finding peace and praise in every season!

KATY MILANO NEW

Imagine walking into an empty church. You walk forward and genuflect. You find your place in a comfortable pew, and you sit in silence. You sit in peace and you listen.

This is the beauty of Seasons of Praise.

I am one of the musicians at St. Lawrence's Seasons of Praise. Led by Jeff Mazzone, along with Lou Milano, my dad, Carmen Constantino, Brian Sullivan, John Morgan, and Juan de Dios Gonzales.

I am so grateful that the Seasons of Praise nights have become a staple in my life. It gives me an opportunity to step away from my life, the beauty and the challenges of being a wife and mother, where I can bare my soul before the Lord. I love to gaze upon the Blessed Sacrament and just listen. It refuels me and makes me feel stronger and more peaceful in my daily life. I am inspired by the talks given by our priests, deacons, and visiting priests.

There is such power in sitting and unveiling yourself before the Blessed Sacrament. Sometimes we go in with no agenda, a distracted mind, maybe even question why we are here or what has brought us to this spot, and we leave rejuvenated, fulfilled, and ready for whatever comes next.

When you attend a Seasons of Praise Holy night, sit in the silence and sing to the heavens. The music is a bridge for you - from the stirrings in your heart where there are no words to loving Jesus and soak in his loving heart.

Come, join us every third Monday of the month and let's worship together! The next few dates are 10/18, 11/15, and 12/20.

Jeff Mazzone will only be with us for three more months, so be sure to enjoy the beautiful praise and worship music he leads before we send him off to the next stage of his journey with Christ!

while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Last weekend, we sponsored a wonderful fundraiser for Brewster Cares and all the work it does for the poor and homeless in our area. We held a luncheon at Las Mañanitas, and the generous owner; Luis Sanchez donated the food and service as a gift. We presented an award to Chief Delgado of the Village of Brewster Police for their compassion and professionalism helping us with those suffering the indignity of living on the streets. Sixty-five people joined the luncheon and many others donated to make it all come together. Thank you to everyone who participated and gave.

Brewster Cares not only serves the homeless in our town, but also reaches out with Supper Hugs to anyone who is in need, or grieving the loss of a loved one, or is sick with Covid, or experience any other trauma. Delicious meals are donated by volunteers or area restaurants and delivered with a smile and with love.

The English as a Second Language program run by Mike Leonard helps our immigrant community master the basic English skills they need to become a productive part of our community. The Tutoring/Home-work Help program, run by Rachel Whitehead, helps kids falling behind in studies during Covid times to catch up to where they should be. Giving Help & Hope and the Boutique Gratis provided essential items, food, and clothing to the needy and the unemployed during the worst parts of the pandemic.

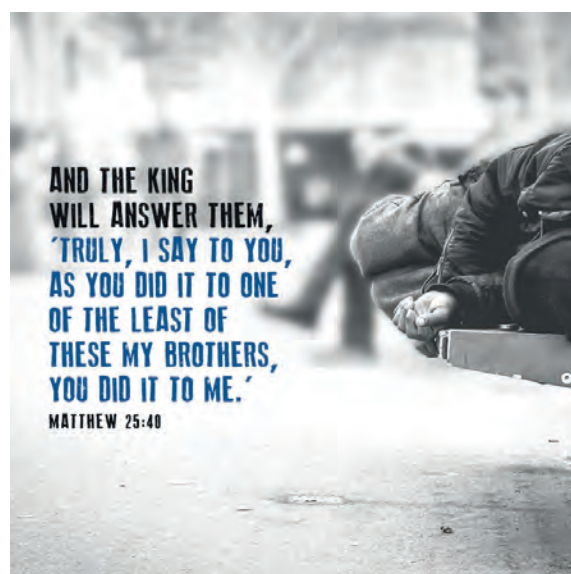

In addition to our local support of the poor, we help our sister parish in the South Bronx, St. Anthony of Padua. We're going to be helping them again to do a Thanksgiving dinner for the homeless in their area. Stay tuned for information on how you can help!

The Gospel of Jesus invites us all to a deeper commitment to our brothers and sisters in need. In fact, Jesus says explicitly that our judgment will be based on how we treated the poor. I am convinced that our parishes need to do more and more for the needy because it makes us more authentic Christians and helps keep us from attachment to our comfort and our money.

I'm also convinced that the more we give to "the least of our brothers", the more the Lord will bless our parishes and our families. God is never out-done in generosity. He promises us a hundredfold in this life and eternal happiness in the life to come. Not a bad deal!

