while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

This past Tuesday I attended the ordination of our two new auxiliary bishops at St. Patrick's in Manhattan, along with hundreds of priests and religious and thousands of the lay faithful. It was a grand event, and as the new Bishop Whalen said, our Church has "needed a happy" for some time. Today was definitely a "happy".

Those new bishops join the other three active auxiliary bishops and Cardinal Dolan in leading our Church in these tough times. We're hurting because of our own sins – those of priests who should never have become priests, and of bishops who didn't have the courage to act when they should have done the right thing in justice. Not to mention the sins of lay people who forgot their Catholic values and bought into a secular culture that leads nowhere fast.

We'll be suffering for those sins and doing prayer and penance for a long time. So be it. Let's get to work renewing our Church and our own spiritual lives.

That is the urgent task of the Church today – to re-establish its credibility as the Church Jesus Christ founded. A Church guided by his Holy Spirit and which speaks the hard truth to a society that is wandering, dangerously wandering - away from God and from the spiritual and moral values we have always lived for.

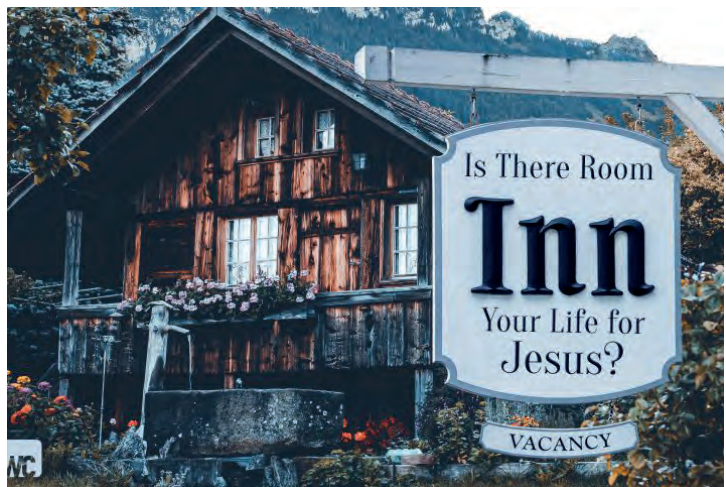

But that isn't just a job for bishops down at St. Patrick's.

Our parishes of Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence are ground zero for this renewal of faith. We on the local level, are the people who put into practice what Jesus taught. We live out and testify to what the Church of the ages has always known: there is "no other name by which we can be saved" than the name of Jesus Christ. And that every human person, without exception, is called to a life-transforming encounter with him.

That is the work we are carrying out every day in Patterson, Brewster, and North Salem. That is the message addressed to every person who lives in our area – Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior - . As St. Pope John Paul II would say: "Do not be afraid – open wide the doors to Jesus Christ. Allow him into your life. Only he has the words of eternal life!"

Christmas will be here in ten days. Will you open the door to Christ, or tell him you have no room?

Open your heart and your life to Christ. He has a beautiful plan for your life. If you open it to him, he will enrich you and give you the joy and peace no one and nothing else can ever give you.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

the alpha retreat young adults

Bob O'Donnell

On December 7, the Alpha Young Adult Retreat took place after 8 weeks of in-depth enlightenment and discussion about the Bible and what makes us faithful Christians, as well as dispelling common misconceptions about our faith, which all came to a head in the discussion about the Holy Spirit. Some retreatants felt connected to the Holy Spirit. This retreat was full of conversations, introspection, and prayer.

Nicole LaRusso:

The Alpha retreat was wonderful and just what I needed! It was nice to disconnect for a few hours and put my faith first with discussion, prayer, confession, and adoration. This course has not only strengthened my faith but also brought many amazing individuals into my life and I greatly enjoyed spending this time with them!

John Chuma:

Two things that hit home for me from the retreat... The first was the story Fr. Rich told at Mass regarding the two blind men who Jesus cured. This resonated with me during one of the post-video discussion. It instantly came to mind and was "dead-on" with what we were discussing. The second happened before I went into confession. I had this notion of what needed to occur - it came out of nowhere. The Holy Spirit was at work during my confession. That blew my mind!

dancing the night away!

hard as nails retreat

Greg Rabito

Hard as Nails Ministries is a dynamic Catholic ministry team that brings the love of Jesus to middle school and high school students. We were blessed to have them at St. Lawrence O' Toole last week for our 8 th EDGE students. The mostly college-aged missionaries played games with the kids and shared their personal witnesses to how Jesus Christ changed their lives. Hard as Nails' main message is, YOU'RE AMAZING, and that God uniquely created you in His image. We all suffer through trials in your lives, but the trials we have been through, give us the ability to support others who are suffering as well.

The kids learned that our personal Faith witness is powerful! Many of the kids shared with the group some of the struggles they have been going through as well. Each child was welcomed then by hugs and high-fives from their friends! Justin Fatica, one of Hard as Nails keynote speakers, reminded the kids of how strong they were in Christ Jesus. When we are suffering or feel bad about ourselves, "the pain only hurts because God made us good". Justin told the kids we only feel bad in our suffering because God did not make us feel bad about who we are, he made us good and in His love.

The night was a joyful time of spiritual revival and love. Parents joined for the last few minutes of the time together to experience Hard as Nails as well. We hope to have them back at the parish next year to share their message of Christ's love to the next 8 th EDGE group.

fearless edge 8th graders

Greg Rabito

A weekend of Mass, Adoration, laser tag, basketball, and Jesus! The 8 th EDGE students Fearless Confirmation Retreat had it all! Hosted at Kennedy Catholic High School the 45 EDGE students joined other youth groups in the area to encounter Christ in a more profound way. Religious brothers and sisters, priests, lay leaders, and our very own Bishop Byrne joined us for the weekend retreat to share their wisdom and love of the Lord. During Saturday night Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Bishop Byrne traveled with Jesus present in the monstrance to each of the kids to give them a special blessing. Each period of prayer, whether it was Adoration, Mass, the Rosary, or personal time, was filled with the Holy Spirit and each of the kids witnessed the love of Jesus in a new way.

Free time was spent with many of the kids braving the cold to play outdoor laser tag, or staying in gym to play basketball and frisbee. Many of the religious brothers and sisters spent the whole day with the kids and joined them for sports after prayer. It was such a joy for me to hear during and after the retreat from the parents that their child really benefited and enjoyed the time with their friends and Jesus. We thank Fearless Ministries and all the St. Lawrence O' Toole staff who volunteered to be present over the weekend.
