cardinal dolan's words

TIMOTHY CARDINAL DOLAN

You know am not telling you anything startling, but you know what I think the reason for the vitality, the welcome, the evangelization, the deep spiritual, liturgical and sacramental life that you have here is due to the leadership of your pastor, Fr. Gill. So Father, I want to thank you for your leadership in the model of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. You're a Good Shepherd too. Thank you very much for all you do, and you're part of a great legacy here.

But the best of years is now and the best years are yet to come and he exudes that sense of hope and confidence. I know he is very effective here. In fact, Father, I don't know if you know this but your people have a petition out that they want to rename the town of Brewster "Gillsville." I don't know if we will be able to do that or not!

As I was coming in, Father showed me the Eucharistic Chapel and I am familiar with the many programs of catechists, and adult formation that you have. Of course, when we do that right, we put Jesus first, when we put learning, interiorizing our faith first. Well then everything else is going to work out, as it has for a century and a half. So keep up the good work and invite me back in 25 years for the 175th, alright!

Fr. Gill, I am the one who is grateful. And I am glad you gave me that snapshot of the vitality I see here at St. Lawrence O'Toole and Sacred Heart. Although I knew it already, I was going to say I mean it- Bishop Colacicco will back me up, you've become here at the parish, you have become a bit of a model for others, in doing the things with the priorities that your pastor mentioned and he has become a model for other priest of a creative pastor who puts his parish in ardor and has the focus always on Jesus and his sacrament and our vision with Him in prayer. So I thank this parish, you were gracious enough to thank me, I am the one who is grateful. It is good to be here and see the church so full. By the way there's a lot of people in the Hall. I walked through there on my way here, and there's a lot of people there too. I salute them. You better get over there before they eat the sandwiches and the beer.

I am grateful! Fr. Gill brags about you and the leadership he has and the committee, the collaboration that goes on in this parish, good staff that he has. So I thank you for that. I am glad to see our ever loyal Knights of Columbus and just praise Jesus Christ for the good work that goes here. And Father is right, we look to the past 150th Anniversary with gratitude, we look to the present, filled with joy, but we look to the future with a lot of confidence.

a grand finale of 150 years

TINA GRANT

In 1871, the first Mass was celebrated in St. Lawrence O’Toole’s wooden church. During 2021, we celebrated that first Mass and 150 years of continued faith. We held several momentous events including a Gala and a Heritage Weekend. Last Saturday evening at 5:30 pm, His Eminence Timothy Cardinal Dolan closed our celebration with a beautiful Mass at St. Lawrence O’Toole Church. Also officiating was His Excellency Gerardo Colacicco, Reverend Richard Gill and Deacon Mark Shkreli.

The frigid temperature of 3 degrees outside was in direct contrast to the warmth emanating within our church. The St. Lawrence O’Toole choir was in perfect form as the Knights escorted His Eminence into church. As Cardinal Dolan reached the altar, he turned to us, smiled, and said, “Out of all the many responsibilities I have, this is what I love most. . . to be with God’s people for Sunday Mass.” He immediately touched our hearts and the joy he manifested was evident.

Cardinal Dolan congratulated Jack Kristensen, a parishioner of St. Lawrence, who is studying to become a priest. He acknowledged Jack’s parents for the wonderful gift of their son. His Eminence announced how proud he was of us, reminded us we are part of both a 150 year legacy and a 2,000 year legacy joining Jesus’ disciples. He shared that he was well aware of the reputation

St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart had in welcoming people and said, “I love you very much and I am grateful for what you do for Jesus.” As he continued to thank us, he turned to Fr. Gill. “One of the reasons for your vitality, deep spirituality and evangelization is due to Fr. Gill, who is a model of a good Shepherd. The best is yet to come.” His Eminence preached on the “Wedding at Cana”, the Sunday Gospel that weekend, and what Jesus revealed in said Gospel: First, Jesus’s special love for married couples. Second, the power of Mary and our beautiful tradition of asking Mary to pray with us and for us. Third, Jesus’ ability to transform, reminding us God loves us just as we are but loves us so much he keeps working to make us better, and fourth, Jesus is the bridegroom and the Church is his bride – do not split them apart – they are one.

Cardinal Dolan concluded his homily in saying, “Jesus is an effective teacher – best we ever had.” The Mass was uplifting, and Cardinal Dolan’s words left us with much to ponder in our hearts. He was warm, embracing, and personal. He radiated faith. He remained humble as he thanked US for inviting HIM. A beautiful reception followed at which time Cardinal Dolan took the opportunity to speak with many of us. We left with private conversations and moments we will remember and cherish always. He has such an exuberant personality. I am not sure who was having more fun.

Our closing Anniversary Mass and reception was a perfect finale to our 150th Anniversary celebration and one more reminder of how truly blessed we are. Thank you again to our pioneer parishioners who broke ground 150 years ago and all those who followed. Thank you also to Cardinal Dolan for celebrating our Anniversary with us. We look forward to many anniversaries to come and our journey as Catholics.

words at the end of mass

FR. RICHARD GILL, PASTOR

January 15, 2022, Visit of Cardinal Dolan to St. Lawrence O'Toole on the Occasion of the 150th Anniversary of the First Church

Your Eminence, we thank you for celebrating the Mass for us today, and Bishop Gerry Colacicco our Episcopal Vicar, thank you for being with us today as well.

