while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Take a look through the bulletin and our website and you'll find plenty of programs to help you and your family grow in faith. We've got a terrific team of people who have put together the best programs they possibly could. And all our programs are open to your family, friends, and coworkers who are exploring their faith or who have questions.

1. We're launching five different Alpha Course opportunities – at St. Lawrence, Sacred Heart, in the evening and in the daytime, and another in Spanish, and even one in a pub for young adults... Alpha is a warm, welcoming program where you share a meal and have a conversation on basics of faith and meaning. A great way for someone to get started again, or for the first time. BrewsterAlpha.com

2. Need to learn to pray? Want to connect more easily with God? Our Oremus class teaches a simple and easy to use method of praying with the Scripture that will help you hear God's voice. stlawrenceotoole.org/Oremus

3. Want to understand the Gospels better? They can seem like one big mystery at times. We all want to know what God wants us to do, but it can feel complicated. Our bible study on the Gospel of Luke will help you get a lot more out of reading the Bible. stlawrenceotoole.org/Luke

4. Do you want the Eucharist to come alive so that when you receive Holy Communion it is a deep and intense experience? Come to our Seasons of Praise Holy Hour on the third Monday each month for a beautiful hour of prayer and reflection.

5. Love music and want to praise God? Join our choir or praise and worship band by contacting our music director, Peter Ryan or at Sacred Heart, Melody Salas.

6. Want to serve the poor and the homeless? We work with the Brewster Emergency Shelter Program and the Brewster Community Food Pantry, and they always need our help. Serve your less fortunate brothers and sisters in our community.

Finally - there is something every single one of us can do. Every one of us knows and loves at least one person who is away from God and Church. They are still good people but they don't have God in their lives. There's a hole in their heart until they fill it with God's love.

So pray for them in our Meet Me At Mass campaign – fill out a card in the back of the Church and our prayer warriors will be praying for them. Then invite them to come back next weekend... ask them to come home to God. Jesus is waiting for them.

God Bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

soaring to new heights

Kim Santerre

We are off to a fun and fabulous start of the 2019-2020 school year at the Early Childhood Learning Center. Wednesday, September 4 was our first day back to school.

This school year, we have two classes in PreK 3 and 2 classes in PreK 4. We are almost FULL to capacity.

Mrs Sherman, assisted by Mrs DeFelice, and Mrs Whitehead, assisted by Mrs Feehan, are the PreK 3 teachers.

Mrs Torchiano, assisted by Mrs DiBenedetto and Mrs Segreti, and Mrs Nastasi, assisted by Mrs Tucker and Mrs Zambrano, are the PreK 4 teachers.

Our extended care teachers are Mrs O'Neill, Miss Maria and Miss Patti. We also offer Music, taught by Mrs Zambrano, Gym, taught by Mrs DeRose and Spanish, taught by Senora Fisher. Our beloved school library is cared for by Mrs Tucker. Mrs Salvo is in charge of the main office.

We love our Early Childhood Learning Center families and are so grateful to be given this opportunity to care for and teach their wonderful children.

We are looking forward to an exciting school year at the Early Childhood Learning Center. May God bless us on this journey!!

kicking off the new year

Cecilia Britez

With grace from heaven coming down upon us in the form of rain, we kicked-off our Family Program this past Saturday at the Elk's. We started with a blessing by Deacon Mark, and a family carried a cross in procession to the center of the stage. With the support of the Knights of Columbus, we enjoyed some grilled burgers and hot dogs, drinks and other delicious snacks! Our wonderful and generous volunteers covered the different stations we prepared for the day. Thank you guys for all your hard work!

This was a special day for our families and for the Church because it was the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. We celebrated the Cross of Jesus, as he offered us redemption and served as a ransom for our sins. Also, we celebrated our Father in heaven, in His perfect love he gives us His Son as our savior. We honored this day by concentrating on the "True Cross." At one of the stations, our children made paper flowers and we decorated a cross made out of foam. At another station, our families enjoyed painting sun-catchers with chimes and stained glass crosses. At the beginning of the program, our children were also jumping in an inflatable castle where they had the chance to look for a hidden "True Cross."

If you have a child who is in first through fifth grade, please make sure you are registered in our Family Program so that we can walk together this journey of faith, and give our children the gifts of the sacraments while learning to receive Jesus into their tender hearts.

guess what i learned today?

Pura Melendez

I was asked how I was able to get my son, Ralph, back to Church. I replied, "I have no idea." I know I prayed, talked with God, and lit candles to St. Joseph to intercede. I wanted him to feel the peace and joy that Jesus brought to me. The last 5-6 years had been hard and sad for both of us. Jobs lost, temporary separations, deaths, and many other things. I know that while we never spoke about it, he was hurting. Since his dad had died, he needed to be strong for me. He and I coped with our sorrows through laughter, never touching upon what we were truly feeling. We all know the cliché: laugh clown laugh.

I wasn't really sure I had an influence on him, but I was curious. So one day I asked my son, "What made you come back?" He gave me a lot of reasons and I was not one of them. But, Sally asked me to write this article and told me that she had a video where he said, he came back because of "his mother."

I started thinking back to some of our conversations over the years. I can remember saying certain things to him and his wife, Debbie, and I would see a glimpse of – I never thought about it that way - expression on their faces. I'd tell them about what I learned in the Scripture classes I was taking at St. Lawrence. Sometimes I felt like a child: "Guess what I learned in school today!" They seemed interested, but they gave me this feeling of "I'm glad for you Mom." Pat, pat on my head like a child. But I continued to tell them.

One day I was visiting with them and for some reason we got into a serious, profound discussion on Christ. They had many questions; some I could answer, some not. That night Ralph texted me, "Mom, we'll see you at the 9:30 Mass tomorrow." Yes, I cried. I wish I could remember all that we discussed so I can pinpoint something specific that made them decide to come back. I've even forgotten what we spoke about. I thought it was a one-time thing, so I continued to pray for their return and God pleasantly surprised me, as He so often does.

Ralph and Debbie asked about Alpha and as luck would have it, I had been part of the first Alpha program so I was able to answer their questions. They enrolled in Alpha and enjoyed the videos, discussions, and meeting new people, as they also were new to our community. They got to share with people who thought the same way they did and who also had doubts and questions. "It was great," they told me.

Unfortunately, they have moved to the city. Now I pray that they can find a parish near them that has programs they can be a part of like St. Lawrence, so they can continue their journey. I've seen a change in Ralph. He isn't completely "there" yet; he still has a lot of questions, which is a good thing. I continue to pray to God and talk to Ralph and Debbie and say, "Guess what I learned today?" Thanks, Sally for the video! Now, I have concrete proof that I had a small influence on him.

It all starts with prayers.
Then an invitation to come back.
