Come Holy Spirit, come!

Creating a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with him. They are people of prayer and devotion to the Eucharist, whose Christian joy is a fruit of their relationship with Jesus.

Each one is committed to make our parish a place to encounter Christ for those who don't know Him. Their consciences are formed in the light of the Gospel and the teachings of the Church.

while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Today we bring the Easter season to a close with the celebration of Pentecost Sunday, when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and Mary and everything changed. The Apostles went from being an uncertain group of cowards to a dynamic band of brothers who would fearlessly bring the Gospel to the ends of the earth. The Holy Spirit gave them wisdom and courage and that passion to make sure every single soul had an opportunity to know Jesus.

The Holy Spirit works the same way today if we allow him to do so. He sets his Church on fire with love for Christ and the zeal to bring every person into a relationship with Jesus the Redeemer. If we open up to the Holy Spirit's influence and grace, we will spread the Gospel far and wide. We call that evangelization and it is what makes the Church so essential.

But the Holy Spirit doesn't only work promoting the missionary work of the Church. He also inspires and enlightens each of us on the individual level to understand what Jesus taught, and to put it into practice in our personal lives.

Maybe we need to pray more to the Holy Spirit when we are trying to discern what God wants us to do. He will give us light and lead us to the truth – always. And that is the truth that Jesus told us “will set us free.” Free from the lies of the world around us and the self-deception and rationalization, we're so good at. The Holy Spirit leads us to the truth about Jesus.

The next few weeks are filled with the great feasts of our faith – Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christi, the Feast of the Sacred Heart, and the Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul.

On Corpus Christi, June 19, we'll have our procession with the Blessed Sacrament from the train station up to the Church and then Benediction. Bring your family for this beautiful celebration of our faith in Jesus' true Body and Blood. Then we begin 40 hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament to honor Jesus's greatest gift to us. Save the date!

God bless,

Fr. Richard

the search

JUDY CALLAHAN
ST. LAWRENCE O'TOOLE

If you saw Chris Stefanik at St. Joseph's a few weeks ago, you know firsthand what a dynamic speaker he is. What really brings his words to life is his Catholic faith. The Search, a seven-part series from the Augustine Institute which Chris narrates, recently concluded here at SLOT. Those of us who attended formed small discussion groups within the larger group each week. In a world where Catholicism is often criticized, this was a place where we grew closer as fellow Catholics with each weekly episode. We experienced a strengthening bond, a friendship and sense of community that was based on our faith. Each person's journey through life was individual, yet there was so much that we had in common. Our conversations inspired us to dig deeper in our search for meaning and purpose. We shared our thoughts. Sometimes we questioned, but questions often lead to a greater understanding or became food for thought during the coming week. The program has ended, and our challenge now is to continue our Search and reach out to someone else who may need some encouragement with theirs.

ANGELA LABIANCA
SACRED HEART

The Search was a seven-week program designed by Chris Stefanick to explore our faith. Every week we would see an amazing video and then discuss it with our group. Each week we would get to know each other better and talk about our faith. It felt good to be with people who share the same faith in God. Our group opened up with each other and shared our struggles connecting with God at times. We also shared our experiences and what brought us closer to God. We talked freely and without judgement every week. Being a part of this program made me realize that we are all searching to connect with God and people on a deeper level.

I would recommend The Search to anyone looking to grow their faith and to make meaningful connections with faith-minded people.

TINA GRANT

On October 18, 1959, Fr. McCabe spoke at all Masses, announcing the plans for the $500,000 expansion. "During the past three years, there has been an increase of 30% in the number of children attending St. Lawrence, which has necessitated the urgent step of the expansion program. In order to help defray part of the building cost, a development fund campaign for an immediate need of $200,000 will be inaugurated immediately." Fr. McCabe called upon every man in the parish to serve on said committee saying, "I am confident that every family would welcome the new school, auditorium-chapel and improvements to the convent and that they will want to share the responsibility of building a lasting memorial to the entire parish and to the credit of all citizens of Brewster." A letter from Cardinal Spellman read, "I congratulate you and your beloved parishioners on your willingness to undertake this project. I gladly endorse your plan to launch a fund-raising campaign for this worthy purpose. I beseech Almighty God to bless your efforts to obtain the necessary financial means to make your proposed building a reality."

A week later with two hundred volunteers from the parish, the committee was formed. Parishioner James Bryne served as Chairman. The names of some of these volunteers ring dearly to us today - Barney Brandon, Dave Bruen, Paul Bruen, Drew Durkin, Ed Grant, Bob Heinchen, Joe Hutchings, Ed Kobacker, Ed Markel, Bob McCorry, Frank McQuaid, Ed Mitchell, Ed Palmer, John Santorelli, Peter Tavino, George Wiegand, to name a few. On November 22, 1959, Bishop Dargin presided at the parish ceremony officially opening the campaign. On March 13, 1960, St. Lawrence held a special service before a ground-breaking ceremony on the lawn in anticipation of the building of the new addition and auditorium. Ground was broken with Msgr. Joseph Heaney, the Pastor, wielding the symbolic spade.

The picture here is of the original plan for the auditorium. It was later revised to what we have today. The top picture depicts the school as work commenced for the new addition. As we reflect on this image, we imagine the sacrifices made by the parishioners and how our parish community through their faith and united vision, came together. Let us not forget those parishioners who walked before us.

The 1960s would bring the completion of the new school addition, the building of the auditorium, the election of our first Catholic President and the Second Vatican Council.

THE CLARIFIER

Many times, I have thought that if Jesus was still here teaching in person I would understand our faith more clearly. We have the Bible, the teachings of the Church Fathers and saints, great theologians and priests, but what could be better than hearing God's Word directly from Jesus, the Word Himself?

An article by Peter Kreeft, Professor of Philosophy at Boston College addressed that idea. He points out that the last recorded question to Jesus by the apostles reveals that they still didn't understand Jesus' central teaching - the Kingdom of God. They lived life with Him day and night for three years before his crucifixion and 40 days after his resurrection. They ate, traveled, heard all his teachings, saw all his miracles, witnessed lives transformed by Jesus' love and mercy, but they still didn't understand the "central point of the central teaching of the central person in their life."

But perfect clarity didn't seem to be Jesus' purpose. He spoke using parables and often riddle-like teachings and it didn't seem to bother him when people walked away. He didn't reword perplexing messages to draw them back. The disciples would question his public teachings when they were alone, but that still didn't lead to thorough comprehension. God's plan was for Jesus to live among us and then send the Holy Spirit to clarify his teachings to us over time when we are ready.

At the last supper, Jesus said, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth." Kreeft tells us that, "Before Jesus ascended, the apostles and Peter were still tongue-tied fools. After the Spirit came, they were world-beating heroes."

That is the same Holy Spirit that is available to us today. He transformed the apostles, and he wants to transform us. He wants to clarify Jesus' teachings, draw us into a personal relationship, and guide us through a loving, fulfilling, holy, earthly life now so we can live forever with Him in Heaven.

Scripture: Read John 16:12-14. What stands out?

Call to Action: Pick up a Holy Spirit prayer card by the doors of the church and pray daily for the Holy Spirit to pour his gifts out upon you.
