while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Eleven years ago, Fr. McKeon initiated an adventure to establish daytime Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, convinced that the more devotion we had to the heart of our faith – the Real Presence of Jesus – the more our parish would grow in holiness and fruitfulness.

When we did the renovation of the parish for the Centennial in 2015, one of my priorities was to build a Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel so that adoration could be extended around the clock, seven days a week. This is known as Perpetual Adoration. Located in the new wing of the Church to the right side of the altar, the adoration chapel is beautiful and elegant.

I am delighted that this past Sunday, five years after it opened, we reached our goal of at least one person in adoration for every single hour of the week, day and night.

This is a huge achievement for our parish – every moment of the day a member of our parish is before the Blessed Sacrament giving praise to Jesus Christ for all his love and sacrifice, and interceding for the rest of us.

This goes on throughout the night (after hours when the doors are locked, only adorers with an access code can enter), seven days a week.

The song of praise that goes up to God hour after hour without end will have a powerful effect on our parish:

- It will increase our love for Jesus in Holy Communion and deepen our spiritual lives;
- We will win the graces our family and friends need to return to God and to the Church;
- It will draw back the lost and the sinners to Our Lord and win us all forgiveness for our sins;
- It will increase vocations to the priesthood and religious life;
- It will teach our young people what is essential and distinctive about our Catholic faith.

If you haven't got your own hour of adoration, contact the adoration committee for your own time to spend with Our Eucharistic Lord. If you can just drop in occasionally, I encourage you to do so. You will be touched by the power of this Sacrament and you will never be the same.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

celebrating together at the larusso's

VINNY AND PHYLLIS LARUSSO

What a blessing it was to host Sunday Mass in our backyard this past weekend. We couldn't ask for a more beautiful Autumn Day. The weather was just perfect! We had a tent set up for Father Gill with a lightly decorated table for the altar. To see and hear Fr. Gill reading the Bible and spreading the Word of God in our backyard to our neighbors and fellow parishioners from St. Lawrence was just wonderful. Peter Ryan provided the beautiful music and Chris Crozier read the Gospel readings. We had about 40 people in attendance and it was wonderful to see some parishioners who had not been to church since the start of COVID. Everyone was grateful for this opportunity.

Outdoor Mass is such a wonderful Sunday program that Fr. Gill has started and it is great to bring the community together in a comfortable relaxed setting and to just sit and take in nature and everything around us. My family was happy to host this event and hope that this will continue as long as the weather stays good. May God continue to bless us all!

finding peace & joy again

TINA GRANT

Over the past ten years I have taken advantage of many of the ministries at St. Lawrence O’Toole parish and each one has helped mold me into who I am. I am thankful for the programs and the participants whose stories and sharing influenced me.

I am now participating in GriefShare, a beautiful program for everyone. It is a program that helps you through the loss of a loved one and to understand the emotions that surround that loss. And, it is a program that confirms the hand of Jesus is there for you to take. You are not alone. I have gained insight into myself and my own personal feelings of the losses I have sustained throughout my life. We have all experienced loss. There are still events and words that trigger emotions for me. I have accepted these emotions and through the grace of God I get through those moments. Through GriefShare I have learned so much more about the blessings of death and the art and importance of healing. No one will ever completely get over the loss of a loved one. Our grief is deep because our love was deep. That is a blessing. There are ways in which we can remember our loved ones with more joy rather than sorrow. Join us!

national prayer rally

TINA GRANT

On Saturday, a global Prayer Rally for our Nation was held in front of the Putnam County Courthouse, led by Reverend Andrew Columbia, Pastor of the Carmel Baptist Church. The Reverend began with a prayer for “the church”, regardless of denomination. The stage was set for unity which is very much lacking in our nation and across the world. Several church leaders were present along with residents of the community.

Twelve leaders each led a prayer for the respect for the sanctity of human life and to return to and deepen their faith in God. Fr. Rich led a prayer for the unborn reminding us it is our job to protect those who cannot protect themselves and to act as stewards. As each leader spoke on the steps of the courthouse, draped in red, white and blue, I reflected on how great our nation began and how much it has declined. I reflected on the words “with liberty and justice for all” written into our Pledge of Allegiance.

The leaders spoke with conviction and passion. The words that struck a chord in my heart were “thy Will be done, on earth as it is in heaven”, spoken in the Lord’s prayer. I realized the great gap that lies between heaven and earth. One of the leaders reminded us that when you close your door to God, you leave it open for his opponent. God does not move, we do.

The call for prayer was a call to God to give us strength, to remind us to love like God and forgive like God and to kneel not in protest but only to the one who created us. The prayer rally on Saturday was a reminder of not just how important prayer is in our lives but an even stronger reminder that our choices reflect the world we are leaving to our children.

ADORATION

in his presence

ARLETE TURTURRO

"I place myself in the presence of you, my Lord. I adore you, my Savior. I come to you with my mind, soul, body, and heart. I pray in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen."

It is the greatest blessing in my life when I come to my Lord in the Adoration Chapel at St. Lawrence O'Toole Church. I feel His love and I praise Him. I ask for forgiveness of my sins and any actions that may have offended Him. I also thank Him for all the blessings and graces he has given me, my family, and my friends. I offer all of this up through my prayer.

I continue to pray and let myself engage in conversation with my Lord. I speak with Him as I would speak to a priest, family member, or friend. He is my Lord, my Savior, and my friend. It is in this moment that I offer petitions through prayer for the living and the dead. Often times I feel an hour of Adoration isn't enough, so I continue with prayer whenever possible throughout the day and night.

I always bring my journal...why? I never know when the Lord will anoint me with a thought, emotion, or word. I never know when I will be blessed with the Holy Spirit. At those moments, I start putting my pen to work and write in my journal. It is as if the Holy Spirit takes hold of my pen. I feel His presence, His love, His care, and peace. Jesus is my Lord, my God, my life. I sacrifice and surrender to Him every day. I feel joy in His presence and my heart is filled. I feel compassion and am grateful for the life, sacrifices, and pain He endured and I feel His pain in my heart. I ask the Lord to come to me so that I will receive Him spiritually and I am always blessed.

Not too long ago I was going through a very difficult time and I had tears in my eyes. His Presence was a blessing and sign to me. He told me everything will be okay and I was filled with His love and peace. I felt joy and was thankful. My eyes continued to fill with tears...tears of love for my Lord. I embrace the Lord's graces and love. My faith is my strength. I belong to my Lord and I offer my soul to Him. I am thankful and surrender daily to the Lord.

"I thank you, my Lord... with all my heart, body, mind, and soul!"

LEAVE YOUR MARK FOR THE FUTURE GENERATIONS OF OUR PARISHES

It is important for everyone to have a will in order to insure your assets are directed according to your intentions and that everything is clear when you go back to God. Many people distribute what they have among loved ones and also generously leave a portion of their assets to the parish.

You can leave a gift to build up the future of your parish (St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart) with a bequest in your will. Some people leave a percentage such as 10% of their estate to the church, and others leave a fixed amount.

Previous generations of Catholics built up the church we inherited... leave your legacy for the Catholics to come after us.
