while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Last week we celebrated Deacon Mark's 27 years of service to our parishes and bid him a happy retirement. He truly has been a wonderful example of joyful service and commitment to our people, helping so many grow in faith and love for God. We will miss him but he deserves a good long retirement and we wish him all the best. For sure he will be back to visit whenever he can.

Last week we ran a terrific Vacation Bible School for 40 kids from our area and all had a great time. Vacation Bible School is an opportunity to help form kids in the faith more intensely than in religious education. Thanks to Cecilia Britez and her team for their hard work.

Coming up will be the soccer camp and the basketball camp for kids as well.

Vacation Bible School
Summer 2022

We're about to kick off our Brewster Cares Day Camp July 18 – Aug 12 at Sacred Heart. It will be for 60 kids from the South Bronx and Yonkers. This camp is run on scholarships thanks to your donations and help from a few other area parishes. These kids from the city will have a rare opportunity to spend time in the country hiking and exploring the woods, swimming in Memorial Park Lake, and learning about animals at Green Chimneys. Thank you for your generosity in making this camp a reality for the first time ever.

I'm glad we have been able to launch this camp to help out poorer parishes offer something for kids who would otherwise be on city streets all summer. We'll run it with a Vacation Bible school focus, so all the kids will also be learning the faith at the same time.

Finally, we have winners for the Mega Raffle this year – thank you to everyone who bought a ticket and supported the parish. We raise about $35,000 every year from this fundraiser and everyone who helps is a winner in the end. Congratulations to Wilma Banda who took the Mega prize of $25,000!

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gil

a legend retires

TINA GRANT

Last Sunday we celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving on the occasion of Deacon Mark's retirement from the Diaconate. The beautiful Mass and reception were bittersweet. We said goodbye to Deacon Mark who served us so well for 27 years and wished the friend we found in him our very best.

Fr. Richard Gill officiated, assisted by Deacon Mark's good friend and spiritual director, Fr. Paul Waddel. Deacon Mark's wife Prena and his family were in attendance; they were very proud to share this moment with him. The Gospel was centered on how Jesus sent out his disciples to transform the hearts of many and bring the message of Jesus to the world. Fr. Gill, in his homily, reminded us "this is still our mission statement. We are a link to that chain. We must build disciples to carry on Christ's message to make sure it never gets lost." The Gospel was a perfect read for the occasion. How well we remember (during Covid) Deacon Mark driving his white pickup truck as Fr. Gill stood in the back holding the monstrance bringing Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament to our neighborhoods.

Deacon Mark is a good link in that chain. He baptized our children, taught our children to be altar servers, joined many couples in the joy of marriage and laid many of our family members and friends to rest.

At the end of Mass, Deacon Mark spoke. "Not even 45 hours would be long enough to say goodbye to the family I found here and to thank you for making my stay full of joy and happiness." He thanked Fr. Paul for his friendship and guidance. He thanked Fr. Gill for being a good shepherd. He thanked us for allowing him to serve us, pray with us, cry with us, and laugh with us. When Deacon Mark finished, he received a long-standing ovation. He will be missed. Yet our parish and our lives are better because he helped bring us closer to Jesus.

After Mass he was embraced by parishioners with hugs and words of kindness. A reception followed in the dining hall where Fr. Gill presented him with tokens of gratitude and Jessica Vrabel read a beautiful tribute.

Deacon Mark opened his heart and embraced us. The Lord will ask him one day, "What did you do with the life I gave you?" He used the gifts he was given for good and to the fullest. Thank you, Deacon Mark, for serving us so well for so long.

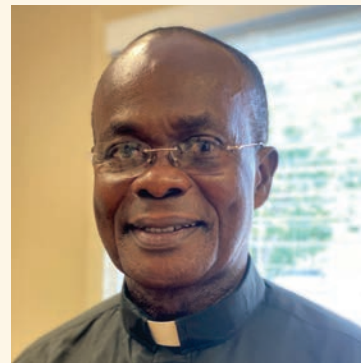

welcome Fr. Clifford!

Fr. Clifford Ekwueme has joined us for the summer to help out at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart parishes.

