Are you in need of intercessory prayer and healing prayer?

The new Arise Prayer Ministry may be for you. A small team of trained parishioners will pray with you for whatever need you have: life struggles, temptations, family problems, grieving lost loved ones, emotional and physical healing, and so on. The team will call upon the Holy Spirit to intercede and bring his grace and light into your life and show you how the power of God changes things for the better.

BENEFIT OF INTERCESSORY PRAYER:

EILEEN DEPAOLI

I am terrified of talking in front of others. I get sweaty palms and break out in hives. I was due to give a talk at the Cornerstone retreat. I had worked on this talk for many months and was very well prepared with the help of the Cornerstone sisters running the retreat. On the day of the retreat, all my fears resurrected, and I found myself extremely nervous yet again to proceed. Just prior to stepping out in front of the ladies attending the retreat, I prayed with the prayer team. I can't express to you the feeling of calm that came over me. Instantly, I felt the Holy Spirit present with me. My nerves ceased and I knew for certain that my talk was meant to help someone in the room and that I was doing God's work. I was merely the mouthpiece and God would do everything else and I had nothing to fear. I felt loved and calm, and that calmness stayed with me throughout my thirty-minute talk. My voice didn't quiver, my palms didn't sweat, and I did not break out in hives! I felt incredibly uplifted by the experience and knew that the prayer team had helped fill me with the grace of the Holy Spirit. I thought I would feel out of place during the intercessory prayer, but I can honestly say it was an amazing experience. I will continue to reach out to the prayer team whenever life takes me in a direction where I feel overwhelmed and need God's love to infiltrate my soul and to guide me in the right direction.

PRAYER SESSIONS BEGINS

- November 21, after the 11 am Mass, and weekly thereafter. Our teams will be available for an hour and will get to as many people as possible.
- Starting November 15 and every third Monday of the month at Seasons of Praise after priests' talk.

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Someone once said, we will be judged not by what we still have when we die, but how much we have given away. There really is something to that.

Let's reflect this week on giving back to God. There are two big ideas to keep in mind:

First, in the Bible, God always expects from his people the "tithe." It's not too common for Catholics to think of giving a tithe, but it is a simple concept: the first 10% of our income goes back to him, and we live on the remaining 90%. It's a way of recognizing that everything we have and everything we acquire is a gift from God first. And we show gratitude and trust when we give back "the first fruits" of the harvest to God.

For the most part we aren't accustomed to thinking that way. National studies show Catholics give between 1-2% to charity, Protestants give about double that. Maybe start wherever we are and add 1% to our tithe each year. For example, if your family income is $75,000, and you're giving about $750 (1%), maybe you could go to 2% this year, and to 3% next year, and so on. That is how giving shows confidence in God. And we become holier as we acknowledge him and trust him to provide.

Take that idea and pray over it. As you do, remember God is never outdone in generosity – when we give, he brings his blessings on us in so many different ways.

The second major idea is the idea of sacrificial giving. As a habit, we tend to give what we have left over. Most times it really doesn't cost us anything and we hardly notice it. We'll buy a raffle ticket, a box of girl scout cookies, or leave a dollar in a homeless man's cup and never miss it.

But for our giving to be a real act of love, it has to be a sacrifice. That's the meaning of the story of the widow's mite, and how giving becomes an act of spiritual worship – we offer to God something that is precious to us, something valuable. In the Old Testament, God forbade the people from offering lambs with blemishes in the Temple – only the pure white lambs were worthy to be sacrificed.

St. Mother Theresa said love begins when giving starts to hurt. Do we give until we feel a little pain? Do we offer God the best or just the spare change?

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

at the turn of the century

TINA GRANT

The term Fr. Henry served at St. Lawrence from 1889-1896 was an exhilarating period of time. His vision rewarded St. Lawrence with a larger church, a beautiful cemetery and land for a future Catholic school. In March 1896, when Fr. Henry was transferred, Fr. Patrick J. Clancy became our Pastor.

Fr. Patrick Clancy

Fr. Clancy had served at St. Augustine's in Sing-Sing (now Ossining), at Assumption Parish in Peekskill, and Epiphany and Holy Rosary Parishes in New York City before St. Lawrence. Fr. Clancy served us three short years, from 1896 to 1899. He was born in the city and ordained at Troy Seminary. He brought to St. Lawrence a certain quietness and reflective spirit, which the parishioners reacted to in a similar way. Perhaps God placed him here to remind us of the importance of a good prayer life.

The newspaper articles during Fr. Clancy's time as Pastor, made little mention of St. Lawrence or Brewster. It was quiet. As I read the news articles from that era, I was amazed to see a back-to-school ad for the New York Store on Main Street. Many of us still remember that up-scale clothing store which existed on Main Street well into the 1960's.

