while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Welcome Home!

Finally after nearly three months, we have restarted Mass. For now it is just daily Mass – 8:30 am Monday through Friday and also 7:00 pm Tuesday through Thursday. We also can celebrate weddings, funerals, and baptisms. “Soon”, they tell us, we can start Sunday Mass... perhaps in the next couple of weeks – stay tuned. But in the meantime, come along to one of the daily Masses to receive Holy Communion again.

As you can see in these pages, last week we held a beautiful prayer vigil outside the Church to pray for peace and reconciliation in these violent and racially fraught national issues. Our message was the essence of our Christian faith – that Jesus Christ has brought us all together as one family, where as St. Paul says, “there is neither Jew nor Greek, male or female, slave or free”. It is our identity as Christians that unites us.

We also blessed the beautiful new Crucifix erected outside the Church. That is a reminder to us all of the most important truth ever: “that God so loved the world that he sent his only Son that we might not be condemned but have eternal life”. It is through the Cross of Jesus we are set free. There is no other way.

And we also had our second Giving Help and Hope campaign for the poor and the unemployed in our area. Our parishioners donated essential items and grocery cards for more than 200 struggling families. I’m so proud of our parishes that open up with such generosity to our neighbors. Special thanks to all the volunteers who spent days sorting and organizing!

Today join us for our Corpus Christi Procession at 12:30, starting at the train station and proceeding up to our Church for Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This is the day we celebrate Jesus’ greatest gift of the Eucharist. It’s been so long since we have been able to gather to receive. The Corpus Christi procession will prepare our hearts for it.

Welcome home!

Fr. Richard Gill

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Thank you all again for your generosity in getting your weekly support for our parish in to us, either through WeShare, in the mail, or dropping off your envelopes. Your help is making it possible for us to survive!

praying for peace

Tina Grant

On Saturday evening outside St Lawrence parish, against the backdrop of a glorious sunset, St. Lawrence O’Toole and Sacred Heart parish held a prayer vigil. The sight of more than 100 lit candles held by parishioners proved once again the importance of prayer. The disciples could have asked Jesus for anything, yet they asked him to teach them to pray and prayer has continued to sustain us.

Fr. Rich and Deacon Mark led us in prayer, we noted the banner above SLO’s doors “Welcome Home”. How we longed for the day we could once again enter those doors to celebrate Mass and receive the Eucharist. We prayed for peace. In John 14, Jesus says “Peace I Give to You. . . Not As the World Gives. . . Do Not Let Your Hearts be Troubled, or Afraid”. Fr. Rich spoke of the troubled times, and he said “There are no divisions, only those we create”. How true. The readings read by Kurt Herbstritt and the songs sung by Peter all spoke of peace.

Our newly installed sculpture of the corpus of Jesus was blessed by Fr. Rich and Deacon Mark. I was in awe of the artist, Timothy Schmalz. How well he captured our Lord’s last hours, reminding us of how much God loved us to sacrifice his only son to give us eternal life.

On Sunday we celebrated the Feast of the Trinity and were reminded the closer we get to the Trinity that offers reconciliation and peace, the closer we get to each other. We truly have an amazing parish. Fr. Rich and his staff have watched over us well, like the Good Shepherd. They never wavered. By keeping us together we did not become lost.

I learned this weekend that if we utilize the gift of prayer given to the disciples 2000 years ago and pray to be brought closer to the Trinity, we will become channels of Jesus’ peace. We will then unite rather than divide, love rather than hate and agree that All Life Really Does Matter beginning at conception.

our new outdoor crucifix

Fr. Richard Gill

Last week we erected a life-size crucifix outside of St. Lawrence Church and will be lighted at night as a constant reminder that it is through the cross that we are saved. Many parishioners have commented on its beauty and how it makes a powerful public witness.

The corpus is a solid bronze sculpture by Canadian artist Timothy Schmalz.

Our building staff, Luis Rueda and Pablo Quille built the nine-foot cross from oak taken from the original pews in the 1915 church and finish the wood to match the doors of the Church. They mounted it on a stone base.

