while we're at it

Dear Friends,

I was recently at a gathering of priests with Cardinal Dolan and when he saw me, he started speaking to them of his visit to St. Lawrence and our Divine Mercy Perpetual Adoration Chapel... he wanted to encourage the other parishes to develop their devotion to the Blessed Sacrament too.

It made me start to think over how the 200 parishioners who spend an hour weekly in adoration are really having an impact even beyond our parish. Not to mention the many, many people who drop in each day for a shorter period of time without a formal commitment to an hour of adoration. Often we see 6-7 or more people in the chapel praying in front of Jesus – it's one of the most beautiful and fruitful things that can happen in a parish.

And all the grace that comes from those hours of prayer flows over all the members of our parish, blesses them and makes our other efforts fruitful. I have no doubt about that.

We have tried to be intentional and focused on growing our parish, on making disciples, on inviting back those who have drifted away, and welcoming those who never had faith.

Everything from Sunday donuts and coffee, to the signage, the grounds and the billboards, to the formation of parents for their baby's baptism, to marriage preparation are done with a welcoming and warm spirit. We put a premium on creating a community of faith knowing we are a creative minority in the culture today, and our faith in Jesus has to hold us together and reinforce our values.

We run our religious education in a way that is family based and meets people where they are at and brings them into a relationship with Jesus. Our adult faith formation offers something for everyone who wants to grow in faith and knowledge: prayer, scripture, doctrine, spirituality.

Our small group ministry gives people the chance to interact and develop deep friendships as we grow in faith together, challenge and support each other and hold each other accountable as brothers and sisters in Christ. We reach out as a parish to serve the poor and the homeless, aware it is an imperative of our faith commitment. Brewster Cares homeless shelter, Day Camp for kids from the South Bronx, the needy in our own community – all of them experience the charity and care of the Catholics from St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart.

Thank you for being part of our awesome parishes.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

be a light

LYNDA HOLLER

Hopefully, you have read our parishes' Vision at the bottom of Fr. Gill's weekly bulletin letter. It is also included in the Prayers of the Faithful after the homily at our Masses:

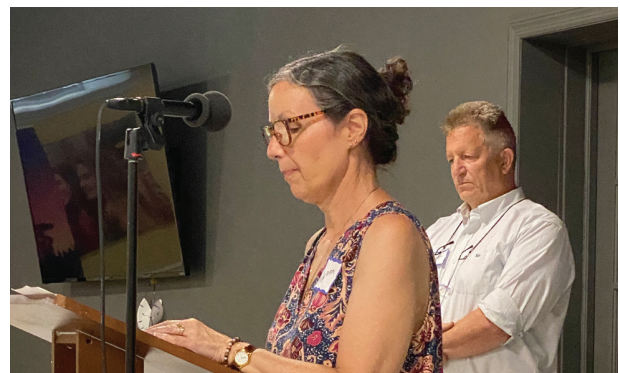

"Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him."

We want every single parishioner and visitor to our parish to know what we are about, what our vision is, what we are striving to accomplish in our communities. Every single ministry, program, and event is evaluated and chosen or rejected based on whether or not it is working to accomplish that vision. We don't waste time on initiatives that will not help to draw people into a closer relationship with Jesus. We want that for every single man, woman, and child in our communities.

One important initiative at St. Lawrence/Sacred Heart is our Discipleship group. Established over three years ago, it is a community of parishioners who want to grow in their faith and learn how to share their faith with others. Unlike most programs that have a set number of sessions and a narrow goal, this group is a way of life, an ongoing spiritual growth environment. Like the early Christians gathered in community to inspire and challenge each other, we do the same.

Currently, we have over 100 Disciples active in the group, and we are growing. This might be the right time for you to take a positive step toward building a closer relationship with Jesus too. It is nice to have friends that love us for who we are, for what God made us to be, who will challenge us when we need it and just listen when we need an ear. Our disciples are comfortable talking about their faith. If that interests you, email me at slotlynda@gmail.com. I'd love to talk with you.

every summer has a story

FABIAN FUNEZ

Fabian Funez, Assistant Camp Director & Ron Whitehead, Director

This summer we are fortunate to host 200 kindergarten to fifth grade campers from the South Bronx and Yonkers as part of the Brewster Cares Day Camp.

I am lucky to work as Assistant Camp Director with Ron Whitehead, the Camp Director. Ron has worked as an art teacher for over twenty-five years, and I have worked as an elementary and middle school teacher in

New York City for nearly ten years. Our expertise working with children and teenagers, along with our shared passion to work in the evangelization of the youth, makes us ideal candidates to oversee this camp. We are super enthusiastic to make Brewster Cares Day Camp an unforgettable experience for the campers and everyone who will be working with them this summer.

Ron and I will be overseeing the entire operations during the four weeks of camp, where our young campers will have the opportunity to participate in numerous fun activities such as visiting a farm, playing sports, swimming, fishing, gardening, acting, praising/worshiping, and embarking on Bible adventures using VBS (Vacation Bible School) materials to create memorable experiences that take kids deeper into the Word of God.

We have put together a team of adult and teen councilors from Brewster and Patterson, as well as from the South Bronx, along with a group of volunteers who will assist in ensuring that our campers are safe each day and have the opportunity to have an encounter with Jesus.

Please join us in prayer so that our Lord fills the hearts of each one of the participants at our camp with His endless love, and to make this summer experience an exceptional one.

baby bottle thank you

We thank everyone who gave so generously to the Baby Bottle drive. Special thanks to those that gave their time to help hand out, collect, and count. We gave out 300 bottles and collected 160. We raised $6,400 to support moms who choose life! In many instances, women believe that abortion is their only option but our support shows them they have better alternatives.

Our Baby Bottle funds will go to Expectant Mother Care Frontline, which is a beacon of light in a city and state that unfortunately wants to make New York an abortion destination. EMC operates pregnancy centers with testing, counseling, and ultrasounds across the city.

DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

Martha went to meet Him and after a powerful dialogue with Jesus, she says these words, "Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." Sound familiar?

When Jesus took his disciples to Caesarea Philippi and asked them, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." Almost the same exact words as Martha. Yet to Peter, Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father." I believe that these are the only two people recorded in the Gospels to have made that proclamation and we can confidently acknowledge that Martha's words were revealed to her by the Father too.

Jesus' response to Martha is not recorded and chronologically Martha may have said it first. But Peter is asked to become the first leader of Christ's Church and we have no idea what Martha goes on to do. Most likely she continued to tend her house and serve others behind the scenes. I am sure that is not a slight to Martha. In fact, it elevates the value of her life's work of menial service to that of the Pope. Confirming that all of the work that God calls us to do is equally important in his Kingdom.

Scripture: Read John 11:1-27. Reflect on Martha's bold dialogue with Jesus.

Call to Action: Speak boldly to Jesus when you pray and trust that the Holy Spirit will inspire you to serve Him in the ordinary.

In the Ordinary – Bold Friendship

July 29th is the Feast Day of Saints Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, the siblings from Bethany that were good friends of Jesus. They appear in the Gospels in at least two significant places, teaching us important lessons. Mary and Lazarus have mostly silent roles, but Martha always speaks out boldly to Jesus. Clearly, she was a close friend who wasn't afraid to demand help and compassion from Him.

In reading the Gospel for the feast day, John 11:19-27, I recognized an important parallel that I had never noticed before. Jesus came to Bethany because he had learned that Lazarus had died.
