while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

There are good traditions like the one that encourages us at the end of the year to look back and give thanks to God for all the good that has been done and even the good that has somehow come out of the sorrowful things. Just to name a few:

Despite terrible losses, vaccines still saved the lives of many this past year, and we know we'll eventually be able to treat COVID as a manageable disease;

Our people are returning to Mass and our religious education program and CYO are returning to normal once again;

Confessions are offered at least six hours each week and are filling up as our people feel the need to get good with God and change bad habits;

The Adult Faith Formation programs are providing our people with high quality, state of the art spirituality and knowledge of our Catholic Faith;

The outreach program Alpha drew more than 150 people deeper into a relationship with the Lord this Fall;

Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament – around the clock, seven days a week – remains the bed-rock of our parish, with someone in the Chapel of Divine Mercy praying at every moment of the day and night. What a blessing on the parish!

Brewster Cares is again serving our local homeless brothers and sisters this winter, offering tutoring to struggling kids and literacy and English language skills to immigrants in our town, and generous donations have enabled us to enter this year stronger;

Our continuing partnership with St. Anthony of Padua in the South Bronx enriches both parish families. We've learned from their joyful, humble, spontaneous spirituality and love for the Holy Spirit;

Our Stephens Ministry is continuing to attend to our sick and homebound and those struggling with serious life crises;

The newly formed Arise Prayer Ministry lovingly prays along with those facing a wide variety of problems and struggles;

The Bereavement Ministry accompanies those who have lost loved ones and provides hope and healing even in grief;

Your generous support of our parishes makes all the good work, spiritual growth, and renewed hope we experience possible. Thank you for believing and trusting that what the Lord has put in your heart is a reality – that Jesus is truly with us, and that we can do all things in Him who strengthens us.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

for unto us a child is born

TINA GRANT

In the early 1900s newspaper articles at Christmas time, like today, contained articles focused on the most wonderful time of the year. I read of beautiful window displays on Main Street, children visiting Santa, church services, and advertisements. "For Her Merriest Christmas – the World's Champion Car!" The ad was for a Studebaker Commander at $1,400! There were ads for simpler gifts, such as handkerchiefs beginning at 5 cents!

In 1922, Christmas midnight Mass at St. Lawrence was carried out with full ceremonials. Eight hundred people attended. The usual Missa Cantata was sung by Fr. Phelan, the choir sang Adeste Fideles, Silent Night, and other favorites. The article gave full detail of how beautiful our church was decorated and the joy that emanated.

A newspaper article written in 1906 by Rev. Walter J. Yates, caught my eye.

"There was no place for them in the inn. It was a strange thing for the Lord of all worlds to make his bed in a manger. The wise men from the east sought Him in the place which seems most natural – in the palace of the king. But He was not there. There was nothing in that palace or the persons living there which was like Him. He was Prince of Peace, but peace never found a lodging place where Herod lived, and so Christ would find no home where such a king abode. He came to earth to save the poor in heart and bring victory to the lowliest of the human race. Why, then, should He find lodging anywhere other than among the lowly? Here was safety also. If born in the palace, He might have suffered the fate of some of the best of the king's sons, the very fate which Herod tried to inflict on Jesus when he ordered the slaughter of the babes of Bethlehem. He is safer far in the manger bed than in the king's arms.

"There is also a sign to us at the present time. To find the things of Christ, you must seek them not so much among the high and mighty of the world as among the lowly and meek. There are births for which the nations wait in eager expectancy, and which are heralded by roar of cannon and bonfires and celebrated by carousal and delirious joy. There are pomp and ceremony. But not in this case. He owns all. He made all. He comes to call all, but His kingdom is not like these others. Earth's wealth shall be poured out for Him as never for any other. He shall dwell among men as men never before saw monarch live. He shall claim and receive homage such as no other one ever did or shall receive. He shall come into His own and shall reign supreme, but not as the Herods and Caesars. The manger is His sign."

I often wondered why our King was born in the cold, among farm animals. I have since come to understand the significance of his birth. Jesus stepped down from heaven's riches to live among the poorest of the poor. Today, I look at the manger and think of humility. Jesus is a gift to everyone. As a result, we have become the richest of all people. He humbled himself – he was laid down where animals eat – and so it all began, the miracle that would be our salvation and our eternity in glory.