Your Eminence, high among your many accomplishments in your 12 years as our Archbishop the wonderful renovation of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

We too undertook a renovation of this parish church and were graced with your visit at our grand reopening in June of 2015.

Now we celebrate 150 years since the very first Mass in the original wood church in the Town of Brewster in 1871. Today we bring a year-long celebration of that anniversary to a close.

Our founders were pioneer Catholics who extended the Church from New York City in the early and mid-1800's up the train line from White Plains to St. Joseph's in Croton Falls in 1845 and St. Lawrence as a mission church in 1871, and a parish church in 1878... they were missionary disciples who overcame obstacles because the Eucharist was the center of their faith and their life.

It's been our lot to live in difficult times - when so many forces seem to be arrayed against our Catholic Faith. The natural temptation is to just hunker down and wait for better times. But we are conscious that our baptismal mission is not just to maintain what we have, but to evangelize. To pass on our faith to future generations and make it grow. That's the spirit that animates our parishioners.

And that starts with prayer and especially the Eucharist, the "source and summit" of the Catholic faith. Six years ago we set as our goal to power every initiative with Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and we are proud to report we now have 24/7 Adoration. Hundreds of parishioners spend an hour each week before the Blessed Sacrament, praying for our people and for the whole Church. That is the heart of St. Lawrence O'Toole parish.

And conscious that nothing lasting happens without people reconciled to God, we offer Confession from 4 pm-7 pm every Monday and Friday.

We renovated our closed-down school and turned it into a thriving PreK program and a Parish Center to offer the best Adult Faith Formation and Youth Ministry Programs. The Center is used day and night to form missionary disciples committed to living the Faith and transmitting it to others, and inviting those away from the faith to come home.

We boldly market the faith, challenging people to join us by means of Cable TV ads, on social media and even old-fashioned billboards. We are constantly running outreach programs like Alpha to create a culture of evangelization.

We're conscious of the social Gospel as well and convinced that our commitment to the poor will also be a place of encounters for those who are searching for the truth. So we started Brewster Cares as an outreach to the poor, with tutoring for kids affected by Covid and summer camps for kids from parishes in the South Bronx. We offer ESL courses and Literacy for immigrant adults. Brewster Cares also runs a homeless shelter in winter to care for the forgotten homeless in our area.

Your Eminence, years ago you chose as your Episcopal motto "Ad Quem Ibimus..." from the 6th Chapter of St. John's Gospel...

Our parishioners are very familiar with that verse because we talk about it a lot... turning point in the Gospel where Jesus insists on the necessity of believing in the Eucharist as his true Body and Blood. And the crowd scoffs and mocks him for insisting that they must eat his Body and drink his Blood. As the crowd abandons faith in Him and walks away, he turns to the nervous apostles and challenges them too. "Will you also go away?" To which Peter haltingly answers, "Ad Quem Ibimus - Lord, to Whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, and we have come to know and to believe that you are the Christ, the Holy One of God!"

That is the turning point in the Gospel of John not only because it reveals the truth of the Eucharist but also because it marks the moment in which the disciples must definitively choose Christ over popularity, over pleasing a crowd, over conforming to public opinion. The choice to follow Jesus is following him wherever he goes, whatever the consequences.

Your Eminence, that is the kind of Catholic this parish is committed to forming. A parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with him also.

On this 150th anniversary of our foundation, I envision a future 150 years from now... in which the Catholics of Brewster will be even more committed to the truth of the Catholic Faith and more in love with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. We understand that we are an essential link in the chain beginning with those pioneer Catholics in 1871 and extending out to those who will come after us.

Thank you for your leadership and your support, and we pledge our love and respect to you as the Spiritual Father and Faithful Shepherd. We pray for you, and we ask God to make you strong in your mission as our leader and guide.

HEAVEN'S CURRENCY

Over the last two weeks, we have been reflecting on Christian economics - God's family business and the divine economy. I recently read a reflection by Servant of God Dorothy Day that brings clarity to another of God's economic currencies: suffering.

She wrote, "Compassion - it is a word meaning 'to suffer with.' If we all carry a little of the burden, it will be lightened. If we share in the suffering of the world, then some will not have to endure so heavy an affliction. It evens out. What you do here in New York... helps those in China, India, South Africa, Europe, and Russia, as well as in the oasis where you are. You may think you are alone. But we are members one of another. We are children of God together..."

It can be difficult to see how we might be connected to people that we have never met from Buffalo, say nothing about those on the other side of the globe. We might imagine that the only way we can impact their lives is to donate money directly to missionary projects in their region. But our Father designed a world that is intricately connected in ways our human eyes do not see. I like to envision it as another frequency, like radio waves, that begin at a source and travel out to unknown destinations. Just as disc jockeys broadcast with no idea how many people are listening, our compassion, generated through prayer and good works to the people we know, is far more fruitful than we can imagine. It rushes far beyond the world we see, traveling to God's network of souls, refreshing and comforting our unknown sisters and brothers in ways we will never know until we meet them one day in Heaven.

Dorothy Day went on to say, "In patience you will possess your souls. Patience means suffering and suffering is spiritual work, and it is accomplishing something, though we don't realize it until later. It is part of our education, our pilgrimage to heaven. By it we keep in mind that all the way to heaven is heaven."

Scripture: Read Galatians 6:2. What stands out?
