while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Here's the news:

It's great to be part of such amazing and dynamic parishes as we have in St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart. As I said last week, we are nearly covered for every hour of the week with Eucharistic Adoration in the Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel. God will make miracles happen for our parishes once we fill the last few hours.

We got all our wonderful kids through Confirmation and First Communion these past few weeks, in spite of the Covid delays since May. I want to thank their parents for hanging in there with us and continuing to pray with the kids and bring them to Mass.

We've got a first class staff to run our Family Program and Edge youth ministry. But thanks to continuing concerns about the coronavirus, religious education for our young people will look a lot different this year. We'll do much of it by Zoom online classes and put emphasis on great in person events like holy hours and Masses for the kids. More details to come in the next couple of weeks.

Our parishes are unique with our Faith Formation. Don't miss the listings for our terrific Faith Formation programs in this bulletin and on the website. We have everything you need to grow in faith and in your spiritual life. We are doing them in person and on Zoom so you can choose what's best for you.

One of the best programs is the TV series called The Chosen which we are showing Friday nights in our gym. It is a beautiful reconstruction of Jesus and his choice of the apostles – the series develops their characters and background in a way it makes the Gospel much better understood.

Our parishes are unique too with our focus on social media. We have also launched a new series to feed your spiritual life on social media platforms. There will be something each day from Cecilia, our Evangelization Director, Lynda, our Discipleship Director, Peter, our Music Director, and yours truly. Tune in on Facebook, Flocknote or YouTube.

We're keeping the church clean and sanitized and we're inviting everyone back to worship. For those who want to come during the week instead, we have Mass Monday to Friday morning at 8:30, and Tuesday – Thursday evening at 7:00 pm. For those who can't make it out, we have LIVESTREAM Mass at 9:30 am every Sunday and we have just installed new, improved cameras.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

taste and see the lord

CECILIA BRITZ

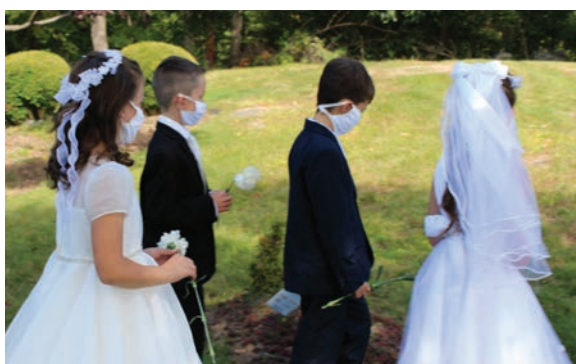

White dresses, shining shoes, tiaras and veils, suits and bow ties! So much beauty that meets the eye during a First Communion Mass. But, what about all the beauty that doesn't meet the eye? What about the things we cannot see?

That is precisely what our children learned about during their First Communion Mass. Father Gill gave us all a heartfelt lesson on the blessed sacrament. During his homily, all the little eyes were lightened up, and minds and hearts were being opened for the Lord. Father Gill explained to us that the effect of receiving Holy Communion is like the effect electricity has on a lightbulb. The light shines through it and illuminates into the darkness; we cannot see the electricity, but we know it is there. And so it is with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist: the bread and wine still look the same, but when we receive him in our hearts, its light and love changes us and illuminates into our darkness.

With a warm and delicately breezy day, our 45 children from Saint Lawrence, and 17 children from Sacred Heart came together to receive their First Holy Communion. Everybody at a Mass was gently and inadvertently taken away by the beauty of seeing our community come together again. We have all been waiting for this big day since May, and whether we realized it or not, the simple act of standing together in church has required courage, resilience, and trust.

And just like that, the most important day in the life of these precious children came, and went. The parties, the pictures, and the white masks and all the guests are now gone. What remains is what is important: Jesus in their hearts, their communion with our Lord.

Let's pray for all the children who receive their First Communion this year. May the power of the 'electricity' in the Eucharist keep shining bright! And may we, as parents, continue to support this union by bringing our children to receive Jesus over and over again, each week.

ADORATION

loving him

SUZANNE YAREMKO

I started going to Adoration in June 2016. After my daughter's second classmate committed suicide, I took my daughter Elizabeth to the St. Lawrence Adoration Chapel shortly after we found out the horrifying news. We were approached by someone who asked if I would like to be an adorers on a weekly basis, and gave me Angela Morelli's phone number.

In 2013, was the first time I saw adoration on ETWN after the daily Mass. I saw programs on ETWN about adoration with Mother Angelica and I prayed for Sacred Heart and St Lawrence O'Toole to some day have adoration. Now, I keep praying for more adorers to sign up, as I find it's the best time of my life.

When I go to adoration, I arrive early so I can enter the chapel early. I always pray for the adorers in front of me on Friday nights, and then pray the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, and St. Michael Chaplet. Also, during Adoration I talk to Jesus and he responds to me. He sometimes moves as I gaze on the monstrance. Other times, I just let Jesus talk to me while I sit silent in prayer.

If a guest arrives during my adoration hour I pray for them. I love adoration during First Friday of the month. I am always there during the Mass that includes Benediction and Adoration. When the priest or the deacon brings the monstrance to the adoration chapel I follow him and pray with him throughout. I enjoy my time that I share with other people in the congregation. I also visit the Adoration Chapel before I attend daily Mass

I know other people who have visited the adoration chapel after I shared my experiences with them. Some of my family, friends and even my husband, Scott, have become regular adorers.
