while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

The sign hanging up outside St. Lawrence says Welcome Home with our logo.

Maybe just a little premature because we can't all come back yet for holy Mass, but it expresses what we all want to hear. Soon we'll be back worshipping together as we get over the pandemic. Soon we'll start up baptizing our newborn babies and uniting couples in matrimony again, and soon we'll be able to start burying our faithful departed loved ones.

Last Sunday we brought the Blessed Sacrament to hundreds of people waiting in the streets all throughout Brewster and Patterson. Christ is still with us, even in our turbulent times.

But even as we emerge from one crisis, another one erupts with violence and strife over racial injustice. We need to gather as one people, united in the love of Christ, for healing and hope once again.

We need to ask God to heal us because we can't do it ourselves. Nothing is more obvious today than division and discord we see in society is the common experience of a long, sad human story. And it should be equally obvious that only in the love of Christ can a broken humanity be healed and renewed and brought together again.

Let's find our way back to Jesus – as Christians and as Americans. Let Him bringing healing and peace to our society once again.

Next Sunday we'll have our Corpus Christi Procession starting at 12:30 pm in the Village, heading up to the Church. Join us to walk with Jesus and praise him as our life and our hope. More details to come...

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

resting in peace

Fr. Richard Gill

More than 150 years ago, before we even had a parish church in Brewster, the parish of St. Joseph's in Croton Falls acquired land on Turk Hill Road for a cemetery. Christian tradition and practice have always insisted that the remains of the followers of Jesus be buried in sacred ground and prayers and Masses offered for their salvation.

No doubt the Catholics of that day were looking to the future when there would be a thriving parish in the developing town. Since 1869 our parishioners have chosen the beautiful sloping hills of St. Lawrence O'Toole Cemetery as their final resting place.

Thousands of former parishioners rest there in carefully kept graves. The names and dates on the headstones are a virtual history book of the parish and the town. Every month I offer a special Mass for the repose of their souls. And last year we began a new tradition of an outdoor Mass for them on All Soul's Day in November.

In more recent years the Church has moved to permit interment of ashes after a cremation and we have constructed a new "columbarium" for the remains of those who choose cremation. They should never be kept in homes or scattered.

I encourage you to take a drive and see this beautiful place of rest. Perhaps it is time for you and your loved ones to buy a burial plot or a niche in the columbarium.

While you are there, say a prayer we all learned and we repeat at the funerals of our loved ones:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

come holy spirit come!

Tina Grant

On Sunday, we celebrated Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit made his mark on the world, pouring out his gifts on the disciples, Mary and others. In his homily, Fr. Rich told the story of a man that never heard the Holy Spirit speak to him. He explained the Holy Spirit speaks to each of us in a particular way.

I always asked my Dad why I did not have his peace and wisdom of faith. "Tina, I cannot give it to you, you have to open yourself up to it". Being raised Catholic, I received the Holy Spirit at Baptism and Confirmation, but I never heard him. As I held my Dad's hand the morning he died, a peace came over his face, he said "I love you" and he was gone. As I sat there, I knew my Dad was home with the Lord. Knowledge. A gift of the Holy Spirit. In John 14:18, we learn Jesus will never leave us orphans. . . he shall send the Holy Spirit to guide us. What a beautiful way to have heard the Holy Spirit through my Dad's passing.

At Mass, a chant sung in Latin, translated means "Come Holy Spirit, Come and shed your ray of light on us". Each generation has experienced turbulent times. If we listen and call upon the Holy Spirit, he will answer and speak to each of us, in a particular way.

Since the pandemic, St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart has remained open for prayer, Adoration & Confession. Masses, Seasons of Praise & ministries are LIVESTREAMED. Fr. Rich has processed through the community with the Eucharist as he did on Pentecost. These pictures tell the story of how much we rely on our faith. Jesus did not leave us orphans, and St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart have kept their doors open so we may continue to call upon the Holy Spirit to teach and guide us, and not lose sight of what is truly important.

pope's mini-lesson: how to discern if god or satan is speaking

KATHLEEN N. HATTRUP

Being able to distinguish the voice of God from the voice of Satan is a clear element of spiritual growth. Pope Francis gives a mini-lesson on how to do it: The Gospel says that: "The sheep hear his voice, as he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out" (Jn 10: 3). The Lord calls us by name, He calls us because He loves us. But, the Gospel then tells us, there are other voices, not to be followed: those of strangers, thieves and brigands who mean harm to the sheep. These different voices resonate within us. There is the voice of God, who speaks kindly to the conscience, and there is the tempting voice that leads to evil.

How can we recognise the voice of God rather than that of the thief, how can we distinguish the inspiration of God from the suggestion of the evil one? One can learn to discern these two voices: they speak two different languages, that is, they have opposite ways of knocking on the door of our hearts. They speak different languages. Just as we know how to distinguish one language from another, we can also distinguish the voice of God from the voice of the evil one.

AM I STILL FREE? The voice of God never forces us: God proposes Himself, He does not impose Himself. Instead, the evil voice seduces, assails, forces: it arouses dazzling illusions, emotions that are tempting but transient.

AM I BEING FLATTERED? At first it flatters, it makes us believe that we are all-powerful, but then it leaves us empty inside and accuses us: "You are worth nothing". The voice of God, instead, corrects us, with great patience, but always encourages us, consoles us: it always nourishes hope.

AM I LOOKING FORWARD? The voice of God is a voice that has a horizon, whereas the voice of evil leads you to a wall, it backs you into a corner.

AM I IN THE PRESENT MOMENT? Another difference. The voice of the enemy distracts us from the present and wants us to focus on fears of the future or sadness about the past – the enemy does not want the present – it brings to the surface the bitterness, the memories of the wrongs suffered, of those who have hurt us, many bad memories. Instead, the voice of God speaks to the present: "Now you can do good, now you can exercise the creativity of love, now you can renounce the regrets and remorse that hold your heart captive". It inspires us, it leads us ahead, but it speaks in the present: now.

IS IT ABOUT MY EGO? Again: the two voices raise different questions in us. That which comes from God will be: "What is good for me?" Instead the tempter will insist on another question: "What do I feel like doing?" What I feel like: the evil voice always revolves around the ego, its impulses, its needs, everything straight away. It is like the tantrums of a child: everything, and now. The voice of God, instead, never promises joy at a low price: it invites us to go beyond our ego to find the true good, peace.

WHAT AFTERTASTE DOES IT LEAVE? Let us remember: evil never gives us peace, it causes frenzy first and leaves bitterness later. This is the style of evil.

AM I SEEKING LIGHT OR HIDING? The voice of God and that of the tempter, finally, speak in different "environments": the enemy prefers darkness, falsehood, and gossip; the Lord loves sunlight, truth, and sincere transparency.

AM I LED TO TRUST? The enemy will say to us: "Close yourself up in yourself, besides no-one understands and listens to you, don't trust anyone!" Goodness, on the contrary, invites us to open up, to be clear and trusting in God and in others.
