while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

A word of thanks to all of you who persevered through a difficult year in 2021, marked by so much disease and social division. Thank you for keeping your faith in Jesus at the center – that is the rock-solid foundation for us all. He promised to be with us all days, so we never lose hope.

And thank you also for your gifts this Christmas and New Year – you always support our parish generously, and it is making possible the great programs our parishes accomplish.

We start the year with Omicron raging, but also with hope that symptoms in most cases are milder and that it may be short-lived. That's the hope we all have so lives get back to normal soon.

We'll be taking some prudent precautions with our religious education kids in Edge by moving to a hybrid model for a few weeks and hopefully, Omicrom will begin to fade out.

We have resolutions to keep in this New Year, and we all want to start growing again spiritually and humanly, so our parishes are on that now. We've got to get 2022 back to normal because the Gospel can't wait.

And some things are coming up fast:

1. Cardinal Dolan will join us for the 5:30 pm Mass Saturday, January 15 to close out our 150th Anniversary celebration. We'll have Mass and a reception in the gym to mark this historic occasion. All are invited – please reserve tickets online. Check the bulletin or our website for information.

2. The March for Life goes on. We'll be sponsoring a bus to take us to Washington DC to defend the sanctity of all human life. Join us on January 21 for a long day, but a hugely rewarding day advocating for life!

3. Great programs for enriching your faith are starting up this month... check out Transformed, Financial Peace and the bible study on the Letter to the Hebrews.

4. Dozens of our parishioners at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart are volunteering to help our local homeless at Brewster Cares homeless shelter. Check out the ad in the bulletin to see how you can do your part too.

And stay tuned – we're working on a plan to bring kids up from our sister parish and other parishes in the South Bronx for a great summer camp experience this coming summer.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

TRANSFORMED

How God Changes Us

Be transformed by the renewing of your mind . . .

ROMANS 12:2

Transformed will challenge you by exploring what the Bible has to say about every essential area of our lives: Spiritual, Physical, Mental, Emotional, Relational, Financial, and Vocational. The world is shouting for our attention with answers to our relationship struggles, solutions to our financial trouble, and explanations for our search for meaning. But the world's promises leave us empty and searching for more. God's Word is the only answer that promises to transform our lives from the inside out. Be Transformed together.

St. Lawrence Parochial School is now in process of construction on Eastview Avenue. Rev. Thomas J. Barry, Rector. Gustave E. Steinbeck, Architect. Kinkel and O'Brien Building Contractors.

fr. thomas j. barry

TINA GRANT

Fr. Thomas J. Barry born in New York City on November 16, 1884 succeeded Fr. Phelan. On May 25, 1907, Fr. Barry was ordained at St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie. He was assigned to St. Ann's and Blessed Sacrament both in Manhattan. In May 1924, Fr. Barry arrived at St. Lawrence.

Brewster was still struggling with the tragic fire of the Brewster Public School that burned to the ground in November 1923. The school was located where Garden Street School existed. The local churches volunteered the use of their halls to assist in the crisis until a new school was built. Fr. Barry remodeled our wooden church (moved to Eastview Avenue to make room for our stone church) for classroom use and loaned it to the town as well.

Growth was on the rise. In Brewster, houses were given numbers and street signs were placed. There was free mail delivery and voting machines arrived! Mallory Stephens became Brewster's State Assemblyman. Many will remember Willis Stephens, Mallory's son who followed in his father's footsteps! The Cameo Theatre on Main Street was showing Harold Lloyd The Freshman and Charles Chaplin in The Gold Rush. The Cameo Theatre remained popular into the 1970's. Tickets were $1.00 "all times." Those were the days! A number of us will remember the old-fashioned ticket booth and interior décor. Today the theatre is empty – a sign of the times. In nearby Carmel, a fire came close to bringing down the historic Putnam County Courthouse. In Mt. Kisco, Northern Westchester Hospital opened its doors and Bear Mountain Bridge opened.

Peach Lake made headlines! In June 1924, several picnickers climbed aboard two canoes for a relaxing ride on the serene lake. One of the individuals poked at what he thought was a log in the water to move it aside. It turned out to be an alligator, who upon being disturbed, swung his tail and opened his mouth. For a moment there was chaos. It turned out to be a pet alligator that had escaped from his owner who owned a bungalow on the lake. It was an event not to be forgotten!

In 1930 Cardinal Hayes appointed Fr. Barry to direct the annual appeal for Catholic Charities. In 1929 alone, 209,521 individuals were provided aid and service. It was a great undertaking which Fr. Barry gladly accepted.

The year 1931 was an important year for Brewster. The cornerstone for Brewster Public Library was laid, and it was blessed by Fr. Barry. The new railroad station opened to the cheers of the town and officials from NYC and Albany.