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

JUDY CALLAHAN

What a beautiful day we were given to celebrate all that Brewster Cares has done and is planning for the upcoming year. More than 60 people attended the luncheon on Saturday, October 9th at Las Mananitas, thanks to the generosity of owner Luis Sanchez. Our sincere thanks to Luis for donating the food and beverages, in order that all proceeds would benefit Brewster Cares.

We were happy to welcome back Wilfredo Cuascut, the manager of the winter homeless shelter, along with our honoree, Village of Brewster Police Chief John Delgado, who humbly accepted an award from Fr. Rich. Chief Delgado gave credit to his entire department for their professionalism and compassion in their interactions with the vulnerable population who access the shelter. It truly takes a village!

A weekend getaway at a beautiful Adirondack home was offered at the Silent Auction, courtesy of Tom and Yvette Donohue, and was won by Betsy Hansbury.

Happily, our friends and partners from Trinity Lutheran church joined with us, as did the many people who love the mission of Brewster Cares and wanted to learn more about our work. We learned more about the English language program from Mike Leonard, who instructs adults in this program. He brings his unique style to his work by finding out what type of work that the students do, and then structures the lesson in such a way that they learn relevant words and phrases that will help them to better communicate at their jobs. His purpose is to help people more easily assimilate into the local community.

Help & Hope, Supper Hugs, ESL, Tutoring, Neighbors Helping Neighbors and Safety Squad round out the array of services available at Brewster Cares.

If you know someone in need of help or have some time to offer, check us out on the website at brewstercaresny.org or call us at 845-279-6146.

Ever wonder your purpose?

You're not alone.

God's plan unfolds...

TINA GRANT

Fr. Henry completed the renovation of our wooden church and enhanced our cemetery. Next, he focused his attention on the property behind the church, alongside Eastview Avenue. He made an offer to purchase it. The owners would not sell to a Catholic. God puts people where he wants them. Enter Mary Enright Ferguson, a young parish volunteer, well-liked by all. Mary convinced the property owners to sell her the property. They only gave her one day to purchase it! At this pivotal moment, Fr. Henry was out of town. Mary knew what was in God's heart. She used her entire savings and bought the property. Fr. Henry was thrilled!

In 1896, Fr. Henry was transferred to Our Lady of the Rosary. At the party hosted by St. Lawrence, the community presented him with a silver loving cup and a gold-headed cane. He never forgot his friends, and he was never forgotten. In 1914, when the cornerstone for our stone church was laid, Fr. Henry was an honored guest who wielded the trowel.

On October 3, 1922, Fr. Henry died. He served the Lord for over 25 years. His obituary stated how he was well-loved and accomplished much. He was Director of the Roman Catholic Mission of Our Lady of the Rosary (established in 1883) for the protection of Irish Immigrant girls. The local paper reported that "Father Henry could be found almost daily on the steamship docks looking out for the welfare of his charges." Emerson W. Addis, editor of the local paper, wrote: "Very well we remember the Sunday evening in March 1896, when he bade farewell to his pastoral duties at St. Lawrence, and in so doing, told his parishioners and friends of the happiness and pleasure he had experienced during his years of labor with them, of the many pleasant and tender associations formed none the less sweet because quiet and humble. In the quiet of his study, those to whom he had ministered at the baptismal font, in the confessional, at the nuptial celebration and in prayers for restoration from serious illness, has passed before him in review and again and again, he had offered prayer to Almighty God to bless them for their uniform courtesy and kindness to him and for their united efforts for the happiness and holiness of all within the parish. In conclusion, his prayer was that not one of them should be lost, but that all might one day gather around God's altar in heaven never more to be separated." What love Fr. Henry had in his heart for God and those who knew him! Fr. Henry's funeral services were at St. Patrick's Cathedral. He was buried at Calvary Cemetery.

God placed in our hands Fr. Henry and Mary Enright Ferguson. They both saw God's plans for us. Fr. Henry renovated our church allowing more people to worship God and enhanced our cemetery to pay respect to the deceased. Mary Ferguson sacrificed all her savings to purchase property where our parochial school would be built to teach our future. It is now our Parish Center and Early Childhood Learning Center. God Bless them both for their wisdom. At the Gala on October 16, we will celebrate our 150th Anniversary. Let us thank God for the gift of our parishes and all those who were part of his beautiful plan for us.