Ad for The New York Store

Beginning in 1865, the County Fair took place off Fair Street in Carmel. A large building for exhibits was erected, and a half-mile racetrack was built. Livestock and produce were displayed by local farmers. Its racetrack held the bicycle and trotting contests, which occupied the attention of a great majority of those in attendance. I can imagine the fun that was had! In 1940, the racetrack held auto racing. Today it is the Fred Dill Wildlife Sanctuary. A small sample of how life was lived back then and how it changed with the times.

In May 1899, after clearing the small parish debt, Fr. Clancy was transferred to Immaculate Conception Church in Orange County and the Pastor there, Fr. Richard Burns, came to St. Lawrence.

Fr. Richard Burns

At the turn of the century, Brewster, as well as the Catholic population in the US grew tremendously. In 1900, the population of Brewster was 1,192. It had been only 176 in 1860. In 1900, the Catholic population in the US was 10 million, under the direction of 14 Archbishops, 77 bishops, and 12,000 priests. The Catholic Church had built 10,000 churches, of which two-thirds had resident pastors. Catholic schools educated nearly one million children and youth.

Fr. Richard Burns served us from the turn of the century through 1912. During this time, St. Lawrence and Brewster, as well as our nation, experienced many developments. Fr. Burns would lead us. Catholics would soon evolve from a small minority to a large minority.

A parishioner told me of some insight she had received from comparing two of the recent Sunday Gospel readings: the stories of the rich young man and the blind man Bartimaeus.

They each have important messages but are even richer when compared side by side.

An interesting point that you may have overlooked in Bartimaeus's story, is when he sprang up and came to Jesus, "he threw aside his cloak." That may seem like a trivial detail, but it is actually of great significance. A cloak was potentially a blind man's only possession. It not only kept him warm, but he would have laid it out on the ground to collect coins when he begged. By leaving it behind, he was confidently stating that he knew Jesus would cure him and the cloak and any coins he possessed were not important anymore.

In contrast, the rich young man was very attached to his possessions. Unlike Bartimaeus, he had been blessed with health and wealth, but ultimately it was a barrier to his relationship with Jesus. Jesus directly asked the man to, "Go, sell what you have and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." In spite of Jesus' personal invitation, rather than fulfill Jesus's request, the young man chose to retreat in sadness.

Conversely, Jesus never directly invited Bartimaeus to follow him. After healing his sight, Jesus tells him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you," but rather than going his own way, Bartimaeus immediately follows Jesus on his way.

When we read these two Scriptures and meditate on them, we are struck with different words or phrases that stand out. God lives in his words, so just as Jesus related to the rich young man and Bartimaeus differently, he is eager to instruct us personally too.

Scripture: Mark 10:17-22, 46-52. How would you compare/contrast these readings?

Call to Action: Read the Gospel before coming to church and meditate on the message. Do you notice any interesting parallels to other Scripture readings?

an election prayer to mary

O most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care and beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son.

Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life.

Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life.

Trusting in your most powerful intercession, we pray:
Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer us. Amen.

how i took the leap of faith

MELISSA NEVADOMSKI

Despite hearing John's gospel about the woman at the well each year - "You worship what you do not know" (John 4:22) - I had never really paid attention to that line before. Sitting in my regular pew during the year of "uncertain times," I realized unequivocally that Jesus was also speaking this line to me. I had become fixated on questions with answers I could not predict: What if my family got sick? What if I lost my job? I responded to my rising anxiety with increased caution, particularly in how we spent our money. Numbers felt controllable: We shifted our grocery shopping to a less expensive chain. We cancelled a summer trip to Vermont. We decreased our annual gift to our college alma mater. None of this quelled my anxious heart.

The word tithe comes from an Old English word meaning a "tenth part." It refers to the biblical exhortation to return to God ten percent of God's gifts. While there is no mention of tithing in the Christian scriptures, the Catechism of the Catholic Church expresses: "The faithful . . . have the duty of providing for the material needs of the church, each according to his abilities." This seems to indicate that there is no strict obligation for Catholics to tithe. However, many dioceses recommend contributing 5 percent of take-home pay to parishes and an additional 5 percent to other charities. Looking at my budget spreadsheet—a document that guides so many of our family's important decisions—I was keenly aware that we were doing neither. In fact, tithing (meaning the whole 10 percent) remains a fairly rare practice across many churches. Many Christians—and particularly Catholics—give far less.

I decided that, in a time of stockpiling resources, our family would take the pandemic as an opportunity to finally freely and (even) cheerfully tithe. I did know I wanted our church's dome—and the community that gathers beneath it every Sunday—to continue to stand as a beacon of hope for all the Catholics who find their way here after us. So now, every time my son drops our envelope in the basket, it feels like a small act of solidarity toward creating the future I hope to see.
