while we're at it

Dear Friends,

On the 4th of July weekend, we should always come back again to reflect on the Declaration of Independence that was signed this day in 1776. It was the Declaration that made America the nation it is. That document was a revolutionary one at the time because it claimed that “all men are created equal and endowed by the Creator with certain inalienable rights, including the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

Every human person has a right to life, no matter how small or insignificant. And God is the source of every right. Not the government, not public opinion.

Those historic principles have made it possible for America to correct its ways time and again and return to fulfill its promise. And we have seen it again now with the decision in the Dobbs case on abortion. We may stray for years, but when we come back to the principles on which we were founded we correct our errors.

Now we Catholics have to work to convince our fellow citizens that we must welcome every life and protect them in the law. That work will take years, and along the way as we are seeing there will be violent attacks, threats against the Church and disdain for those who hold our beliefs. But we must persevere even with the opposition.

We all owe our gratitude to the men and women who marched year after year in the March for Life. For all those who worked to care for unwed moms, who ran crisis pregnancy centers, who prayed in front of abortion clinics, who counseled women considering abortion, and prayed with and healed post-abortive women suffering from guilt and shame, for those who wrote and lobbied politicians and debated and persuaded. We must thank all who gave money, and all those who prayed that God would one day lift the scourge of abortion from our land and restores respect for the gift of life he has given us. Everyone of those who worked for the sanctity of human life is a hero. And God will never forget that.

For our parishes, we will continue our pro-life work. And we will expand it with new initiatives. Tom Healy and a team he is gathering will head up our pro-life work. If you want to get on board with something important and meaningful, get in touch with him.

The road ahead is long, and we need laborers. The goal is that every person be welcomed into life and protected in the law.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

a time for change

TINA GRANT

The 1960s brought change. In November 1960 Msgr. Heaney and Fr. McCabe officiated at St. Lawrence's auditorium cornerstone ceremony. We now had a beautiful auditorium and a third addition to our parish school. John F. Kennedy was elected our first US Catholic President with his message of "The New Frontier."

On October 11, 1962, the Second Vatican Council (Vatican II) opened by Pope John XXIII. Pope John XXIII called the Council because he felt the Church needed "updating"; its teachings needed to be presented in a way that would appear relevant and understandable. In his Gaudet Mater Ecclesia, Latin for "Mother Church Rejoices" (opening speech before the Council), he spoke: "What is needed at the present time is a new enthusiasm, a new joy and serenity of mind. What is needed, and what everyone imbued with a truly Christian, Catholic, and apostolic spirit craves today, is that this doctrine shall be more widely known, more deeply understood and more penetrating in its effects on men's moral lives. What is needed is that this certain and immutable doctrine, to which the faithful owes obedience, be studied afresh, and reformulated in contemporary terms. With their meaning intact."

Vatican II allowed the Catholic Church to open its windows onto the modern world, updated the liturgy, gave a larger role to laypeople, introduced the concept of religious freedom, and started a dialogue with other religions. It changed the structures and practices of the Church. Most obvious was the changes in the Mass. Before Vatican II, Mass was spoken in Latin with priests faced away from the congregation speaking in a whisper. It was impersonal and not understood. After Vatican II, the altar and the priest faced the congregation. This allowed greater participation in the worship service. Vatican II produced a heightened emphasis on Catholics reading the Scriptures publicly and privately. Today Scriptures become alive. In addition to the Scriptures being explained during the Homily at Mass, we are given the opportunity to attend ministries where we can explore even further their meaning and deepen our faith.

The Council's most important achievements were to encourage Catholics to look outward, beyond the walls of the Church, to the world we are called to evangelize. It helped break our focus on our internal issues and renewed our sense that every single person, no matter what religion or even those of no religion, is saved through Jesus Christ, and called to a relationship with Him.

At our parishes we have seen growth in that awareness - that by our baptism we are all to be missionaries to the world, to invite others to know and love Christ as we do. Our people need good formation in the faith to be able to bring the faith to others. Lay Catholics, and not just the clergy have the mission to renew the society with the values of the Gospel.

Today at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart, we do this in many ways, including our evangelization efforts such as Alpha, and our outreach to the poor and marginalized through Brewster Cares. Surely the Holy Spirit will go on inspiring us to new ways we can bring the Gospel outside to the society around us.

outdoor mass at sacred heart

TINA PENNACCHIA

At Sunday's outdoor Mass and picnic I observed how love spread among the crowd. When we drove in, parking attendants cheerfully welcomed us. I saw chairs for Mass under the hot sun but just before 1 pm Mass started, we had shade and long cool breezes. It was 89°F outside but no one could feel the heat more than the dedicated Knights of Columbus who never broke a sweat by the hot smoky grill and awesome burgers were handed out after Mass. Many delicious salads and desserts were given by the Catholic Daughters.

During Mass, the air was filled with harmonious beautiful music from the combined choirs and the tambourine brought joy to all. Fr. Gill gave a wonderful homily. He also said the Supreme Court ruling of Roe v. Wade was a gift from the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Father pointed out that outdoor Mass was on historic ground—the original Sacred Heart Church's cornerstone was right behind the altar and that the outdoor Stations of the Cross were recently built for us to experience and pray.

After Mass, the children laughed on an exciting tractor ride, shot water guns and made humongous bubbles for all to admire. As I walked across the lawn, I saw love, acceptance and people laughing. It was most heartwarming to see that there were new parishioners, friends and non-parishioners who came and enjoyed the day with us in the presence of The Holy Spirit—connecting all of us with love this past Sunday.

LYNDA HOLLER, DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

Perfect Weakness

Observing our society over the last couple years has awakened me to the truth that no human being has any lasting power when it has been bestowed on them by others. Just as quickly as it may be given, it can be taken away.

The President of the United States may be one of the most powerful persons in the world, but we have witnessed that if Congress and/or the American people do not support them, they become impotent. We have seen political giants, talk show hosts, movie producers, financial gurus fall from public grace legitimately or due to questionable allegations. The power and control they thought they had was vulnerable and transitory.

As disciples of Jesus, we believe He is all-powerful. Yet during his earthly life, his behavior and lifestyle was a stark contrast to the kings and influencers of his day. To Christ's opponents, He appeared weak, yet in his weakness He revealed his power. St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians: "Jesus said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me."

So, who are leaders who are following the way of Jesus making our society better, stronger, more thoughtful, self-giving, and generous? I suggest it is the righteous, often low-profile members of our communities who are teaching, healing, counseling, cooking, visiting, and praying for others. What makes them truly powerful is the fact that they are not striving for acclaim or publicity; they simply want to help others and do good. The Power of Christ is in them. It is a lasting power, and they are the pillars that fortify every community.

Scripture: Read 2 Corinthians 12:9-10. Have you witnessed strength grow from weakness?

Call to Action: Who do you recognize as pillars in your communities? Would others say you are a pillar?
