while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

We've all had our attention fixed on the horrible war by Russia on the Ukraine and have watched the wanton destruction and disregard for innocent human life. This is what war is, and why our popes have repeatedly promoted negotiation and peace. "War never again" was the plea of Pope Paul VI. And the world ignored him, bent on the lust for power and control.

But facing reality, we Christians live in the world we have inherited and the international order that exists. We are "in the world, but not of the world." We're salt of the earth and the light of the world according to Jesus. So we must act – as Christians we cannot stay aside and say it is someone else's problem.

We're taking action at Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence now. Next weekend we mobilize to help. Volunteers are needed...

We've identified two good charities where the help we give goes directly to where it's needed and it's not skimmed off by some bureaucracy in Washington. There are two ways to give, outlined here in the bulletin:

1. You can give money in the second collection next weekend. That will go to Knights of Malta relief efforts inside the war-ravaged areas of Ukraine. They have boots on the ground and are totally Catholic, but help everyone.

2. You can drop off essential items (see the list) Saturday or Sunday. These will be packed like "care packages" for refugees inside Poland who are being assisted by a Polish charity some of our parishioners know well and vouch for.

Be as generous as you can. Pray for peace and for the conversion of Russia and Vladimir Putin.

Other stuff to do:

•The Synod: it's next Saturday, the 26th at St. Columba in Hopewell Junction from 9:30 to 12:30. Go and give your input to our bishops on the state of the Church and how we can do a better job reaching out. Pope Francis wants your input!

•The best thing for the rest of Lent: Seasons of Praise Holy Hour at 7:00 pm every Monday night in the Church. Tomorrow Fr. Jon Tveit from St. James will be with us to direct it.

•This Sunday, the 20th at 12:30 pm, Fr. Tom Berg will present his new book in the Large Conference Room of the Parish Center with a book signing. Be the first kid on your block with an autographed copy of the fascinating Choosing Forgiveness!

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

arise prayer

LORETTA LESTRANGE

As we approach this Lenten season with the theme of Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Healing, consider coming to the Arise Healing Prayer Team for prayer.

Our teams can offer prayers for you for healing in your relationships, for old wounds, and for the grace to want to forgive. We also can pray for you for healing in a physical way. There have been some good stories of healing and consolations received by our recipients of prayer.

Encounter the wonder of God through the power of the Holy Spirit. Members of our Arise Prayer Teams will be available to join you in prayer each Monday during Lent at Seasons of Praise, after the priest's talk. Come and ask the Lord for what you need.

May you receive many blessings and grace this Lent.

Rev. Richard Gill, Pastor
Church of St. Lawrence O'Toole
31 Prospect Street
Brewster, New York

Dear Father Gill, Richard

Where do I begin to express my deep gratitude for such a memorable and impressive pastoral visit of your parish this past Sunday! Your gracious hospitality, the kindness of your parishioners and staff, the delicious (gluten free) lunch and your generous stipend are all greatly appreciated.

The presentation by your staff and leadership team was so impressive. The fact that you went out of your way to prepare that video for me was beyond my expectation. It was so evident that your pastoral leadership is greatly appreciated by your people and that they are daily inspired by your Priestly heart. I was so impressed.

Thank you for such an enjoyable visit. Please extend my gratitude to all who were involved in every aspect of the day.

Know that you all remain in my grateful prayers. In your goodness, please offer an Ave for me. Have a grace filled Lenten Season. God bless you.

With prayerful best wishes, I am

Fraternally Yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Gerardo J. Colacicco
Auxiliary Bishop of the St. Lawrence O'Toole's Respect Life Committee is a ministry to educate about and advocate for the dignity of all people, including women, men, children, pre-born infants and the elderly. Every person is created and called by God to live an abundant life with Him and for Him. The members of the Respect Life committee feel a deep and important call from God to help people who do not understand or believe in their own dignity and to protect them from exploitation, whether that exploitation comes in the form of economic, cultural or political pressure.

SELF-DIAGNOSTICS

Jesus says, "A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." Last week, we reflected on how we can recognize the health of another person's soul by the words they use. We must be mindful that the same goes for us.

Our words have power. They not only reveal who we are, but hint at who we are becoming. Peter Kreeft says, "Speech not only reveals the soul; it also conditions the soul. The more you say something, the more you believe it. The more you praise something, the more you love it. The more you rail against something, the more you condition yourself to hate it. A constant habit of coarse or insulting speech makes your soul more and more coarse and insulting. Talking about yourself all the time makes you more selfish, not less. Constantly criticizing others does not make you less critical and angry, like "letting off steam" in a radiator, but exactly the opposite: it digs a rut in your soul. Whatever you do or say makes it easier to do it or say it again and the easier it is to say it, the easier it is to do it."

For most of us, evil speech may develop over time, building slowly and steadily upon past behavior and therefore be obscured from us in routine interactions. But the health of our souls is invisibly following a parallel path with our speech. Jesus' teaching instructs us to self-diagnose by listening to our words. If our speech reveals us to be impatient, unkind, insensitive, selfish, greedy, prejudice, or judgmental, then we must admit that it comes out of the store of our heart. Waking up to this truth is the first step to healing our souls. Remaining awake is the life-long treatment plan.

Scripture: Read Luke 6:45. What stands out?

Call to Action: Listen carefully to what you say and work to reform your speech to represent a heart filled with goodness.
