center and all of its new and current programs as well as sharing with the community the many parish programs that we offer.

It was a hot, beautiful, sunny weekend to be out in the community, meeting new people and saying hello to old friends. The event itself was free to attend. St Lawrence was a hit, offering a free sand art experience to all of the children who stopped by the table.

If you have never been to this event, we highly recommend checking it out next year! It was a fun-filled family event!
