while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

The story of the origin of Thanksgiving back in pilgrim times always reminds us of our need to be grateful to God for his providence and care, even in the toughest of times. Those pilgrims faced an uncertain future in this New World but they had no doubt that God would be there for them as they stepped out into the unknown.

It's the pattern for our lives too – sometimes we can be worried or nervous about our future, that of our families, or the future of our country – but always we come back to the bottom line: God is good, all the time and he is with us to see us through. Maybe this past year has been one of your tougher years, but God is never far away from you. He has a plan filled with love for every one of us.

We'll celebrate with Mass at 6:30 pm Wednesday evening before Thanksgiving and 9:00 am on Thanksgiving morning at St. Lawrence. Everyone is invited to come even though it is not a holy day of "obligation" – just to thank God for looking after us all one more year. We have so much to celebrate and thank our good God for:

- Thanksgiving morning hundreds of our parishioners will work to provide Thanksgiving meals and deliver to shut-ins and the poor all around our community.
- Our winter homeless shelter also kicked off operations this week, with dozens of volunteers loving and helping our brothers and sisters in Christ.
- At both parishes, our people are coming to the Alpha Course to get to know God better.
- Our Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers held a training workshop to improve their devotion to their important ministry.
- Our programs are reaching out to the divorced, to those who have lost loved ones, to seniors, to those in nursing homes, and our Stephen's ministers reach out to those in crisis or struggling.
- Nearly 600 kids are attending the Family Program or other religious education programs at our two parishes.
- Our CYO is operating with 17 teams of kids between St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart.
- People are coming to Holy Hours and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament during the day and all through the night to praise God for all His blessings.
- Sacred Heart - small but strong and resilient, is going through a series of renovations and improvements to create a more beautiful worship space.

We've got so much to be thankful for... I thank God every day for every one of you who live with faith, hope and love and push forward with trust and confidence in our good God.

Happy Thanksgiving!

pilgrimage of mercy

John Montouri

On Veteran's Day, as much as I wanted to use my Kohl's coupons, rake my lawn, put a new flag at my Father's grave, and honor all who served this great country at a parade--I felt like I needed God's Grace so I went on the St. Lawrence Pilgrimage to the Divine Mercy Shrine in Stockbridge, Mass.

The first Grace received was praying the stations of the cross together. They are outdoors and contain beautiful lifelike statues that spoke to me of how much Jesus really loved and suffered for each of us. Next we ventured down to the Lourdes Grotto and on to the Shrine of the Holy Innocents...a place to pray for the unborn and where healing and mercy is offered to anyone who has had an abortion. Our next stop was the main Shrine, a beautiful Chapel, filled with artwork that radiates the mercy and love of God. We prayed the Rosary together, and there was an opportunity for confession and then Mass was celebrated followed by the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

On the way back home, I sat at the back of the bus and I couldn't help but pray...here are 50 or more people including a handful under age 20, who went looking for you today Lord, and I don't know if anyone received a miraculous cure, or had the sky open up, but I think we all came away knowing that there is a God who loves us, cares for us, and who wants to be in relationship with us as we make our way through this beautiful but challenging life.

If you can go there, do so, if not--make your own pilgrimage by just asking Jesus to show you that He loves you! Google St. Faustina, Pray the Chaplet, and venerate the Divine Mercy image.

edge rake and bake service project

Greg Rabito

Rakes in hand, with a few leaf blowers, the St. Lawrence EDGE kids and adults raked several parishioners' lawns this November. Breaking into two teams the kids split up to rake four houses.

It was such a joy to serve the parish community and for the kids to play an active role in the larger Church. Each household served was so generous in welcoming us to their home. Enjoying snacks at many of the houses, the group gathered back at the Parish Center to enjoy some baked goods and a discussion. We chatted on the importance of service and being available to serve those in need as Christ did. As Christians we are all called to love and serve our brothers and sisters. So proud of the kids for helping the parish community and playing a greater role in the Body of Christ.

blessing our vets

Tina Pennacchia

Sacred Heart honored all of our veterans, service men/women and their families last Saturday, November 9 at the 4:00 PM Mass. After their special blessing at Mass by Fr Everson, all were invited to join the parishioners in the church hall for coffee and cake. On Sunday Fr Lewis invited all the service men and women to come to the altar for their blessing as the parishioners clapped their hands in gratitude. We are so blessed and deeply grateful to have these honorable service men and women in our parishes.

A message to Sacred Heart Parishioners

Dear Sacred Heart Parishioners,

Some parishioners writing on social media and in emails have expressed worry and concern that some recent financial decisions I made were meant to lead to the closing of Sacred Heart.

I want to reassure everyone that the opposite is true. I am doing everything with the intention of strengthening the long-term financial stability of the parish and keeping it open.

Seven years ago when I took over after Fr. Lutz and Fr. McKeon, we had nothing in the bank, and were $200,000 in debt. Now we are debt free and have some savings.

While our recent financial report does show Sacred Heart is in the black, the fact is our collections have been declining over the last several years. Specifically, our collections are down more than 12% in just the past two years.

We balanced our budget and went positive by cutting expenses and holding spending down. Not with new income. The trend line of declining collections is a problem we need to solve. It is not sustainable in the long run.

That is why we ran our recent Stewardship campaign. Hopefully, all of you will reflect on how you might do more to support the parish as your means allow.

Our attendance has also fallen and the number of children in religious education has also fallen. In that we are not unique: many other parishes are struggling with the same problems. We have to find a way to turn these situations around.

At the same time, we had put aside some money over the past couple of years to make some upgrades. With it we can make some improvements such as new heat pumps, a new floor for the entrance to the Church, repair of doors at the entrance, restoration of the outdoor Crucifix, and soon we will have new carpeting installed. We are also making important improvements in the Parish Center and upgrading the bathrooms. We have also done an extensive cleanup of the grounds, removing downed trees.

Please don't worry that I am out to close this parish. I would not be spending money on improvements if I were. I encouraged the Evangelization Committee to host Alpha here. We sponsored a successful healing Mass.

We are looking to make it stronger for many years to come. I am optimistic about its future. Even more importantly, I have hope in the power of God's grace working in the hearts of all to build unity and charity in this parish.

That is the way to make Sacred Heart strong.

Sincerely,
Fr. Richard Gill
