while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Here's what's important this week:

1. Assisted Suicide:

Not in my backyard. Our parishes signed and delivered 1600 letters to our Albany legislators, thanks to all of you who signed last week! Thank you to every one of you who took a stand. Now pray like mad!

2. Got Adoration?

The best thing you can do for your peace of soul? Hands down it is to take some time each week before the Blessed Sacrament. Silence, calm, peace – you need that. Get your thoughts together in front of Jesus himself and listen for him to speak to your heart. And he will. We need to listen to him and we only can when we are quiet. What are you waiting for?

stlawrenceotoole.org/adoration

3. Hop on the bus, Gus. With us!

Our parishes are sponsoring a bus to Washington Friday, January 24 for the March for Life...we still have seats on the bus. Take a day off and join us for this day trip to speak up for the sanctity of innocent human life. We have fun, and it is much better than another day at work. Don't wait.

stlawrenceotoole.org/MarchForLifeBus.

4. Not forgetting the Poor.

One of the coolest things about Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence is we get it that we are part of a bigger Church and we have to help our brothers and sisters in other places. We serve, we volunteer, we do mission work, and we give financially – joyfully and lovingly to those less fortunate. God wants that and he blesses that.

But the way of taking up second collections up to now is probably not the best – it's a little confusing and too frequent. That's why we've started to simplify. From now on all envelope givers will get one envelope a month entitled Parish Fund for Missions and the Poor and that second collection will usually be the third Sunday. We'll distribute the money to mission projects and the poor accordingly. If you're on WeShare (and I hope you'll consider that!), just add in an amount for that collection once a month.

God Bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

did you know?

Planned Parenthood performed 345,672 abortions last year. That was 80 babies aborted for every one mother they referred to an adoption center. They have a total budget of $1.6 billion dollars. And $617 million of that comes from taxpayer money. Why should our tax dollars fund this organization that profits from the death of the unborn?

extraordinary eucharistic miracles that left physical evidence

Catholics believe that Jesus Christ is really, truly, and substantially present in the Eucharist. There are many stories of miracles throughout Church history that seem to confirm this important teaching.

It's important to note that no Catholic is required to believe any of these stories. Even if they have been investigated and approved by the Church, the Church does not give any absolute guarantee to their authenticity. Nor does the Catholic dogma of transubstantiation depend on the authenticity of these stories (it is based on Scripture and Tradition).

Nonetheless, these stories are particularly noteworthy since you can still go see evidence of the miracles today.

Miracle of Lanciano – 8th century

In the 8th century, a priest in Lanciano, Italy was experiencing doubts about the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. In the middle of saying Mass, he said the words of consecration ("This is my body," "This is my blood) and saw the bread and wine transform into real human flesh and blood. The blood coagulated into five globules (later believed to be representative of the five wounds of Christ). Word of the miracle quickly spread, the local archbishop launched an investigation, and the Church approved the miracle.

The flesh is still preserved to this day. Professor of anatomy Odoardo Linoli conducted a scientific analysis of the flesh in 1971 and concluded that the flesh was cardiac tissue, the blood appeared to be fresh blood (as opposed to blood that was 1200 years old), and there was no trace of preservatives. You can visit the miraculous flesh and blood in the Church of San Francesco in Lanciano, Italy.

why we bury our loved ones in a catholic cemetery

The word which early Christians gave to the place for the burial or entombment of the dead, cemetery, comes from the Greek word for dormitory. It expresses the belief of the Christian that the bodies of the dead rest in their place of burial or entombment until the resurrection of the body on the Last Day. Like the Christian grave or tomb, the Catholic cemetery is sacred and is to be maintained accordingly. In the Catholic cemetery, the ground is blessed for the purpose of burials. The Church has a special rite for the blessing of a cemetery, which is to be properly documented. (Cf. Can. 1208)

Church law requires that, when possible, the Church have its own cemeteries or, at least, a part of the civil cemetery designated for Catholic burials. (Cf. Can. 1240, § 1) If it is not possible to inter or entomb the dead in a Catholic cemetery or a Catholic section of a public cemetery, in which the ground or tomb is already blessed, then the individual grave or tomb is to be blessed during the rite of committal. (Cf. Can. 1240, § 2) The Order of Christian Funerals provides distinct prayers for the committal of the mortal remains in each situation. (Cf. OCF, No. 218)

The Church cares for her cemeteries in perpetuity even if the parish which established the cemetery no longer exists. In the case of the suppression of a parish with its proper cemetery, the care of the cemetery is assigned to the pastor and faithful of a neighboring parish. The perpetual care funds of the cemetery remain inviolate and are administered so that they may provide for the ongoing maintenance of the cemetery. The cemetery retains its own committee or association which is governed by proper statutes.

The Catholic cemetery is arranged and adorned in a way which expresses the truth about death and the resurrection of the body. The direct care of the cemetery by the Church permits a strong witness to the Christian belief regarding death and provides the opportunity for the Church to carry out, to the fullest extent possible, her responsibilities toward the dead. The Catholic cemetery offers a permanent invitation to reflect upon death as the gateway to eternal life.
