while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

I'm always looking for new ideas. So while away on vacation this week, I dropped in to an Evangelical Mega-Church to see how they go about things. They have a way of getting people excited about their mission that we can learn from, and they take the plain words of the Scripture seriously and act on them. At the same time, of course, they're missing out on some of what we consider the most important parts of the Gospel such as the Eucharist and the rest of the sacraments.

They were starting a new series in their preaching schedule called "Just One". Their style is to have a theme for six or eight weeks in a row they drive home. The idea was to encourage everyone this year to focus on just one person they know who is away from faith in Jesus and take that person on. I liked that idea – that everyone "adopt" a person who needs God and find a way to nudge or coach them along.

The preacher talked about how one ordinary person named Ananias was the key to converting St. Paul. And he obeyed God despite his fears and went to meet with Paul. And the rest, as they say, is history.

I bet every one of us can think of one person we'd love to bring back to God. But like Ananias we hesitate, don't we?

Since it was just the first week, they didn't explain much about how to go about working on that one person you know. But it made me think that we Catholics have some great resources to help us.

1. Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Sometimes we think of Adoration as something mainly for ourselves, to grow closer to God. But it is also the best place to pray for the people God has put on your heart – the friends or family members not living in a God-centered way. Just go.

2. The Rosary. We can enlist the help of the Blessed Mother by saying the Rosary for our loved ones. Take the time to do it each day and you will see conversions.

3. Learn your faith. Sometimes we hesitate to engage in spiritual discussions with people we love and who need it because – let's face it – we're not sure we really understand our faith enough to convince anyone. That's why our parish offers so much to us in faith formation... to make us into confident Catholics who can explain it to others.

4. Alpha. Our Alpha Course is a fantastic way to introduce somebody back to the basics of the faith... just invite them along with you. No pressure, no cost. We're starting another Alpha during Lent, in a month or so...

Can you bring along Just One person?

God Bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

PS Last weekend's snowstorm impacted attendance at both parishes and with it, the collection was down significantly... if you are able, please make it up this week or next so we can keep our budget in balance. And give some thought to WeShare electronic giving if you aren't on it yet... it helps a lot when the weather keeps people away. Thank you!

The Corporal of Bolsena – 13th century

A priest who had been experiencing doubts about transubstantiation was celebrating Mass in Orvieto, Italy. Soon after he had consecrated the Eucharist, the host started bleeding onto the corporal (a liturgical cloth) on the altar. The priest, the story goes, ran to the pope who was visiting the town and confessed his sin of doubt. The corporal remains on display in the Cathedral of Orvieto.

Some historians, however, question the veracity of the story, since the first accounts of it don't appear until about a hundred years after the miracle supposedly took place. Nonetheless, the corporal remains an object of veneration.

The Hosts of Siena, Italy – 18th century

On August 14th, 1730, while the Catholics of Siena, Italy were attending a special festival for the eve of the feast of the Assumption, thieves entered the Church of St. Francis and stole a golden ciborium containing hundreds of a consecrated hosts.

Two days later, someone noticed something white protruding from the offering box at another church in Siena. The priests opened the box and found the missing hosts inside, entangled in cobwebs and dirt. After being cleaned as much as possible, the hosts were placed in a new ciborium and taken back to the Church of St. Francis for prayers of reparation and veneration.

Since the hosts were dirty, the priests decided not to consume them but let them simply deteriorate. Over the next few decades, everyone was amazed to see that the hosts did not deteriorate, but actually appeared fresh.

The hosts remain in this state today, 285 years later, and can still be seen in the (now) Basilica of St. Francis in Siena, Italy.

where is jesus today?

Cecilia Britz

If you ask one of our children from the Family Program, they will tell you that Jesus is not only in their hearts, but also in their arms! Yes, you heard it well! The boys and girls of the Family Program made a sock baby Jesus and swaddled him!

In our January session of the Family Program our families also learned about how to help others experience Jesus's presence in their lives through performing Works of Mercy. Some children have committed themselves to pray for their grandparents who have passed away (pray for the living and the dead), to teach their younger sibling to pray (instruct the ignorant), to bring extra drinks to their sport events (give drink to the thirsty) or to do laundry for the family (clothed the naked).

If you would like to see their beautiful creations, make sure you come to Mass on Saturday, Feb 1st at 5:30 pm or Sunday, Feb 2nd at 11 am for the Children's Mass. We will celebrate the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Our Family Program children will bring their baby Jesus to present him too!

parish fund for missions and the poor

Parish Fund for Missions and the Poor. This is something new to our parishes. We are looking to reduce the number of our second collections and simplify them. Getting envelopes each month for so many different causes is confusing. So instead of many different appeals for things like missions, and Communications, Latin America, and so on that go outside the parish, we are going to have just one envelope each month for "Parish Support for Missions and the Poor". It will generally be taken up the third Sunday of the month.

We'll use the gifts you make and distribute them to the outside charities we have helped in the past and some new

St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish Envelope

Sacred Heart Parish Envelope

ones. We'll report periodically on where the money is going. But instead of getting appeals for each one, you will only be asked to give once a month for missions and the poor. Please be as generous as you can to this fund – it will be our principal means of support for works of charity outside our parish boundaries.

From that fund we are also looking to create a relationship with a potential sister parish in a tough section of the Bronx, St. Anthony of Padua. Our leadership teams will be meeting to explore how we can help them and work together. I'm hoping it will be something that is mutually beneficial for our parishes. More to come on this as we work out the practical side of things...
