Creating a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with him. They are people of prayer and devotion to the Eucharist, whose Christian joy is a fruit of their relationship with Jesus.

Each one is committed to make our parish a place to encounter Christ for those who don't know Him. Their consciences are formed in the light of the Gospel and the teachings of the Church.

while we're at it

Dear Friends,

God is good – He blessed our efforts with nearly 750 people attending the Chris Stefanick event at St. Joe's in Somers. About 325 were from here. And we are proud to have worked with five other parishes to make a huge event happen to benefit the mission.

The REBOOT! Your Faith night reinforced our parish vision of creating missionary disciples – a vision that unites different initiatives and programs. Check the graphic of our vision statement on the next page...

For too long many parishes have been stuck in maintenance mode – just offering Sunday Mass and getting young people through their sacraments, but offering little more. But the sacraments are there to nourish our relationship with Jesus and make us stronger in our faith. Then the Holy Spirit sends us out as “local missionaries” to people who need God.

Parishes can feel helpless to fight the culture or the challenges posed by secularism bringing weaker religious participation and declining numbers. But that's why our parish should be like a missionary outpost and not just do the same things over and over, but be creative for our times. Many of those activities from the past have to adapt to meet the new situation we face.

Pope St. John Paul II was fond of saying the Church today needs “a new fervor, new expressions, and new methods.” He was right – we're not in the 1950s or 1960s anymore when everyone went to Church and obeyed the rules. What worked then won't work now.

The different activities and groups in our parish – Knights of Columbus, Franciscans, Catholic Daughters – all embrace that vision and support the parish vision. We have restructured everything in our parish from Early Childhood Center, Brewster Cares, Adult Faith Formation, to Religious Education, even to camps and Vacation Bible School – to accomplish this vision. We created a leadership team and a staff that is passionate about being missionaries to Brewster and Patterson. We're all going in the same direction with the same goals. We're on our way to becoming “a parish of missionary disciples.” And you're invited to join in that mission. Get involved in a small group, sign up to volunteer, take an adult faith formation course – there are plenty of ways to get started at our place.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Don't forget – Ascension Thursday this week is a holy day of obligation. Masses at 6:30 pm, 7:30 pm Wednesday evening, and 8:30 am, noon, and 6:30 pm Thursday. See you there!

a light to the nations

St Joseph's Church, Somers, graciously hosted REBOOT! an evening with Chris Stefanick, and what a joyful celebration it was! Chris made us remember our identity as sons and daughters of an awesome God! We remembered our dignity as being loved into being and being made in His own Image and Likeness! We are formed like no other creature on this earth, with a soul which is meant to live forever basking in the Beauty of Our Creator! Our lifetimes are given to us as pure gift and this awesome God calls us, journeys with us, and is at every moment of our lives looking with deep love at us longing for our love and "Fiat": "Thy will be done!" in return. We were reminded that we are totally surrounded with His awesome gifts every moment of our lives! This great God, this awesome God, has created and given all freely, and generously to us! And yet this generous, loving, merciful God... waits for us! Waits for us to visit Him in Adoration; waits for us to come receive Him in Holy Communion; to come and feel the refreshing balm of His forgiveness in Confession! Come! Come! Christ makes all things new, and we are made for Him! We are wired for His perfect love and perfect unity with Him alone. Jesus himself said:

He wants everyone of us to "share my joy completely!" (Jn 17:13)

"Father, they are your gift to me! (Jn 17:24)

"I wish that where I am, they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world. (Jn 17:24)

"That the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them." (Jn 17:26)

It seems perfectly fitting that Chris, whose name means "Christ-Bearer," reminds us of this awesome, joyful, good news!

It was an incredibly special evening! Having these parish families come together with our beloved priests for such a beautiful celebration of our faith was truly awesome. Thank you! Thanks to everyone who made this evening together possible Chris reminded us we need each other we're all better together! My young teen daughter thoroughly enjoyed herself, as did her friends who attended. We all had a chance to laugh, and cry, and see ourselves as we really are in his many stories and know that it's all ok, because we have a God who loves us at all times and in all places, and in the end, loves us so much He wants to spend every moment of eternity with us and that's awesome!

"I loved Chris Stefanick's energy and charisma. Everyone could see how much joy and happiness he had, and it really made me want to practice those things in my own life." -Pearl Goodman

SOARING FAITH

A few years back, I waited with hundreds of travelers in JFK Airport’s security line. I was struck by the vision of humanity there. It appeared that all ages, races, religions, nationalities and socioeconomic statuses surrounded me. The Universal Catholic Church represents a slice of God’s people too. All are welcome, and our churches are present in nations all over the world. Brewster and Patterson are not international hubs, but St. Lawrence/Sacred Heart are made up of a diverse population of parishioners from different backgrounds with different interests, talents and ambitions. Individually we enrich the whole.

Last week at REBOOT, Chris Stefanick taught us that Sequoia trees, the most massive trees on earth, have very shallow roots. They do not grow deep, they grow wide, encircling neighboring roots which stabilizes all of them against storms and destructive elements. As disciples, we want to follow the same model. Rather than digging our roots deep into our earthly life, the most effective way of soaring to heaven is to spread our roots wide with one another. Connecting with each other fortifies us and helps us withstand the evil elements that want to destroy our relationship with our heavenly Father.

Christianity was designed to be lived as a community. History shows us that the early Christians were effective at growing in faith and sharing it with others. They joined together in love as a community, taught each other, prayed together, lived life together, and served others. That lifestyle attracted the attention of outsiders; communities grew, and the Gospel spread to all corners of the earth. We can do the same within Brewster and our spheres of influence.

But not alone. We have a community of small groups and ministries filled with parishioners who want to welcome you into their fold. They will stabilize you and you them. Join us.

Scripture: Read Acts 2:42-47. What stands out?

Call to Action: Pray for God to guide you to a group or ministry that will help you grow strong and tall in your faith. Let’s get you connected! Email: slotlynda@gmail.com
