while we're at it

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

Dear Friends,

With Easter finally arriving, we welcome all the visitors in town to connect with relatives, and we welcome those coming back gradually post-COVID, and all those who for various reasons have been away and are making their way back. You're all part of this great family of God and we love you and want you to be a part of this awesome parish. Our slogan goes, "Maybe you're one of us" – but I'm sure from the point of view of God our Father, you already are one of us. A Blessed Easter to all your families!

With so many things to be anxious about – war in Europe, inflation, economic uncertainty, a possible return of covid, increasing crime and a host of social problems our families face, it's easy to be discouraged and worried about the future. But one thing the Resurrection of Jesus teaches us is that he has human history and our common future in his hands. And he is Risen, never to die again. If we put our hope and trust in Him, we will overcome every crisis.

Next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday, and we will celebrate that constant and unbreakable love of Jesus with a special Holy Hour Sunday afternoon at 3:00 pm, and pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. There will be Confessions available too, so bring your loved ones to experience how this love of the Heart of Jesus can bring you peace of soul.

It seems this Lent many people became convicted that they need to get closer to God with a better prayer life – that is a great sign that we are hungering for a deeper contact with the One who gives our lives meaning and purpose. So we're starting a program called Walking to Eternity, with Jeff Cavins directing it. It will teach you how to pray with the Scriptures and bring you to a new level.

We're also offering people the opportunity to spend an hour weekly in the Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel. That hour will be the hour you will look forward to each week, when you are directly in front of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It is where you can bring your worries and needs, and say quietly, "Jesus, I trust in You," and experience the peace of the Risen Lord.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

become an adorer in our Divine Mercy Chapel

Eucharistic Adoration is when we come to adore Jesus Christ, truly present under the appearance of bread in the Holy Eucharist. Adoration is an extension of the Mass.

Each adorer commits to being a critical link in an unbroken chain of love offered to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament whereby the parish enthrones Him King by giving Him the honor and glory due His name through Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. By means of perpetual Adoration the community gives great honor and glory to the Lord because, "worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, riches, wisdom, strength, honor, glory and blessing (Rev. 5:12) and to be incessantly adored for all that he has done for our salvation." (cf Rev. 5:9)

The chapel of perpetual Adoration becomes an oasis of peace where people go to gain new strength according to the call, "Come to me all you who labor and are overburdened and I will give you rest." "Be still and know I am God." (Ps 46:11)

During your holy hour, "you are presenting to Christ all those who do not know Him or are far from Him. You keep watch in His Presence on their behalf," bringing down upon these souls in most need of God's mercy the Precious Blood of the Lamb to obtain their conversion so they go to Heaven to be with God for all eternity.

(Eucharist: Sacrament to Be Adored, by John Paul II, L'Osservatore Romano 26 June 1996)

Walking Toward Eternity is an inspiring series designed to help us live our faith more fully. Through daily prayerful meditation with Scripture (lectio divina), you will be drawn into an intimate and life-changing encounter with Christ.

This study shows how to put our Catholic faith into practice through prayer and action. The result is real, often-profound change as we begin living as God intended us to.

TINA GRANT

On Palm Sunday, we listened to Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem with the waving of palm branches. The bible tells us that people cut branches from palm trees, laid them across Jesus' path and waved them in the air as he entered Jerusalem the week before his death. They shouted, "Hosanna" (meaning "save now"), blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord." Palms are majestic, tall trees that grow abundantly in the Holy Land. Their long and large leaves spread out from the top of a single trunk that can grow to more than 50 feet in height. In Bible times, the finest specimens grew at Jericho and along the banks of the Jordan.

In Kidz Chapel, the children listened to the Gospel. Following their lesson, the children glued the outline of hands to long popsicle sticks that became waving palm branches. They were also given small palm crosses. As the children re-entered the church, they smiled as they waved their palm branches walking down the center aisle to their seats, a beautiful reminder of how the people welcomed Jesus with palm branches.

February 1st prize: Lois Aiello, selected the cash (sold by Chris Crozier)

March 1st prize: Barbara Pember, selected the cash (sold by Alan Patrie)

Runner-up prizes were won by Peg Rozzi, Kathy Muentener, and Nora Bisignano

Thank you again for your support of this long running K of C fund raiser dedicated to charity!

We drive by tree farms and see delicate saplings stabilized by ropes and stakes. Farmers know that winds and unpredictable elements can knock over young trees stunting or even destroying them. In this we can see our parents, extended family, teachers, and mentors that help to protect us from the elements of the world that can stunt or destroy our faith.

As adults, we choose the soil in which we spread our roots. We may not be able to control the outside elements, but we can continue to fortify ourselves from the inside with God's Word, prayer, and the sacraments. We move forward through our lives by constantly setting goals for ourselves for our education, family, career, and lifestyle. Sometimes they stagnate, and we have to revise our plans but focus and fortitude keeps us thriving and hopeful.

The same goes for our faith. If you envision your faith as a plant today, how big is it? Is it growing steadily? Do you have a vision of what you want to achieve and a plan to achieve it? At St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart, we are a community of people striving to grow closer to Jesus, strengthening and walking with each other. Let us help your faith grow to its full beauty and maturity.

Scripture: Read Matthew 13:3-9. What stands out?

Call to Action: Our churches are made up of parishioners of all ages and interests. You belong here. Join us!

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

GROWING FAITH

I have heard it said that our relationship with God starts out as a seed that, when watered and fertilized by prayer, sacrifice, and the sacraments, will grow into a fully grown bush or tree. That analogy should cause us to stop and meditate on the maturity of our relationship with Jesus. What kind of plant am I; how well have I tended it; is it still growing?

Our seeds of faith can dry up early if we do not have a community of people to nurture us. Just as seeds in fertile soil will shoot up strong and straight, our faith life flourishes when we are immersed in a faithful environment.