Timothy Schmalz specializes in outdoor bronze structures and has placed many of his works of art at the Vatican and at churches around Rome. He also created the life-sized Stations of the Cross located at the National Shrine of Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, MA.

He says his "sculpture acts for many as a gateway into the Gospels and the viewer's own spirituality. After looking at an interesting piece of art the viewer is curious. 'Who is this man on a cross? Why does he suffer?' The more powerful the representation of the art, the more powerful the questions become."

By establishing this powerful Crucifix outside our Church, we make a statement that invites others to explore the mystery of Jesus Christ. For us who know the Lord, each time we pass the Crucifix we could pray, "Lord, by your Cross and Resurrection, you have set us free".

I had ordered the Cross last year and planned to fund it through a fundraiser which due to the shutdowns, unfortunately had to be cancelled. So now I have to come up with the $25,000 cost of the sculpture and the construction costs.

Perhaps you would like to contribute something to the cost of the Crucifix – that would be very welcome.

Maybe someone would like to create a memorial by covering the whole cost. In this case, an appropriate and beautiful memorial recognition could be discussed.

If you can help in any way, please give a call to the rectory or contact me directly at 301-873-8418.

giving help & hope

Robin Liguori

Without a doubt, these last few months have been trying. Life as we knew it changed in the blink of an eye. It still doesn't feel real. It's almost as if we're living in a really bad scripted science fiction movie. We are all being tested beyond our limits. These are very unsettling times with so many people losing their jobs and struggling to put food on their tables.

Thankfully, St. Lawrence O'Toole & Sacred Heart Parish has just had their second Giving Hope & Help Distribution Day, where people who are in need could come pick up essential items to help feed their families. It is amazing to see how parishioners stepped up with donations of non-perishable items, gift cards and cash contributions to make this all possible. So much time and effort goes into making this a success, but the Holy Spirit gives strength where it is needed and somehow it all falls into place. With everyone wearing face coverings now, we can't see a person's smile, but I saw the joy in the eyes of people as they filled up a bag with items that will give them one less meal to worry about. The gratitude behind the mask warmed my heart. Each child was given a basket filled with goodies and I watched the look of excitement and happiness it gave them.

Everyone needs a little help sometimes. After all, no one is meant to go through life alone. If life has given you blessings, it's important to share with your community. The dedication of all the volunteers was inspiring, and with Fr. Gill at the helm, we're moving in the right direction. May we continue to be a parish who loves God and our neighbors and is always ready to help.

We're all in this together and we're all here for each other. I am so blessed and proud to be a parishioner of this amazing parish!

when mass returns

Very shortly we are expecting we will have Sunday Masses once again! In the meantime, we are able to do Daily Mass, Funerals, Baptisms and Weddings as long as we are no more than 25% capacity. So our schedule will be the following:

At St. Lawrence we will have Daily Mass Mondays through Fridays 8:30 am. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday we will offer a second Mass in the evening at 7:00 pm.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays will remain suspended for now. So you may attend any day of the week and receive Holy Communion. Everyone is encouraged to wear masks in the Church, and there will be hand sanitizer at the entrance of the Church. Between Masses bathrooms, pews, door handles and other frequently touched surfaces will be sanitized.

Confessions continue every Monday from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm. There will be a special day of Confessions on Friday, June 19 from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

When Sunday Mass begins again, we encourage those who are sick or in some way vulnerable to stay home for the livestream Mass, which will continue at 9:30 am.

We will have a limit of 125 at St. Lawrence and 100 at Sacred Heart. Certain pews will be taped off to maintain social distancing. At St. Lawrence if numbers are greater than that, there will be a second Mass offered in the gym at the 9:30 and 11:00 Masses. For the time being, you may also attend one of the daily Masses where fewer people attend.

We will limit the number of Eucharistic ministers and lectors and we will not use altar servers for the time being. There will be no Offertory Processions either. Missalettes and hymnals will not be used either.

We ask that you refrain from touching each other and there will be no Sign of Peace during the Mass.

At Holy Communion we will ask you to approach single file, keeping social distance and receiving in the hand only.

We also ask that you exit the Church starting with the pews in the rear, and without stopping to chat until you are outdoors.
