while we're at it

Dear Friends,

This week we update you on our terrific Brewster Cares Day Camp for kids from the Bronx. I'm so proud of our parishes for making it possible for 56 kids per week to spend 4 weeks out of the city and at our great Sacred Heart facilities. As you can see from the pictures, the kids are having the time of their lives – swimming, soccer, basketball, visits to Green Chimneys – and enjoying hikes in the woods they never experience otherwise. We're also supporting them in helping them learn their faith better, running Vacation Bible School activities every day.

They'll go back knowing that you made it all happen for them. Your generosity enabled us to make this a scholarship-based camp where none of their parents had to pay. We raised over $70,000 for it, and three other parishes helped out to make it possible. I'm so happy that our parishes can lead the way in helping poorer parishes out. May God bless you for your generosity.

As you can see from the article by Beatrice Jacobsen, our Evangelization Director, we made a trip to 110 degrees Dallas last week for the Divine Renovation Conference. This is a group that advises parishes on the best state-of-the-art practices for parish renewal and outreach to the fallen away and people without faith in God. Parishes from all over the country were there to learn how they can be more effective in a secular society, and our team was there to take it all in. Stay tuned for new ideas on the way!

With the changed situation regarding abortion in the country, our witness of support for women in crisis pregnancies is more important than ever. The pro-life side has been exceptional in caring for women and children who need help to make the best decisions. Our leadership team is discerning how we can best support the pro-life cause in our context – New York seems determined to be the abortion capital at least of the East Coast. This week I'm at a pro-life training program with Julie Noce, my pastoral assistant, to explore the potential for local action.

When you're driving back to Brewster from Danbury, don't miss our pro-life billboard facing east on I-84 near exit 2. A parish from Brookfield also has one up nearby facing west. Those billboards get 2.5 million views each in four weeks!

I know it is the Holy Spirit guiding St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart to be cutting edge parishes rather than stay in maintenance mode, passing the time. The world is dying for lack of Jesus Christ, and we have been blessed to know him and be his disciples. It's up to all of us to lead people to Jesus and make him known. After all, Jesus' final words on earth were, "Go, and make disciples of all nations...". We're on it, Lord. Thank you for being part of our awesome parishes.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

how can i help?

BEATRICE JACOBSEN, DIRECTOR OF EVANGELIZATION

Keynote speaker, Fr. James Mallon of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, Canada, and author of Divine Renovation; bringing your parish from maintenance to mission, a passionate priest of Scottish origin was on fire with the Holy Spirit! He was inspiring and focused on the keys needed to unlock our parishes and launch them into the future as learners, growing in Christ, making disciples, with an emphasis on making new disciples. Leaders in their fields, we heard from eight learned speakers, plus experts in parish renewal from the Divine Renovation Team who hosted the "Breakout Sessions."

The hospitality of the greeters and the atmosphere created by the excellent musicians set the tone that accompanied the passion and the prayer. The time is now, and the mission is clear for every Catholic person to become a disciple and go out as an apostle, spreading Jesus' word. The message is for us all to respond with our own charisms and love for The Lord in a way that communicates to others that we are hungry for Jesus!

"My mission of being in the heart of the people is not just a part of my life or a badge I can take off; it is not an "extra" or just another moment in life. Instead, it is something I cannot uproot from my being without destroying my very self. I am a mission on this earth; that is the reason why I am here in this world."

—Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium (no. 273)

It was clear throughout the weekend that these words were to become our work! Each breakout session focused on how to, cast a Winning Vision, Connect our work to Evangelization, Strategy, Creating an atmosphere of Belonging and Hospitality, creating an Invitational Culture for non-churchgoers and forming the next generation: Restoring Families to their Missionary Identity...and that was just the first day.

In Texas everything is BIG, HOT and HOSPITABLE! HOW CAN I HELP? Was printed in bold type on the back of every volunteer that greeted us, and they really meant it.

The DR Conference was made up of 150 parishes and priests from all over the US, United Kingdom, Australia and Poland. Every person there was on a mission to make their own parishes living dynamic centers for people who want to connect with the faith and community and feel a sense of belonging!