We're happy to have him with us. He is a priest of the diocese of Ahiara, in Imo State, Nigeria. He did his seminary formation at Bigard Memorial Seminary in Erugu, Nigeria and was ordained in 1983.

He did his graduate studies at Seton Hall University and his doctorate at Fordham University in the Bronx. He taught New Testament studies and Greek in the Provincial Major Seminary for six years and was Rector for eight years. Presently, he serves as the Rector of the Spiritual Year at the Pastoral Seminary in the diocese.

He'll be helping us here and also at St. Theresa's parish in Briarcliff. Welcome!

rescued by Jesus

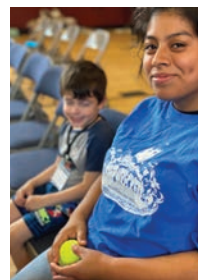

CECILIA BRITZ

Vacation Bible School Shipwreck '22 Rescued by Jesus was a great success for our children! 67 total campers! We had a blast! Every time I asked our campers about their favorite station, I would have hands raised by all of them! Station KidVid showed children a short film and gave them space for questions, conversations and friendship. Station Bible Adventure invited children to step into bible stories and act them out. The room, the lighting and the sound all work together to transport children back in time and face to face with the Gospel. Station Armor of God was focused on lessons about courage and trust in God! Our little ones even created their own Armor of God; they worked on it for the entire week and finished it on Friday to showcase it to mom and dad! We also had a Beach Party and Water Games stations!

Without fail, our snack station was everybody's favorite because we got to create cool snacks related to our camp theme! We made jello/sand cups with jelly bears toasting under the sun; sandy beach teddy graham sunbathing under an umbrella (vanilla pudding and crushed animal crackers); fish and bubbles of the ocean (graham cracker decorated with blue icing and sugar pearls with goldfish)! Even our CIT's and adults were glad to be called to 'duty'.

In between our stations, prayer was fused within everything. We said spontaneous prayers, prayed grace before every meal, prayed at each station, said prayers of thanksgiving and intercessory prayer for all the children of the world, and prayed for our families and our community.

There's definitely no better way to start summer than with VBS. We design it with your children in our mind and with Jesus in our heart. We want to give Glory to God, and we want your family to be a part of it. We cannot wait to have your family at VBS again next year. If you haven't joined us yet, please email us at familyprogrambrewster@gmail.com for more information.

FEET ON THE GROUND

Last week, I attended a Sacred Art workshop at St. Edmund's Retreat on Enders Island off the coast of Mystic, CT. It is a beautiful and peaceful sanctuary dedicated to the work of spiritual care, recovery from addiction, and education in a variety of fine arts within the Christian tradition. My focus was to delve deeper into my newfound interest in drawing, but as usual, the Holy Spirit opened my eyes and heart to more.

My instructor, Anthony Visco, has dedicated his life to creating devotional art that will draw the viewer into an intimate relationship with Jesus and his Church. Other guest artists, and psychological and spiritual counselors have the same end goal. I drove off that island very proud that St. Edmund's is a Catholic institution, but the work they do is consistent with the work the Church has been doing for two thousand years. The Catholic Church gets a bad rap from the secular world, but as disciples, we must open our eyes to the power and great service of the Catholic tradition and its institutions.

Look at the lifesaving work the Sisters of Life are doing to educate society on the truth that all people from the moment of conception to natural death are important to God's Kingdom. Good Counsel offers supportive residential care and community-based services in the NYC area for homeless, expectant and new mothers and their children. The Franciscan Life Center in Meriden, CT helps individuals and families grow personally, psychologically, and spiritually through their outpatient mental health services, and their home and hospice care. Rosary Hill Home provides loving, one-on-one palliative care to those suffering from terminal cancer. And they do not accept any insurance plans – it has been God's generosity that has allowed them to serve us for 121 years!

This only spotlights a sliver of devoted Catholics; the world is filled with groups like this. We need to be proud to be Catholic and speak out boldly about the great work being done in the name of Jesus Christ and the hands and feet of his Church.

Scripture: Read Acts 20:35. What stands out?

Call to Action: Christianity is not for spectators. Ask how you can help at Brewster Cares Summer Camp!