Fr. Barry's accomplishments were countless, and he was admired by all. Fr. Barry remembered Fr. Henry's dream of building St. Lawrence a parochial school and the generosity of Mary Enright Ferguson in purchasing the property behind our stone church for such a purpose. Undoubtedly, Fr. Barry would be most remembered for supervising the building of our parochial school, now our Parish Center. Our children learned academics and faith through daily instruction and learned experiences. The friendships made, as a result, would last a lifetime. As our history has unfolded at St. Lawrence O'Toole, we will recall why it was unique and remember those who made it special.

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

THE FAMILY BUSINESS

Recently, I started watching the Netflix sitcom Kim's Convenience. It is set in a Toronto convenience store owned by a Korean family. In one episode, the 20-year-old daughter didn't feel appreciated by her father and decided to get a job outside the family business. As you might imagine, conflict ensued, the grass wasn't greener, and all learned important lessons by the end.

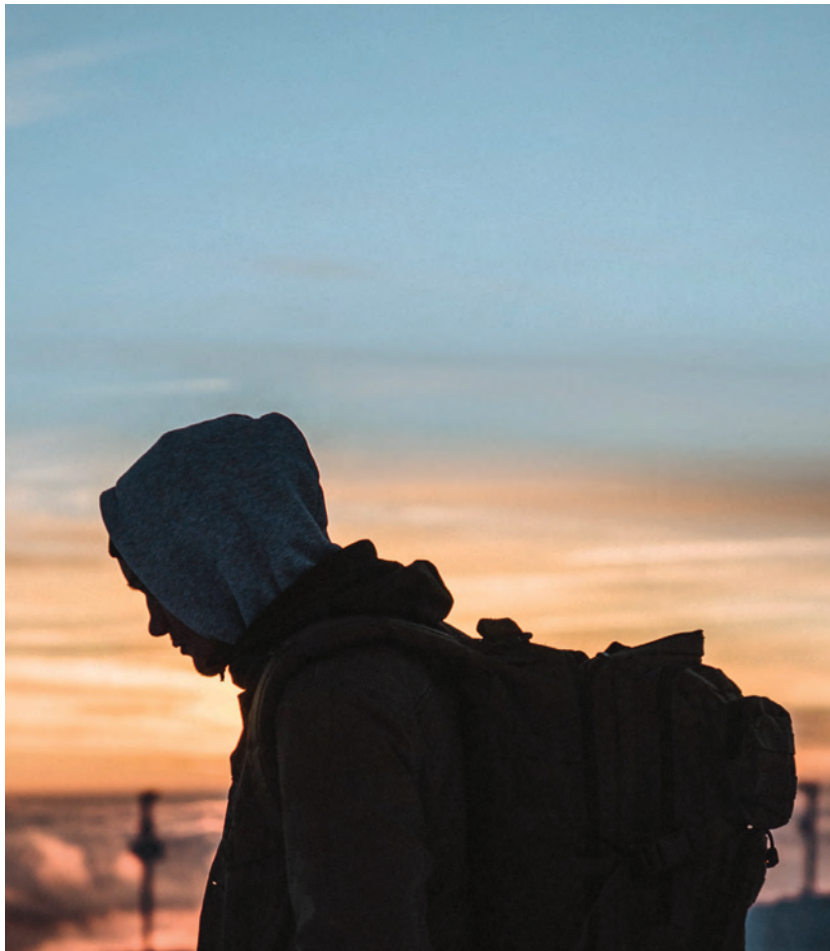

I imagine God's family business as the perfect blend of the largest multinational corporation and a local mom-and-pop establishment. The Father got the initial idea, then had the ingenuity, passion, creativity, and resources to bring the vision to reality.

He mentored his Son, brought Him in as Managing Director, and stepped back into the CEO role. They invited Mary into upper management to provide the feminine, motherly touch. The Holy Spirit is the inspiration and energy that flows from the relationship between the Father and the Son and ultimately powers the business.

As children of God, baptized into his family, we are all invited to fulfill a role in his family business – the Church. In fact, the Father created each of us for that expressed purpose. He infused us with unique talents, guided us through exclusive life experiences, and educated us in schools of higher education and hard knocks. Through the Holy Spirit, He is in constant communication, encouraging and inspiring each of us on how we can best serve Him. We can even view the Church as the first employee-owned corporation: the harder we work to make the business successful, the more benefits we all receive.

As with the daughter in the sitcom, we commonly rebel and believe the grass is greener outside the Church. But when we open ourselves up to the Truth, nothing can be more rewarding than living life as God designed it and aligning ourselves with Jesus' mission statement of making disciples of all nations.

Scripture: Read 1 Corinthians 12:26. What stands out?
Call to Action: Consider your gifts and talents, then ask God to reveal to you how you can best serve Him and his Church.
