while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Last weekend the Gospel invited us to reflect on how we pray – whether we are like the Pharisee who thinks he is just fine and is trying to convince God he owes him something for being so good, or like the tax collector who understands and admits his failings and just asks for forgiveness and mercy. A real contrast between pride and humility in our prayer.

This week the Gospel presents the conversion of a bad guy named Zaccheus – the chief tax collector in Jericho – who encountered Jesus and allowed that experience to change his life. The message is clear – no matter how much we may have messed up, Jesus will forgive and will give us a new life, if we are willing to let him.

People sometimes wonder how they can deepen their own conversion and make it real and concrete.

Here are a few ideas for you:

1. November is the month of the holy souls in Purgatory. It may be that most people, including our loved ones, spend time in Purgatory to be purified of their sins before they are ready to enter heaven. The Church has always believed our prayers for them help them and speed their arrival to heaven. We all have a duty to pray for the faithful departed... work in a decade of the rosary every day for them. A great tradition is to visit a cemetery and pray for the souls buried there. It's also a good reminder to us that one day we will be among the "faithful departed" and will depend on the prayers of the living.
2. Committed Christian service to others is a great expression of our charity and compassion for those in need. Give some thought to how you should give of yourself to others less fortunate. You could help with our homeless shelter. You could be a Stephens Minister accompanying someone in a crisis moment. You could work at the local food pantry... give some of your time to others and you will feel yourself living charity in action.
3. Get to Confession – there's nothing like sacramental absolution to remove our sins and make us good with God again. Doesn't matter if it's been a long time, or if it is about a sin you can't quite shake off – God's grace and power comes through the sacrament, and the Devil is sent packing when Jesus is called upon to heal us.
4. Drop into Church whenever you're in the neighborhood – even a 5-minute visit has a way of making an impact on you... and rebooting your day so it can focus on God and his goodness to you.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

learning to help others

Betsy Hansbury

On October 26 the Stephen Ministry of St Lawrence O'Toole hosted a workshop to introduce this wonderful Christian care giving ministry to 10 other churches in the New York Connecticut area. It was attended by over 50 participants including many from our own parish. Our Stephen Ministers provided a lovely breakfast and refreshments throughout the workshop as well as managing the Resource table and registration table, serving through Christ.

Stephen Ministers provide high quality one to one Christian care to those experiencing crisis in their lives. This very confidential and personal time spent builds a strong bond between the care giver and care receiver through Christ. They meet regularly with their care receiver to listen, pray and support through these difficult times. It could be grief, illness or loneliness, in each we find Christ's love

Rev. Galen Dalrymple, came to us from Chicago to present the workshop. He is a facilitator for Stephen Ministry headquartered in St Louis. Rev. Dalrymple has held various positions within the ministry and travels around the country speaking on behalf of Stephen Ministry.

The workshop consisted of three topics

- Ministering to those experiencing grief
- An introduction to Stephen Ministry
- How to care in a distinctively Christian way

These topics are a small sampling of the extensive 50 hours of training our ministers have gone through to be able to bring Christ to those in need, growing in our own faith while training and caring. One of the activities the participants experienced was a Prayer and Share exercise. This enabled them to experience in a short time what it would be like to be a Stephen Minister care giver.

Many of the participants were excited to return to their churches and share what they had learned with their pastors and begin the training process to establish a ministry within their church. St. Lawrence will be conducting a new training session this winter. If any one is interested in becoming a Stephen Minister go to stlawrenceotoole.org/caregiver.

ny catholic youth day

Greg Rabito

Speak up! The theme for this year's New York Catholic Youth Day. Last week a thousand teens gathered from all over the Archdiocese to speak up for their Catholic Faith. An annual youth rally hosted at the Westchester County Center, St. Lawrence O' Toole took a coach bus full of 8th EDGE kids and LIFETEEN teens. From the moment we arrived music was blasting and vendors were available to speak to the kids about events and groups in the New York area. We were honored to have Mass celebrated by Cardinal Dolan, and some of the kids got a photo with him after Mass. After, we went into breakout sessions where the kids could hear from great Catholic speakers on how to discern their vocation and strengthen their friendships.

The whole group gathered together to pack over 50,000 meals for poor communities in Africa. Singing and dancing to music each table added the needed nutritional ingredients to their food bag and then passed them along to be sealed and boxed. Representatives from the Catholic Youth Leaders of the Archdiocese gave witness talks on their Faith journeys. Our very own Katie Westin shared her story with the other thousand youth in attendance. A Eucharistic procession and time of praise and worship ended our time together. New York Catholic Youth Day was filled with Catholic community and Christ centered fellowship.

LEAVE A LEGACY OF LOVE

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
