while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Happy New Year to all!

I've got a New Year's resolution to suggest, but this one won't help you lose weight or get in shape or eat more nutritious meals, or get better organized. But it will help you grow your inner peace and closeness with God. It will give you a sense of meaning in your life, renew your focus, and give you joy. And it will take you just one hour a week.

This is it: Sign on for an hour of quiet prayer and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel each week. You can sign up here, very easily at stlawrenceotoole.org/Adoration. You can give Paul Lavelle a call and talk about it at 914-318-8523. Already 150 parishioners go weekly to adoration, starting at 3:00 am Monday to 7:00 pm Saturday, around the clock. At many hours there are two or three at a time, at other hours just one... and Saturday night and Sunday are completely open.

People who do adoration are drawn deeply into the life of God... they feel his presence in the Blessed Sacrament and it becomes real and powerful in their lives. They get a sense of peace and confidence in his presence in their lives. They feel more confident in their struggles and live with more joy than ever before.

They also have that regular hour each week as an anchor for their whole spiritual life, a moment they can connect with Jesus each week and find the answers to the problems and crosses we all face in our lives.

Maybe you've been wanting and hoping to feel God more present in your life. This new year is a great time for you to get going on deepening your own relationship with God.

He is there in the Blessed Sacrament in our chapel and he is waiting for you.

Don't miss the chance to make 2020 the year you and the Lord connect like never before.

God Bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

big results from a little church

Tina Pennacchia

Thank you for continuing to give to the Sacred Heart Giving Tree each year. Donations like yours make a BIG difference in the works our church does for our community. With your generous gifts this year, we supported all the needy families in our area who signed up for help and we also supported the new mothers that get their help from the Sisters of Life. This year we received a list for 134 Angel Tags and Sisters of Life Tags; and we had a thoughtful and generous gift for everyone!

Not only are we showing the needy that people do care, but we gave them hope. Sometimes hope is just what people need to lift their spirits at Holy Christmas and for the start of the new year.

Thank you also to the wonderful behind-the-scene volunteers who generously gave their time and love to make this giving project run so smoothly!

Acts 20:35 "In every way I have shown you that by hard work of that sort we must help the weak, and keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus who himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Sacred Heart Church decorated for Christmas

To all of Sacred Heart

The School Social Workers and the citizens of Patterson and Brewster give many thanks to the parishioners of Sacred Heart. For over twenty five years the outpouring of generosity by the wonderful people of Sacred Heart has been amazing. Many families will have a memorable Christmas due to the community outreach.

As you celebrate with friends and family this year know that you have taken care of people as well. Thank you Sacred Heart.....you continue to make a difference in the lives of others!

support our teens for the march for life

Greg Rabito

The Catholic Church has always been and will always be the strongest upholder of the dignity of every human life in the world. Each person is loved by their Creator and made in the image and likeness of God. No matter how old or young, mentally or physically capable, in the womb or out of the womb, each life is given a soul at the moment of their conception. It can seem that there are only few Pro-Life supporters from what we hear publicity on the news or from the messages young people receive at universities around the country. This could not be farther from the truth!

Each year hundreds of thousands of people gather in Washington D.C. to stand for the dignity of every human life. The March for Life is a tremendous witness to power that Christ's love can have on the world.

Just ask Emily, one of our Lifeteen teens who went on the trip last year! She loved how long the march was and the amount of different groups present to defend life! Emily felt a calm during the rally, a result of the prayerfulness that those who make the pilgrimage try to maintain.

This year St. Lawrence O' Toole will be taking an overnight bus to the March for Life that is exclusively for our teens. We have hotel rooms booked and are in need of the remaining $1000 to pay for our bus! Like Emily, all of the teens who go feel a sense of strong community and support in their Catholic Faith. We ask that you please consider donating to make this trip possible for our teens. We would like to take 19 teens to the March for Life this January. Your support can make this pilgrimage possible for teens like Emily.

Transformed (Rick Warren) and Espanol Transformed

Jan 8 – Feb 19

7:00 pm-9:00 pm

Transformed will challenge you by exploring what the Bible has to say about every essential area of our lives: Spiritual, Physical, Mental, Emotional, Relational, Financial, and Vocational. The world is shouting for our attention with answers to our relationship struggles, solutions to our financial trouble, and explanations for our search for meaning. But the world's promises leave us empty and searching for more. God's Word is the only answer that promises to transform our lives from the inside out. Let's be Transformed together.

knowing your gifts

It will be as when a man who was going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one—to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.” -Matthew 25:14-18

The quintessential stewardship parable that Jesus told is the parable of the talents. We can take for granted the reality that we should use that which God has given us and grow it more abundantly to offer it back to God. But I feel for the fearful servant who was too afraid to do much with the one talent he was given. I think he was afraid, not just because of the demands of the master, but because he had no real idea how to grow one talent into anything. He was really unaware of what he had been given.

One day I was teaching a class on giftedness and strengths. I said that we know when we are using the gifts God gave us because we are happiest at those times. A woman immediately shared with the group she was giving up reading at Mass. I asked why, because I thought she was good at it. She said every time she has to read she leaves the house with knots in her stomach. She felt that even though she had found a way to compensate, this was not God's gift to her. Weeks later she found me at Mass and grabbed my arm, saying "Today is my first day as an Extraordinary Minister of Communion and I left the house happy as can be! Thank you!"

How can you be a good steward when you don't know what God has given you? Many are in that situation. I truly believe that we are created so uniquely that we may have that one talent that no one else has been given. The other servants in the story made more from what they had been given. But the fearful servant may have been given the one talent that he could have grown into a fortune.
