The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic worship. Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love. Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease.

while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Some random good stuff this week...

1. Adoration is the best thing ever.

Last week I invited you all to consider signing up for an hour each week at Adoration. Now adoration starts at midnight Sunday and continuously around the clock every day until Saturday at 7:00 pm. We now have someone praying before the Blessed Sacrament 139 hours of the 168 hours in the week. Give it some thought... it might just be your time to start up with some really good quiet time before the Lord. It could be that missing piece to a happier and more balanced life.

2. Praying can be a Mystery.

To get some help in learning how to pray better, take our new mini-course called Foundations in Prayer. It is a great guide to a renewed prayer life. We all need that. stlawrenceotoole.org/FoundationsOfPrayer

3. Money Management is Definitely a Mystery.

We've got just the thing to help you make a plan and use good biblical principles in the way you use money. We're sponsoring the wildly successful Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University once again. Check it out . fpu.com/1104824

4. Will you Fight for your Family?

Everyone has family members who have drifted away from God in this secular culture and it breaks our hearts. Take our program Return to learn how to work on bringing them home again, prayerfully, respectfully and intelligently. Sign up here stlawrenceotoole.org/Return

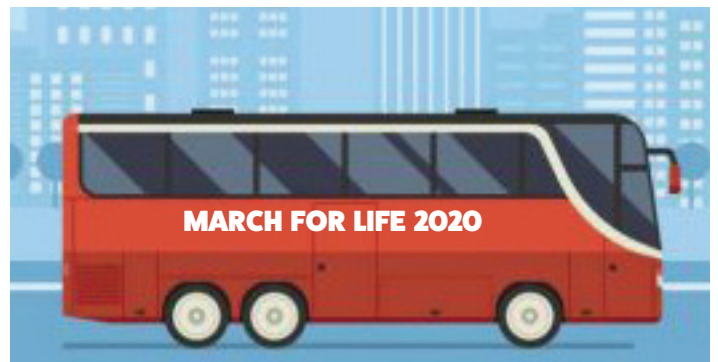

5. We Christians love human life.

You were all amazing at both Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence last weekend signing the letters to stop Physicians-Assisted Suicide legislation in NY State. Hundreds of you happily signed, outraged by this latest attempt to weaken the protection of vulnerable human life. Thank you so much! Now pray very, very hard to St. Michael the Archangel and to the Blessed Mother. Maybe God will intervene and save us from this terrible law.

6. There's still room for you.

Our parishes are sponsoring a bus to go to Washington Friday, January 24 for the March for Life...we still have seats on the bus. Take a day off and join us for this day trip to speak up for the sanctity of innocent human life. Sign up at stlawrenceotoole.org/MarchForLifeBus

Oh. One more thing: thank you, thank you, thank you to all the people who just cannot come with us to Washington but who drop off a check or some cash to help others go and to fund the bus. That is so good of you. Prayer warriors will be in the Adoration Chapel praying for human life.

Going to the March for Life?
Reserve your seat at stlawrenceotoole.org/MarchForLifeBus

God Bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Please remember in your prayers Walter McSpedon, who lovingly served our parish for 27 years as Music Director. He passed away last week from cancer. May he rest in peace.

bringing the joy of christmas to putnam ridge

Tina Pennacchia

Sacred Heart Catholic Daughters, Lady of the Lake Court #2585, along with many others brought Christmas joy and laughter to the residents at the Putnam Ridge Nursing & Rehabilitation Facility in Brewster, NY on a beautiful sunny warm Sunday afternoon.

For the past 19 years, Tee Vozzella orchestrates this wonderful event by bringing cheerful holiday music and encouraging us to sing loudly to the residents. There were over 35 carolers spread out throughout the room: some sat with their relatives, but most parishioners from both Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence O'Toole joined in the fun on stage. The residents enjoyed the interaction of Santa & Mrs. Claus and they laughed along with the Catholic Daughters famous Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer song. It was indeed another memorable event at Putnam Ridge!

