while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

Bunch of business this week:

Every year we go through Lent and by now maybe we feel we make some progress, but not enough.

That's the way I feel about my own Lenten practices... I never muster up the courage to really go all the way. Maybe you feel the same way, so here are eight suggestions you can use to make sure you arrive at Easter holier.

1. Confession: It's a must for a solid spiritual life... any Monday or Friday from 4:00 to 7:00 pm.
2. Take fasting seriously. The Church invites us to fast just Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. But you can do more... how about a fast day each Friday?
3. Daily Mass: probably you can't make it every day, but once or twice a week? 8:30 am Monday to Friday.
4. Stations of the Cross: Fridays at 6:15 pm St. Lawrence, and 7:30 pm at Sacred Heart. Traditional devotion never fails.
5. Seasons of Praise Holy Hour: Every Monday at 7:00 pm different priests will be preaching it. Your life changes when you spend time before the Blessed Sacrament. It's pretty simple.
6. Daily prayer: essential... dive into the Gospels for ten minutes a day. You'll get to know Christ in a personal way.
7. The Rosary: Mary never fails. Devotion to her is a pillar of every solid spiritual life.
8. Is there a computer app that can make this all easier? Yup – it's called Hallow. Give it a try.

Lent is all about getting on the path of deep spiritual renewal, of turning from sin and toward God.

Let's make it our best Lent ever.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

the first knights to today

TINA GRANT

In 1882, the Knights of Columbus was founded by Fr. Michael J. McGivney, assistant pastor at St. Mary's Parish in New Haven, CT.

In the late 19th century, Connecticut was facing growing fraternal benefit societies, anti-Catholic prejudice and dangerous factory working conditions that left many families fatherless. Fr. McGivney saw what could happen to a family when the main income earner died. He wanted to provide insurance to care for the widows and orphans left behind. He established the Knights of Columbus to help prevent Catholic men from entering secret societies antithetical to Church teaching, uniting Catholic men, and helping families of deceased members. The Knights chose Christopher Columbus as their patron. The Knights expanded beyond Connecticut and the United States. They provided relief to soldiers in wars throughout the 20th century and fought anti-Catholic and racial prejudice. Today, the Knights advocate for Catholic causes and operate the shrine to Pope John Paul II in Washington, D.C.

The St. Lawrence Council #1495 of the Knights of Columbus was chartered on June 12, 1910. Over two hundred Knights from New York state arrived in Brewster to commemorate the joyous occasion. Fr. Thomas P. Phelan, our Pastor at the time, became the Chaplain for the Knights and later, Chaplain for the NY Council. In 1922, the Council purchased what was once referred to as the "Walter Brewster House" located on Oak Street, for their meetings. In 1982, the house was sold to the Landmarks Preservation Society. Thereafter, the Council met in several locations until 1999 when the Knights renovated a room on the second floor of our Parish Center, where they remain today.

In April 1961, the Knights held a communion breakfast at the Hollywood Café (Sciortino's/Bull & Barrel) where 150 members of the Knights, Catholic Daughters, guests, and Pastor Fr. Edward A. McCabe were present. Fr. George McKinney, Chaplain of Sing Sing was the guest speaker. He shared that many of the people who land in prison are a result of lack of supervision during their young days. He thanked the Knights and Catholic Daughters for being a fine example for young people, to guide them in a better direction.

At St. Lawrence, the Knights' fundraising efforts have helped to provide a bus to Washington DC to enable parishioners to attend the March for Life, donate funds for ultrasound machines and sponsor a RIGHT TO LIFE billboard on I-84. The Knights' generosity assisted in our church's recent renovation including the Adoration Chapel. The Knights promote life and vocations by sponsoring seminarians at St. Joseph's, and support more than two dozen other charities. They support our parishes financially and spiritually, being an integral part of our Corpus Christi procession and other parish events.

