CORPUS CHRISTI

JUNE 19 AT 3:45 PM

Meet across from the train station for the procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the Village of Brewster.

Followed by 40 hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Join us!

June 19, 2022

while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Today is the Feast of Corpus Christi where we celebrate our faith in the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

All throughout the country, at all the Cathedrals in every diocese, bishops are leading processions with the Blessed Sacrament much as we have done here in Brewster for some years now. It is part of what the American bishops are calling the Eucharistic Revival over the next three years to celebrate the great gift of the Eucharist.

This afternoon at 3:45 pm, we'll have our procession with the Blessed Sacrament from the train station up to the Church and then Benediction. Bring your family for this beautiful celebration of our faith in Jesus' true Body and Blood. Then we begin 40 hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament to honor Jesus's greatest gift to us.

Our Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel is one of the great features of our parish, and people are there 24/7 praying for conversions, for return to the faith, and for our parish community all the time in the presence of Jesus. Drop in and make a visit – it is a powerful, spiritual experience everyone should enjoy.

And don't miss Seasons of Praise Holy Hour tomorrow night in the Church. Yours truly will be giving the talk and leading the Holy Hour after Fr. Amobi hears confessions from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm.

Next week is the Feast of the Sacred Heart, and we'll celebrate at Sacred Heart Church with a 1:00 pm outdoor Mass and a picnic afterwards. There will be fun games for the kids and plenty of meeting old friends.

We've got so much good stuff going on at the parishes, and we should give thanks to God for blessing us. But our focus, for all of us, has to be to reach out to those who have either drifted away, or lost their faith or never were raised with faith in the first place. We should invite them back – so many are just waiting and wondering about God, about the purpose of their lives. And a warm, kind invitation from a committed Catholic might be just the moment for them. Give it a try and you'll be surprised how the Holy Spirit works with you...

God bless,

Fr. Richard

P.S. A shout-out to all the dads who celebrate today! We will remember you at all our Masses. Keep up the good work for your wives and children!

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

1960 Cornerstone with Msgr. Heaney, Fr. McCabe and Fr. Fussner

it served us well

TINA GRANT

On November 20, 1960, Msgr. Heaney and Fr. McCabe presided at our auditorium's cornerstone ceremony. Over 250 people attended. Sealed in the cornerstone are: Rosary blessed by Pius XII, medal blessed by John XXIII, St. Lawrence Class of 1960 yearbook, list of school staff, picture of Cardinal Spellman, foreign coins, picture of the Connors-Duff house that stood on the auditorium site, and a copy of the New York Times and Danbury Times headlining the election of President John F. Kennedy.

In March 1961, the new school addition and auditorium were completed. On May 20, 1961, dedication ceremonies were held. The Knights of Columbus Fourth Degree Color Guard of the Joseph A. Damin Assembly escorted Auxiliary Bishop Philip J. Furlong, acting for Cardinal Spellman. Bishop Furlong assisted by Msgr. Raymond O'Connor (Mahopac) and Msgr. John Nevins (Croton Falls), blessed the new auditorium "Abide with us O Lord. . . May it remain for all times."

Bishop Furlong blessed the new school's exterior and interior. He blessed and placed on the wall of the new addition the crucifix donated by parishioners Ed and Ann Markel whose son died at 17. Markel Memorial Park built in the 1950's by many of our parishioners and members of our community is dedicated to their son. Brewster has always come together as a community and St.

Lawrence has always extended itself outside its doors to be part of that community.

Fr. Kiernan of Maryknoll delivered the declaratory address of the school and hall, "The function of a Catholic school is not primarily to teach the formulas of the Catholic religion, but to transmit a culture, an indispensable element of life, a dimension of our existence, as much a part of man as his hands." Bishop Furlong praised the parish for their hard work sharing how symbolic it was that the dedication took place during the week of Pentecost.

Our school was blessed with Sisters of the Divine Compassion and lay teachers who touched the lives of the students they taught. From 1926 to 1978, over fifty nuns taught at our parish school. We recall the impact they made, their contributions to our parish, their dedication and faith. It was a time we will never see again. It is impossible to include all the history contained within our school walls - the teachers, students and services performed there. Those of us who walked those halls remember and will always cherish what we received and how we grew as a family. When the school closed in June 2008, it marked the end of an era. Yet, it has served its purpose well. For over 80 years, it provided an exemplary catholic education, developed lasting friendships, and added tremendously to the parish community. During the 2014 church renovation, the school became our present parish center. Today, it continues to provide faith filled education and continued community through its Early Childhood Learning Center (ECLC) and the many ministries and events held. The foundation has remained, and the spirit that it was meant for, continues.

STEP INTO FAITH

Two weeks ago, a group of parishioners and I took a step of faith and headed west to Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio. Our destination was the Power and Purpose Conference at this passionately Catholic university. They offer several adult conferences throughout the summer that attract people from all over the country. This one is dedicated to educating and drawing us closer to the Holy Spirit.

Those of us that have heard Bishop Joe Esposito speak at our church may remember him telling us that he attended Power and Purpose. He said that although he had been a priest for many years, he had not had a close relationship with the Holy Spirit. When he was assigned to St. Anthony of Padua Church, in the Bronx, and took over leadership of the Charismatic Center, he was encouraged to attend this conference. It was life-altering. His new-found love for the Holy Spirit has made him a passionate speaker and has no doubt given him the gifts that showed he would be a worthy bishop. Clearly, that is where the Holy Spirit wanted him. It started by Father Joe taking the step to learn and grow in his faith.

Few of us are looking to be bishops, but we all are looking for purpose and meaning in our lives. The first step to discovery is admitting that God created us for a purpose, that only his purpose will make us truly happy, and if we allow God to direct us, He will lead us the way we are created to go. The best part is that his way will be more exciting and fulfilling than anything we could ever conceive for ourselves.

I love attending Catholic conferences. I am infused with a greater love for our Church when I am encircled by hundreds of Catholics praying and singing together in faith-filled unison. I get the same beautiful feeling at our Corpus Christi March right here in Brewster. When we step out of our familiar, we step into new opportunities for God to reveal Himself to us.

Scripture: Read Isaiah 11:2. What stands out?

Call to Action: Surround yourself with Catholics publicly worshipping and adoring Jesus in the Eucharist.

We'll be meeting Sunday, 3:45 PM across from the train station on Main Street. Many blessings will flow from this experience!
