while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Just when we thought 2020 couldn't get any worse, we get a tropical storm that takes out our power for days. Sacred Heart just got it back Wednesday night and St. Lawrence Thursday afternoon. And we still have five months to go in this year that seems jinxed! We wait for what is coming next...

But this year makes me remember that life has its cycles of suffering and trials, and then its periods of prosperity and joy. These are always wrestling for attention and trying to dominate our lives. A loved one passes away, a new baby is born. A relationship is broken, and a new opportunity comes along. A job is lost, a new appreciation for what is important is gained. And it highlights the fact our world is just so flawed and imperfect. And we are never really settled or at home here.

There's something restless inside us all that is longing for something better, and for some stable peace of soul. For a situation where we have an uninterrupted security and joy, where we can be ourselves and free from anxiety, where we are no longer hungry and unsatisfied.

"You have made us for yourself, Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you", said St. Augustine 1600 years ago. He touched on the reality of what we humans feel inside. That this world is not enough, that we are made for something better.

I think that restlessness is the sign we are hard-wired for eternal life, for heaven. God made us with an orientation and a desire for what heaven is – the place of true, lasting peace and union with him.

So many people live their lives pretending that's not true, and they chase after the passing joys the world can give – money, prestige, power, pleasure, comforts – but all of them are limited and come to an end. Often chasing those goals ends in tragedy and sadness. Yet those people still long for something that never ends.

Let's keep our eyes on our goal – union with God. And let's work every day to make it happen.

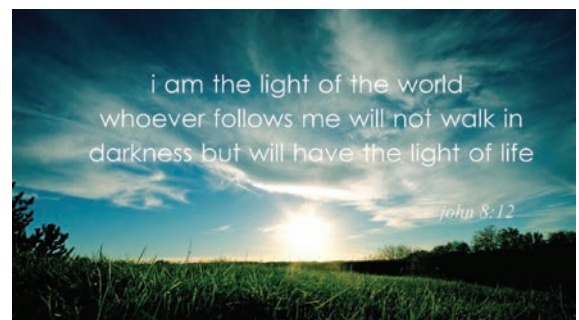

We know the way: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. The one who follows me will not walk in darkness, he will have the light of life."

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Save the date: Sunday August 30 at noon. Outdoor Mass and picnic at Sacred Heart for both parishes!

taking it to the streets!

FR. RICHARD GILL

Across the country this spring and summer amid the pandemic there has been a lot of street protesting. But at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart, we've been taking our faith out into the streets and celebrating all we have as Catholics.

Challenged by the pandemic and limited in how we can gather to worship since March we decided to get creative with how we would reach out with the Gospel message of Jesus. So we brought the Blessed Sacrament all around our neighborhoods from Putnam Lake to North Salem and Brewster on the back of Deacon Mark's pickup truck. After all, Jesus himself used a donkey to travel in to Jerusalem! On Corpus Christi in June a hundred of us walked through downtown Brewster proudly carrying our Lord with us.

When we couldn't meet inside the Church, we met on the Church steps for a Candlelight Vigil for Peace and Reconciliation. We revved up the technology engines to livestream our Sunday Masses for hundreds of people every week, and took to social media on Facebook Live every day with the "Daily Bread" at noon, "Divine Mercy" at 3 pm, and "Psalm you to Sleep" at 9 pm.

Our religious education and adult faith formation quickly adapted and learned to teach online through Zoom technology, keeping our teaching of the Catholic faith going in a new format.

And even with delays, wearing masks and social distancing, 23 adults were received into the Faith or completed their sacraments of initiation this summer.

And now our parishes are preparing outdoor neighborhood rosaries hosted on people's lawns and outdoor Masses – where Christ comes to your neighborhood.

We're so proud of our parishioners who love their faith and live it out in public.

ADORATION

brings me closer to jesus

BARBARA BRANGAN

I have been given a blessing of such an intimate encounter every week for an hour with our Lord Jesus Christ, that I have a desire to share this experience with others to experience this gift as well.

Adoration is not something new to me. For eight and half years I was a Dominican Sister of Sparkhill and Adoration of the Blessed sacrament was a regular and loved spiritual activity. Unfortunately, over the years since leaving the convent, Adoration became a rare occasion. So much time and attention was devoted to my career, new, exciting adventures and all that the world had to offer that I do not recall doing many, if any, hours of adoration. Also, there were not many, if any churches that had it on a regular basis. Benediction was always available but not hourly adoration.

What a marvelous gift we have at St. Lawrence O'Toole and Sacred Heart! I look forward to Saturday when the week has passed and I examine the fulfillment of God's will in my life and I pray the week ahead will bring me even closer to Jesus than I am at that moment.

Every Saturday morning I arrive at the adoration chapel about 20-30 minutes before 6 am. This time is dedicated for my personal intentions. My "official" hour from 6 am-7 am is dedicated totally for one person. The first 20-30 minutes are not planned or structured and that works. The 6 am -7 am hour has a plan, not strict, but time is given for certain things, reading, meditation, conversing with Jesus, thanking Him for the person whom the hour is offered, and just looking at and loving Jesus. Where can anyone receive such peace and joy?

Christ Crucified.

The new Crucifix outside St. Lawrence has been erected as a witness to the love and mercy of Jesus who died for us all. It reminds us of our value in the eyes of God the Father who sent his only Son to die for us, that we might live.

Those who can make a partial contribution to help cover the $25,000 cost of the sculpture, the woodwork and installation are invited to do so. Please contact Maureen Herbstritt our business manager at 845-279-2021.