LORETTA LESTRANGE

Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, and administration, and varieties of tongues." (1 Corinthians 12:27-28)

Have you ever thought about being prayed with or prayed for? Maybe you have, or maybe it sounds like something mysterious, or slightly fanatical. You may conjure up images of faith healers shouting into microphones as people are lowered to the ground or flail about. It may make you feel uncomfortable or afraid.

Well, I am here to tell you that while there is a mystery in healing prayer, it is a holy one. It is possible to receive healing from our fellow Catholic brothers and sisters. The first time I experienced being prayed with was at a Women's Cornerstone retreat at St. Lawrence. I had been asked to be a speaker at the retreat, which I had never done. I was so nervous. Although I had rehearsed my talk, I feared I would stammer, sweat profusely from anxiety, the women would judge me for what I had to share. Some of the Cornerstone team members prayed with me prior to my talk for a few minutes. I will never forget what I experienced in that prayer. By the end, I was filled with feelings of peace and calm.

Then when I delivered my witness talk, I felt so calm, and my voice felt as if it wasn't even mine, as if it was coming from another power. No stammering, no sweating, no anxiety. I later learned that all that I was feeling and experiencing was because I had been filled with the Holy Spirit. This may sound crazy, but I swear to you that what I share with you now is the truth. Since then, I have submitted myself to prayer with teams and received meaningful words of prophecy and healing of sports injuries.

We are beginning a healing prayer ministry at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart called Arise Prayer Ministry. A few weeks ago, about 80 parishioners attended a weekend retreat called "Holy Spirit 101," led by Victoria Harris, who authored the book "Holy Spirit 101." Many parishioners felt called to learn how the Holy Spirit can work among us and how each of us is called to heal our brothers and sisters.

The process involves a prayer team of 2-5 people and a person who wants to be prayed with. The team will introduce themselves and ask you what you would like or need prayer for. Then, with your permission, they may lay their hands on your shoulder or perhaps your arm or back, if those are the affected areas you are asking for healing. Then they will begin to pray, calling upon the Holy Spirit to come into the midst of the prayer. Some team members may pray in tongues quietly if they have yielded to gift of tongues, and only if you feel comfortable with that. The entire prayer takes about 10 minutes, maybe less. They will ask you how you feel at the end and minister to you if you actually rest in the spirit.

PRAYER SESSIONS BEGINS

- November 21, after the 11 am Mass, and weekly thereafter. Our teams will be available for an hour and will get to as many people as possible. We will also be available at the
- Third Monday of the month at Seasons of Praise after priests' talk.

"Therefore, I tell you, all that you ask for in prayer, believe that you will receive it and it shall be yours." (Mark 11:24)

DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

Christ's Truth

Over the last few weeks at Mass, we have been hearing some tough teachings from Jesus. Messages of truth alienated many of his followers, causing countless numbers of them to walk away. I find it fascinating that Jesus seemed okay with that.

A few weeks ago, during the Bread of Life Discourse, Jesus insisted, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." People walked away, but Jesus didn't offer to rephrase his teaching. A couple of weeks ago, Jesus had the tough talk about marriage. Some wanted to fall back on a divorce loophole instituted by Moses in ancient Israel, but Jesus was firm that no human being may separate what God has joined. Last week, Jesus' talk with the rich young man culminated with the good man choosing his own way over God's.

Today, the Catholic Church is Jesus' voice. Many people reject Church teachings just as 1st-century followers rejected Jesus' words. Many walked away then, many walk away now. As in Galilee, Jesus is not going to beg us to follow Him. He shows us the way and then leaves us to decide.

The Sisters of Life are a beautiful religious order who "vow to protect and enhance the sacredness of human life." Much of what they defend and protect is not popular today: the unborn, the disabled, the terminally ill, and the dying. They speak for Jesus, teaching us the value of life, and people walk away to support abortion, euthanasia and assisted suicide. The Fall issue of their beautiful magazine: "Imprint," speaks for Jesus on these hot-button issues.

Jesus wants all of those who walk away to accept his teaching and return to him. He was willing to sacrifice his life for us, but he will never sacrifice Truth.

Scripture: 1John 2:1-6. What words stand out to you here?

Call to Action: I have been working with the Sisters for many years, and they included my family's story in the fall issue entitled, "Who Am I?" There are a few copies in church, or download a digital copy at sistersoflife.org/resources.

Plan ahead and have peace of soul when you or your loved ones go home to the Lord.
