while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday we heard Jesus tell the Gospel parable about the rich man and Lazarus. The rich man feasted every day and ignored the poor man Lazarus on his doorstep, “who longed to eat even the scraps from the rich man’s table”. In Jesus’ telling of it, his lack of concern and inaction was a decision that impacted him for all eternity. Lazarus would be received into “the bosom of Abraham” in heaven, while the rich man went to the place of torment.

Jesus wants to help us recognize that our choices - and even our omissions – such as ignoring our duty of compassion and charity, can have eternal repercussions for our soul. A major theme in the Gospels and really all throughout the Bible is just how we use our material possessions.

It’s also a positive invitation for us to “listen to Moses and the prophets” as they teach us the biblical wisdom of how to use all we have received from God in a responsible and holy way. There is nothing that is purely “mine”. Instead, all I am and all I have is a gift from the good God. And I have the responsibility to use it well, in ways that are pleasing to God and not selfishly like the rich man in the story. We are all answerable to God for our good use of things.

Over the next few weeks in our parishes we will be talking about our stewardship of all God has given us. The way we administer the things we have is really an act of worship – of taking a stance before God and it reflects our gratitude for his goodness to us.

I’ve done a lot of reflecting on my use of my money, and I’ve found I need to change some spending habits - like wasting money on things I don’t really need. In addition to what I give to the parish, I’ve begun giving more to the poor and to the prolife cause after praying about my own attitudes and behavior.

We are careful in how we administer the money entrusted to us in our parishes. We’ve been paying down renovation debt and improving our buildings while as the same time, developing out-reach programs for the unchurched, and prioritizing discipleship formation.

Our Leadership Team and Finance Council have started discussing ways we can manage our money in a more consciously God-centered way for our parishes. Next week in this bulletin there will be an article about some changes we are making and how we are directing our money.

God Bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

Give generously and without a reluctant heart; then the Lord your God will bless you in all your work.

everyone is a winner— st. lawrence golf outing

On September 27, St. Lawrence O'Toole hosted its Annual Golf Outing at Centennial Golf Club. The weather was golf perfect with the fall foliage as a backdrop and everyone had a great time.

Nearly 90 men and women played golf. At dinner, Kenny Clair, past Fire Chief and presently the Commissioner of Emergency Services of Putnam County was honored. His wife, two daughters and two sisters were there. Kenny was honored by Joseph Spofford with a Proclamation from Assemblyman Kevin Byrne for his outstanding achievements, followed by a heartwarming speech by Bruce Colombraro, a long-time friend of Kenny's and finally by Fr. Richard Gill who acknowledged Kenny's volunteerism to the parish and school.

Chris Feehan and Joe Cavanagh, two pillars of St. Lawrence Golf Outing for many years, were also recognized for all their hard work and hours devoted to this golf outing. At the dinner there were raffles, 50/50 and a live auction. The golf outing proved to be a success financially enabling St. Lawrence Parish to purchase a heart defibrillator for the Parish Center and to continue to support the Family Program. We raised over $27,000.

Thank you to Chris Feehan and John Schlick and Tina Grant for their coordination all day long, and to all who contributed to the St. Lawrence Golf Outing by sponsoring, playing golf, attending dinner or volunteering. It was the culmination of so many individuals that made this annual golf outing a fun and successful event all around.

#MeetMeAtMass

Cecilia Britez

During "Meet Me At Mass" our parish opened its doors even wider! We had the best atmosphere with wonderful music, friendly faces and even free donuts! Our friends were all our special guests! How generous of Jesus to want us to come and bring our friends to Him. I can only imagine how many special graces were distributed here last Sunday to all friends who accepted our invitation, as well as those who received our invitation, but didn't make it. These graces certainly escape our senses, but they are real nonetheless.

I want to thank my dear friend Patricia Monjes for being my date during Meet Me At Mass! It was wonderful to have you here and sharing Jesus' table with you! Thank you to everyone who invited their friends and to all who prayed for those friends who were invited.

Let's continue to meet our friends over at coffee shops and restaurants. But please, let's not forget that Jesus is always and every day extending a personal invitation to all of us, and to all our friends through us to come as His VIP guests and share at His table to receive Him in the Eucharist.

church improvements at sacred heart

In the past few weeks, we've had a flurry of renovation activity. The warped front doors were repaired and painted and new, more secure locks installed. Heat pumps replaced the old air handlers and air conditioning system that covered the walls at the entrance of the Church, creating a visually more attractive entrance area and promising more efficient, quieter cooling and a boost to our heating system.

Soon we will add new carpets and new tile in the Church interior. Your support of our golf outing and your contributions to our building fund, the in the second collection each month, make these improvements possible. Thank you for your support.

alpha—more than a meal and conversation

Eric Ursprung

The Mini Alpha experience for me reignited my coming back to structured teachings on faith. Somewhere along the way I may have been caught up in the doings of daily life. Even though I pray each day, I found my structured faith was missing. The message I learned at Alpha reminded me of the absolute love Jesus has for me. With this new found love, I find praying has a much more sense of structure and meaning for me now. I am looking forward to the upcoming 10 week Alpha program. It will certainly strengthen and reinforce the teachings of the true love our Lord Jesus Christ has for me!

abuse crisis update

As you may have seen in the press, this past Monday Judge Barbara Jones gave her report after a year-long review of the procedures of the Archdiocese of New York on handling allegations of abuse of minors. Among the things the Judge reported to all the clergy and to the public:

- The Archdiocese is faithfully following through on all allegations submitted against anyone connected with the Archdiocese.
- There are no clergy with substantiated allegations against them in active service as priests or deacons. All known offenders have been removed from ministry.
- As a result, since 2002, there have been only two current allegations of abuse. Almost all allegations are concerning abuses that took place in the past.
- The Judge made a series of recommendations to improve the efficiency of handling allegations, and the Cardinal promised to implement them all.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord...

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