This Christmas Season, as I look forward to Jesus' birth, I will look upon the manger with a renewed awareness of that cold night over 2,000 years ago when there was no room in the inn, and our Savior was laid in a manger in a stable in the little town of Bethlehem.

TINA GRANT

On Wednesday, December 16, parishioners from St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart took a road trip to St. Edward's the Confessor in New Fairfield, CT. Chris Stefanick is an internationally acclaimed author, speaker, and television host who has devoted his life to inspiring people to live a bold, contagious faith. He authored the book Living Joy – Nine Rules to Help you Rediscover and Live Joy Every Day. Many of us were familiar with his book. We read it. Several months ago, we participated in his course offered at St. Lawrence beautifully spearheaded by Jo-Ann Adorno and Eric Ursprung. Now we were blessed to see Chris Stefanick in person.

Chris was embracing, energetic, funny, and real. He expressed the ways we can lose Joy only to find it again and keep it.

Jesus promised, "No one will take your joy from you" (John 16:22), because as Chris reminds us, "the world can't take what it didn't give you." Chris explains how an anchor is a symbol of hope. The choppy surface of the sea does not disturb an anchor. Hurricanes and tidal waves and persecutions and job loss and cancer cannot rob you of your hope when it is anchored in the Love that is God. "Joy isn't what happens when life goes perfectly. It is what happens when you know you are loved perfectly."

After he spoke, Chris took the time to talk to us. It was a great night spent with good friends and Chris Stefanick who reminded us Joy is not a fleeting moment, it is found when you "Set your mind on things that are above and not on earth." Colossians 3:2.

REBOOT!

Is the fun, inspiring and practical experience of applying the beauty and genius of the Gospel to every aspect of your life. From prayer and spirituality, to work, dating, marriage, parenting, health and more!

A PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH TO BRING LOVE TO YOUR OWN FAMILY

Heavenly Father, we ask You to bless our family. Open our hearts to receive Your love. May our home be another Nazareth, so that our family may be a place where Your peace and love abides.

Open our eyes to recognize the gift and beauty of life, so that we may find joy in Your presence among us.

Grant us pure hearts seeking holiness, generous hearts full of Your love, merciful hearts ready to forgive and tender hearts full of kindness.

May our family be a sanctuary of life and love, a beacon of hope drawing others to your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, Holy Family of Nazareth, pray for us.

I realized that Jesus is always patiently waiting for every one of us to return to Him. We come and go throughout our lives with hours or days or years passing, but that doesn't change Jesus' resolve to wait.

During the Christmas season, we can find Jesus waiting in the manger as a vulnerable newborn illuminating how far God is willing to go to prove his love for you and me. Jesus is patiently waiting in the confessional longing to forgive us for our sins. He is waiting in the hands of the priests and Eucharistic Ministers, hungering to nourish our souls with his body and blood. He waits in all the tabernacles and adoration chapels around the world for us to spend time with Him. Jesus is waiting to pour out his blessing on men and women through the Sacrament of Matrimony, giving them the graces to fully love one another until death. He is on call for us when we desire his blessings through the Sacraments of the Sick and Last Rites. Jesus is waiting on every crucifix to reveal to us the depth of his sacrifice and love.

Think how gratified we are when family and friends look forward to our visits. Now consider that the person who loves you most in the whole world is longing for you to visit Him too. And the perfect gifts He bestows are unlike any that mortal man can give: peace, hope, forgiveness, acceptance, and unconditional love.

Scripture: Read Isaiah 30:18-21. What stands out?

Call to Action: Make time this Christmas season to visit Jesus. Don't keep Him waiting any longer.

PATIENTLY WAITING

St. Lawrence O'Toole participated in the National Night of Prayer for Life by hosting a 13-hour prayer vigil in our church from Wednesday night to Thursday morning, December 8-9. The Blessed Sacrament was moved to the altar in the church and parishioners gathered, throughout the wee hours, praying for the most vulnerable in our society. I attended for two hours that night, then returned to continue my vigil in the morning.

When I walked back into the church Thursday morning and saw Jesus in the monstrance on the altar, it hit me that Jesus had been waiting for me to return. As I continued to meditate on that,