Please consider joining us next year! You'll be glad you did!

how christmas eve came to life

Tina Pennacchia

Sacred Heart Church's youth proclaimed the true meaning of Christmas on Christmas Eve. The children from our Religious Education Program put on their Annual Live Nativity Scene Re-enactment after the 4 pm Mass and did such a wonderful presentation.

Henry Bloss served as narrator describing the birth of Jesus Christ while the cast acted out the scene for the parishioners, and the singers sang beautifully.

Thank you for filling our hearts with much joy and hope during our celebration of Jesus' birth.

st. lawrence o'toole centennial campaign update

Thanks to your continued generosity, we are making good progress on paying down our original debt of $3.8 million for our Centennial Renovations of the Church. Every month through your gifts in WeShare to the Centennial Campaign, or in the collection using your Centennial Gold Envelopes, you help us pay our loan. Other members of the parish have made generous five year pledges and have paid them down. Others are still paying regularly on their pledges.

We finished the renovation in April of 2015 and reopened the Church, and since then we have paid down $3,050,000 of our loan.

We were just able to make a payment of $130,000 off the principal of the loan, bringing the total balance down to $750,000. Each year we pay 5% interest on the balance, so this year it will be approximately $38,000 interest.

We have until June of 2024 to pay down the rest of the loan and with your help we will make it – thank you again for your gifts each month.

Please continue to give as you can through WeShare or the Centennial Gold Envelopes – these gifts remain 100% in the parish to pay down our loan and enable us to make progress month by month.

Thank you! Fr. Richard Gill have you ever heard of the “butterfly effect” of eucharistic adoration?

Religión en Libertad | Feb 08, 2017

When a person adores Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, that person and his surroundings change. When a perpetual adoration chapel opens, it slowly transforms the neighborhood. This is what Isabel Puig calls the “butterfly effect” (from the theory that the smallest movement of a butterfly’s wings in one part of the world can have a powerful effect on wind and weather patterns thousands of miles away).

Isabel Puig is a mother of a large family and helps to coordinate hourly turns at a Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration chapel in Badalona (near Barcelona, Spain). She is also currently working with others to open another perpetual adoration chapel in Barcelona, at the Royal Monastery of Santa Isabel.

“The Lord acts in the neighborhood, in souls, in the whole environment,” Isabel told the Spanish online publication, Religión en Libertad, as she recalled how, at the chapel in Badalona, “people find peace.”

“Adorers find greater peace and serenity to face life, and the wounds of their hearts find healing by going to see Jesus.”

“If the adorers are doing better, all of their surroundings are affected,” she noted. “You notice it at home, in families. When people have their priorities straight, this has an immediate effect on their friends, and we are better able to help those around us.”

The change happens slowly but surely, for the presence of the Lord works marvels. “We have seen people change their lives radically based on that hour of adoration,” Isabel confessed.

“People with addictions, with serious family problems who find support by leaning on the Lord for that hour. Also couples in difficulty — one spouse comes or both come together. People find healing especially for ailments of the soul.

You can see how they develop and evolve as they learn acceptance. There is a lot of joy among the adorers, a deep and profound joy.”

Isabel says that many people who aren’t practicing also come to the Eucharistic Adoration chapel in Badalona, because there they find peace, silence and a welcoming space, and they end up developing a regular and assiduous prayer life.

Some adorers confess that, although they don’t go regularly to Mass, they do come regularly to be in the Lord’s presence. “Something tells them to return each week. It’s a space of total freedom.”

One example of this “butterfly effect” can be seen in Ciudad Juárez, where Eucharistic Adoration has contributed to a decrease in the number of homicides from 3,766 in 2010, to 265 in 2015, says Fr. Patricio Hileman, a priest who is dedicated to establishing adoration chapels throughout Latin America. Experience has shown Fr. Hileman that “when a parish adores God day and night the city is transformed.”