In 1911, the Knights were led by their first Grand Knight, Joseph A. Toy. The present Grand Knight is Tom Healy. My Dad was a Grand Knight. I remember their deep faith and charity toward their neighbor. The Knights put God and charity first. Their faith and charity could not have been more powerful than when fellow parishioner and past Grand Knight Michael Brady was terminally ill in 2021. As Mike faced his cross, the Knights visited him often and prayed with him. They remained devoted to their brother to the very end, as they remain devoted to their faith.

Our church has a beautiful history. Within that history are men and women, priests and deacons and organizations that make a difference. The Knights of Columbus are an integral part of that history.

pastoral visit

How blessed we were to have Bishop Colacicco visit our parish last Sunday. The pews were filled with the faithful, anxious to see and hear the words of our Bishop who serves as the Episcopal Vicar of the northern counties in the Archdiocese. Bishop Colacicco and Fr. Richard celebrated the 11 a.m. Mass at St. Lawrence assisted by Deacon Mark.

A soft-spoken man, Bishop Colacicco expressed his gratitude to Fr. Richard for the invitation to visit St. Lawrence and learn about all the amazing ministries going on in our parish. He commented on the beauty of our church that exemplifies the love, reverence, and faith that is alive here. There was a kindness and compassion about him that held us riveted on his every word.

As we enter the season of Lent, the Bishop's homily focused on the message of the scripture readings. From Sirach, we were reminded about the importance of our words. Perhaps we will consider giving up some form of our speech that keeps our hearts from being one with the heart of Jesus. Seeing the splinter in our brother's eyes, yet not seeing the plank in our own should help lead us to a deeper examination of conscience during Lent. Thankfully, we have many hours available to us each week for Confession. He also shared a heartwarming story of the time he spent learning from his grandfather as he tended to a fig tree year after year, relating this to the good tree that bears good fruit.

After Mass, Bishop Colacicco greeted parishioners in the gym as folks also enjoyed coffee and donuts. Before his departure, the Bishop shared a meal with the staff and leadership team from the parish. He thoroughly enjoyed learning about the life of our parish through a video presentation that brought to life all the various ministries in our parish. The Bishop was pleased to learn about our 24-hour adoration chapel and firmly believes that God's blessings, particularly vocations to the priesthood, are always realized in churches that embrace Eucharistic Adoration. Finally, he reminded us that we have an incredible pastor whose vision and creativity continue to yield good fruit in the form of intentional disciples.

CHOICE TEACHERS

Luke's telling of Jesus' Sermon on the Plain has so many rich messages to ponder. One that stands out to me is, "No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher."

It is interesting to think we can never be better than our teachers. I have heard a similar message: If your mentor is very good, the best you can be is good or very good – never excellent. If your mentor is good, the best you can be is fair or good, never better.

It is interesting too that Jesus says that fully trained disciples will be "like their teacher." He doesn't say they will be as wise or learned as their teachers. That tells me that we become like our teachers in more ways than the knowledge we accumulate from them. We acquire their style of speech, their mannerisms, types of relationships, level of generosity, and so forth.

Therefore, Jesus is telling us that it is important to choose our teachers carefully. In today's society, we are learning not only from academic and vocational instructors, but also from authors, newscasters, bloggers, coaches, and social influencers. Think of the people you might consider to be your teachers. Do you want to be like him/her? Do you have an unethical boss? How is that changing you? Do you consistently listen to a political podcaster? Are you starting to sound like him?

Jesus' first disciples not only learned his wisdom and knowledge, but by eating, drinking, walking, talking, laughing and crying with Him, his ways became their ways. As disciples today, we must do the same. We must seek out and accept only the most choice teachers and follow them closely. Instructors that are disciples of Jesus Christ, who are striving themselves to be like their teacher.

Scripture: Read Luke 6:40. What stands out?

Call to Action: Consider: Who are your teachers?

How are you becoming like them? Is that a good thing?
