while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

1. No matter what happens at the polls on Tuesday, some things will change and others will not. But we can be certain of the following:

- The Church will go on. It is the Body of Christ and even though at different times in history she went through terrible persecutions or pressure campaigns, she persevered because Jesus Christ sustains her. We should be confident he is ultimately in control, and he told us “I will be with you all days, even to the end of the world”.
- Even if the “right” candidate wins, our challenges as Christians have to do with a lot more than the political system can deal with. We face our biggest challenges from the aggressive secular and even atheistic culture around us. Who gets elected has little impact on the culture war we are in.
- Our mission is to build the Kingdom of Christ over time, and our battle is with the powers of darkness. We have to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to a world that has forgotten or rejected him. Whether we do that in a free society that values and protects religious liberty, or one in which Christianity is suspect and under persecution, we still have to carry on the battle. Souls are at stake.

2. As I mentioned before, every one of us should vote our Catholic values and form our consciences with the light of the Gospel before we pull the lever for a candidate. That is a serious responsibility.

3. This Monday we celebrate All Soul’s Day, November 2. We’ll be celebrating a Mass at St. Lawrence Cemetery at 4:00 that day to pray for all your loved ones, and all those who are buried on that sacred ground. Join us...

4. In addition to annual meal delivery run by the Franciscans and the Knights around Brewster, a group of parishioners will be going down Thanksgiving Day to the Bronx to serve the homeless around St. Anthony of Padua parish in a very poor area. The parish has asked for our help in reaching hundreds of homeless in their area. Sign up on the website if you’re interested...

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Congratulations to St. Lawrence O’Toole Knights of Columbus as they mark 110 years of service to our parish. They just ran a successful membership drive and open house.

soul food

The questions and doubts kept coming. Why is my faith lacking? What can I do to increase my faith? Where can I go for answers? Why don't I measure up to other Catholic men? How do I change myself to become the man I want to be? What is my purpose in life? Do I even have a purpose? Just sitting around waiting for God to show me the way hadn't worked up to now. If I really wanted answers I needed to do something... anything. I needed to take that first step to face my feelings of inadequacy and to expand my knowledge of my faith.

I had heard about the Men's Ministry group but was a bit put off by the Ministry part. Was I suppose to spread the word? Preach? Speak in tongues? Despite my misgivings I decided to go on Saturday morning. To my relief I didn't have to preach, evangelize or speak in tongues. All I really had to do was listen and enjoy the company of other Catholic men. No pressure to speak or answer questions. Only acceptance.

Here's how it works. Go to the Large Conference Room at 7 am - 8:30 am on Saturday mornings or register at stlawrenceotoole.org/MensMinistry to get the log in for Zoom. Bagels, coffee and small talk as the group wanders in. After an opening prayer there is a video or an individual presentation. This is followed by small group discussions, observations, reflections and questions. For me this is the best part of the meeting, listening to my fellow parishioners allows me to reflect and learn. Throughout the following weeks I found I was not alone in my thirst for understanding of my role as a man, husband or father.

Matthew Kelly speaks about "being the best version" of who you can be. I may not always be the best version of myself but I have learned that I can be a "better version" of myself and who I want to be. And with each passing day I get the chance to move toward that "best version". That is the gift I have received from attending Men's Ministry. The decision to go to Men's Ministry was not mine alone. I am sure that God gave me a nudge and for that I am thankful. I may have come for the bagels but I left with food for the soul.

LYNDA HOLLER DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

Series 1:
Community #3 – They devoted themselves to meeting together

Acts of the Apostles reveals how the early Christians created a community that was unique. They gathered together and worked, worshiped, and provided for each other. Through that model, their faith grew and so did their numbers. Their lifestyle was appealing to outsiders.

Last week, we reflected on the importance of having a spiritual role model. The week before, I shared how the stories and witnesses of other faithful parishioners taught me the different ways that Jesus can communicate with us. Spending time with people who spoke openly about Jesus working in their lives helped me recognize Him working in mine.

My experience is not unique. Over the last eleven years that I have come to know parishioners in ministries and faith formation, I have seen lives being changed. People growing closer to Jesus and closer to their fellow Christians in our faith community.

Our nation was founded on Christian principles and until the last couple decades the United States was considered a Christian society. Not anymore. Experts will tell you that we have transitioned to a pagan culture. Religion cannot be discussed or expressed in the schools, public square, or the media. There are more people that claim no religious affiliation than are Catholic these days. It can be extremely hard to talk about our faith in the world today, even in our homes, when we have family members that don't believe.

The way to Jesus is by growing in wisdom and knowledge of Him and we can only do that in community. Make the time; God will repay you a hundredfold!

Scripture: Read about the early Christian lifestyle in Acts 2:42-47. How does it speak to you?

Call to Action: Find a program or ministry that can draw you into a community that can support and inspire you to get to know Jesus more intimately. We have programs and ministries for everyone. Contact me if you would like recommendations. A great start would be to attend Who Do You Say that I Am? Retreat Nov 7.

Christ Crucified.

The new Crucifix outside St. Lawrence has been erected as a witness to the love and mercy of Jesus who died for us all. It reminds us of our value in the eyes of God the Father who sent his only Son to die for us, that we might live.

So far our parishioners have donated $15,794 to the new Crucifix fundraiser, toward the total of $25,000 needed. With another $9,206 we will be at our goal. Please contact Maureen Herbstritt our business manager at 845-279-2021.
