Mary's Mysteries — Illuminating Our Way

Lately, I have been reflecting on how the 20th Century was filled with the Holy Spirit fruitfully inspiring fresh devotions to help us better understand Jesus' love and mercy. Most of us were born in that century; the timing clearly tells us that we are his target audience.

Consider Mary's apparitions at Fatima in 1917, where she appeared through three shepherd children to tell all people to pray the Rosary and accept suffering for the salvation of souls. Fatima, Portugal is now one of the world's top pilgrimage sites and the Fatima Prayer is recited at the end of each decade of the rosary.

Jesus appeared to St. Faustina numerous times in the 1920-30's instructing her to share his message of Divine Mercy with the world. Presently, the image of Christ, with the red and blue rays in the Divine Mercy painting, the Chaplet, the novena, and the feast day have infiltrated the prayer lives of the faithful for over 80 years.

It isn't clear when the devotion of the rosary began, but for hundreds of years there were three sets of Mysteries on which to meditate: Joyful, Sorrowful and Glorious. Then during his reign, Pope St. John Paul II was inspired to add five Luminous Mysteries. This addition prompts us to contemplate how the public life and teachings of Jesus light the way for all people.

Fatima, Divine Mercy, and the Luminous Mysteries do not explain anything that wasn't already revealed through Scripture, but through these new devotions, Jesus clarifies his teachings in a distinct way.

Considering that we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet using rosary beads, it is illuminating to recognize that all of these 20th Century devotions involve the Rosary as our "weapon for these times," according to the saint, Padre Pio. Surely Jesus is revealing it to be our choice weapon for today too.

Scripture: Read John 14:26; ask the Holy Spirit to teach you.
Call to Action: Our Missionary Rosary Ministry is meeting on June 5 to make rosaries to propagate the devotion. Join us to make a rosary and pray it!

while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Most of us – priests included – don't understand much about the Most Blessed Trinity, whose Feast we celebrated today. That's because it is a "mystery of faith", which means it is something we believe because God revealed it, and we can know it to be true, but we are limited in what we can comprehend.

That's not because it is murky, hidden knowledge but because God is infinite and so "awe-some" that comprehending Him is just beyond the reach of human intelligence. We can't figure him out like we do all the things on earth. We can know certain things about God for sure, but understanding him fully is something we will have only when we see Him "face to face." That's heaven.

But what we can perceive now about the mystery of the Trinity is that God is not some isolated, solitary power or force in the universe. He is in communion, in a dynamic relationship as three persons in one God, united eternally in love for each other – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. That reveals something profound about us mere humans: since we are made "in his image and likeness", we are made to be in relationships of self-giving love as well. Pope St. John Paul II used to say all the time that we can only discover who we are at our core when we make of ourselves a "sincere gift" to others. Apart from those loving relationships, we remain "a mystery to ourselves".

And isn't it true? Isn't our society and our world gripped by terrible loneliness because of lack of true, committed love?

On another note...

You'll be hearing plenty more about our campaign for the 150th anniversary of our original Church at St. Lawrence from 1871, starting with our Great Procession of the Blessed Sacrament for the Feast of Corpus Christi June 6 and following that with 40 hours Devotion. The week after that is Sacred Heart Weekend, with Mass of the Sacred Heart June 11 and Outdoor Mass & BBQ Sunday, June 13. Then it's on to the Golf Outing and the Gala Dinner Dance, and the visit of Cardinal Dolan October 24. And plenty of great stuff in between.

We're packing the summer and fall with great events and spiritual formation opportunities for everybody to experience an amazing spiritual renewal this year. We're done with pandemics, and we're moving on! Get on board because we're going to be better than ever!

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Keep up your prayers for Cindy Agosta, the 11-year-old girl with brain cancer we baptized and anointed two weeks ago... she's at the hospital in Valhalla receiving her chemotherapy, and mom says this amazing kid is in good spirits.

AVA JOSEPHINE FAGIN

After eight years of religious education, I finally received the sacrament of Confirmation. I have to give credit to all of my teachers now and throughout the years and to my mom because she was a great EDGE teacher. I had learned so much through EDGE including how to act according to the teachings of my faith and why this faith is so important. Overall, I think EDGE helped me improve in my faith a lot!

To receive the sacrament of Confirmation, we had to also complete a service project. For my service project, I helped out at Kidz Chapel and All-Stars with Miss Barbara. I love kids and loved helping them. I was delighted to be able to work with them. In addition, I had to attend a retreat. I felt the retreat really helped direct me to a more unshakeable faith. I had so much fun playing games, hanging out with my friends, and learning things about my friends and missionaries that I had not known before. The retreat genuinely touched me because I felt more intimate to God, my friends and the missionaries because they were so open and honest and not much older than me. We all really connected!

For my Saint I chose Josephine Butler because she was a warrior for women's rights and women's education. I felt connected to Josephine Butler because the issues she fought for are close to my heart. Because of this, my Saint report was very easy to write.

I was incredibly nervous to be confirmed because after all of our hard work, I thought I was going to mess it up! To be honest, I only had two words to say, and I totally forgot them. Thank goodness Clara was there to help remind me. Bishop Whalen, who confirmed me, made my experience much easier. He was so kind and funny and really knew how to talk to us.

I am appreciative to my grandma, Carletta, for being the greatest of grandmas. She is always there for me in my faith and life. I really trust my grandma was the right choice as a sponsor. Overall, I had a great confirmation experience, and I hope that next year's class will have a great one too!

meet our summer seminarian, joseph ukaj

During the summers, seminarians from St. Joseph Seminary in Yonkers spend ten weeks in parishes to help out and learn the fundamentals of running successful parishes.

Joseph Ukaj, 33 was born in Albania (like Deacon Mark), but his family moved to Croatia when he was five months old, and spent several years in Germany (he also speaks German), and to Yonkers when he was twelve. He says his family was never very religious and didn't much practice the faith.

After high school he started working in a store owned by his family and later in construction and maintenance jobs. But in his early twenties he had a conversion experience connected with the Rosary and started to live his faith in a personal way. He found it liberating and peace-filled. After a year or so, Joseph began to feel God was calling him to more but fought it because the last thing on earth he wanted was to be a priest. But finally, he embraced God's invitation and has felt a great sense of peace ever since.

He enrolled in the seminary and finished college at St. John's University and has spent two years at St. Joseph's in Dunwoodie studying theology. After this summer he will spend a year getting pastoral experience and training in a parish, and then return to finish two more years of study before ordination to the priesthood.

This summer Joseph will be leading an 8 week course (starting June 2) on learning the faith (Echo), and participating in our summer camps, the Lifeteen national training convention, and the Amazing Parish Conference. Most important, he gets to spend time working with all our amazing parishioners here at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart!