We have our own parish vision: "Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him."

One of the other things we learned to do at DR was to really pray for our priests because it is their dedication to renovation on all levels that will grow our parishes. Fr. Gill has helped us form a vision, and he didn't waste any time. He started 6 years ago with the first Divine Renovation Conference. Unlike many churches I saw there, desperate to save their churches, we are on track to keep our church alive and thriving!

Remember to ask, HOW CAN I HELP?

CAMP

camp is where adventure starts

RON WHITEHEAD, CAMP DIRECTOR

Our first week of Brewster Cares Day Camp is in the books. It truly is a blessing to be a part of such an amazing faith based camp that pours out the Lord's love to each of the children. Our camp is made up of students aging from 5 to 10 years old. The students travel to us by bus each day from the South Bronx and Yonkers.

Our first week was packed with exciting adventures that took us to the farm at Green Chimneys where for the first time, our campers were able to see animals like camels, screech owls and miniature ponies. Another first for our campers was swimming and fishing at Veterans Memorial Park. There, many of the campers were taught how to fish and most of the campers caught their first fish.

Each day, our campers start the day off with a well-balanced breakfast that is served by both volunteers and local restaurants. Our second event each day is worship. For this, the entire camp sings praise to the Lord using movements, sign language, music and song.

The best part about this camp is that our campers get this amazing experience with no cost to their families. Everything from the transportation, food, materials and staffing have all been provided at no cost. It is humbling to see the outpour of love that the local community has shown.

Each day, our campers get to experience the love of the Lord by going to activities like bible stories, bible games, arts and crafts, nutrition and nature. The volunteers that provide all of these activities are spreading God's love to our young campers. Everything is top notch, and the food is outstanding, the worship music is powerful, the daily bible activities are divine and the personal attention to each child is inspirational.

KEY THOUGHT

Jesus shows us the absurdity of living for comfort and riches, and yet, there is something altogether intoxicating about its pursuit. What is it?

Underneath the surface, something else is going on. What looks like pursuit of wealth is ultimately just the pursuit of control and security. In our out-of-control world, we want to feel like we can insulate ourselves from the difficulties coming our way. It is for this reason that Jesus connects this parable to his teaching about anxiety and worry!

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

My strategy succeeded; she chose a chair next to the man and as I expected, she began to cheerfully talk with him. Then he was called in to see the doctor. She moved next to me and defeatedly, I looked up. She said, "You are so pretty!" My heart melted and realized immediately: this simple, innocent, unembarrassed, young woman had a lot to teach me. We talked for a few minutes and looking into her sparkling eyes, I told her she had a beautiful smile. She gleamed with delight.

Too soon, I was called in to the examining room where I continued to wait, but I kept thinking about that lovely woman. This happened at the time that Bernie Madoff's financial scandal was news. A brilliant financial guru had used his high intelligence to conjure a Ponzi scheme that defrauded thousands of investors of billions of dollars. I imagined how proud Bernie's parents must have been of his great grades and stellar career before his fall. And I thought about how much this woman's parents must have worried about her when they realized that she was mentally challenged.

Those few minutes out of an otherwise forgettable day made a big impact on me. What I initially thought was a disability, I learned was a great strength. Looking at the two as children, we might have thought that Bernie had an unfair advantage in life's race. But Bernie died in jail; his sons died before him, one by suicide exactly two years after his father's arrest. However, the young woman is probably still out there making people smile.

Scripture: Read Romans 5:3-5. What stands out?

Call to Action: Reflect on an experience where you witnessed a person's disability used as a strength.

LIFE'S WINNERS

Several years ago, I was sitting in my doctor's waiting room annoyed because he always ran way behind schedule. A young woman entered, and I overheard her talking with the receptionist. She was exceedingly cheerful, and I surmised that she was intellectually challenged – perhaps, because she seemed so happy. After checking in, she scanned the room deciding where she wanted to sit. There was only one man and me and I am embarrassed to admit that I kept my head down so I wouldn't make eye contact. I did not want her to sit next to me; I was determined to stay in my annoyed mood.
