while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Every October we run our Stewardship Appeal to encourage all our parishioners to give back to God first when thinking of their expenses – even to the biblically recommended “first ten percent” or the tithe. And many of you are doing that already. We know all we have is a gift from God and giving back is a way of thanking him, and trusting he will provide everything needed. Thank you for that faith-filled generous giving and please keep it up.

As a parish we are also generous – giving to our sister parish in the South Bronx, St. Anthony of Padua, launching Brewster Cares for the local poor, and funding pro-life initiatives to support women to choose life. We give to the missions and initiatives of our Archdiocese. We spend on outreach to those away from God through “evangelization” efforts like Alpha and Communio, to bring people back to the faith. And we've reinvested in our physical infrastructure updating our heating systems, roofs, and campuses in both parishes.

You've been incredibly generous with all that and I thank you again. While most parishes are experiencing declining income, our income in the past few years has actually increased at St. Lawrence, making it possible for us to expand our ministries and make the parish even better. One example: we've reduced our debt on the Centennial Renovations from $3.8 million down to $307,000 and at this rate will be debt-free in two and half years!

But this year we are all feeling the effects of a bad economy with inflation raging at 8.2% and the stock market dropping 25%. Most people are hurting as food and gas become unaffordable and savings disappear. Our parish budget feels the effects the same way you do.

So I've decided that this year instead of a month-long stewardship campaign, in the next couple of weeks, we'll publish the financial report of our stewardship for the year. Then I would ask you to do just two things if you possibly can:

1. If you haven't yet, please switch your weekly donations to WeShare electronic giving. About half our collection comes from parishioners giving this easy, fast way. And it helps us by being reliable and steady.
2. Consider an inflation adjustment in your weekly giving to our parish. Can you help us meet the effects of inflation with an 8.2% increase?

If we can all do those two things, our parishes will weather this economic storm, and we'll be giving the way God is asking us to give – from the heart. And we'll ensure our parishes keep growing stronger and more amazing. Thank you again.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

healing the wounds hidden in abortion

SUZANNE WALSH

Welcoming a new baby into a family is a source of much joy, anticipated by parents, grandparents, siblings, and friends. The gift of life, given by God, is one of the greatest blessings parents can receive.

However, an unexpected pregnancy can lead to anxiety, worry, and concern for some. For those who have made the painful decision to have an abortion, the emotional, psychological, and spiritual consequences have a long-lasting impact. Hope and healing are possible through God's tender mercy.

Providing healing for those suffering from the wounds of abortion was the purpose of Healing the Hidden Wounds of Abortion, A Morning of Prayerful Remembrance & Intercession held recently at St Lawrence. Sister Lucy from the Sisters of Life and Theresa Bonopartis, Director of Lumina, Hope and Healing After Abortion, guided our morning prayer service.

Healing the Hidden Wounds of Abortion offered an opportunity to walk in the shoes of those hurt by abortion. Tragically, in the fifty years since Roe vs. Wade made abortion legal, 63 million abortions have been performed. The hidden impact of each is the circle of people affected, including parents, grandparents, siblings, friends, counselors, doctors, and nurses. We heard from volunteers, the heart-wrenching testimonies of those involved as they shared the impact that abortion had on them personally.

Most importantly, we prayed for healing for those suffering from the wounds of abortion. Everyone touched by this loss of life suffers in their own way. Our prayers of intercession called on God's mercy and forgiveness to heal all in ways unique to their role. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and time for personal prayer and reflection followed. Participants also had the opportunity to go to confession and receive healing through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Our morning culminated with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the forgiveness of sins.

Leave your legacy for the generations to come

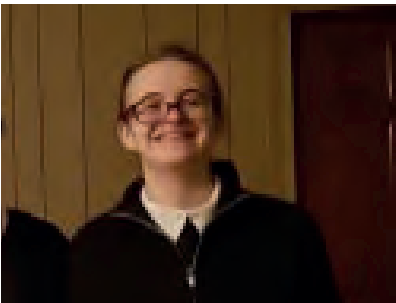

Many parishioners find themselves able to leave a legacy gift in a will or a life estate to the parish, which helps ensure that future generations will find their parish church strong and vibrant in the years to come.

You can word a bequest to leave a percentage of your estate to the parish, or a fixed amount of money, or real estate.

Consider leaving a legacy for the future of St. Lawrence or Sacred Heart.

new postulant

Elizabeth Yaremko is the daughter of Scott and Suzanne Yaremko of Sacred Heart. They are regular adorers of the Blessed Sacrament. Elizabeth is a Catholic University of America graduate who discerned a calling to the religious life and entered as a postulant with the Sisters Servants Of The Most Sacred Heart Of Jesus in Cresson, PA. Our whole parish community is proud of her and praying for her, and all young people to hear God's call.

future grace

I do not have a scientific brain. So, when I went to college to study fashion design, I was distressed to learn that I had to take a year of chemistry. Rather than put it off and worry, I started with Chem 121 fall quarter of freshman year. Professor Klein usually taught grad students, and I couldn't understand a thing. I studied very hard, but the best grade I could pull out was a C-. A C- understanding of this complex subject didn't prepare me well for Chem 122 winter quarter. I had the same professor, and I got to know him pretty well. I believe the D- I got at the end of the class was out of the goodness of his heart. We had a trimester schedule, so I still had Chem 123 ahead of me. After the trauma of winter, I put chemistry on hold until the following year.

In sophomore year I got a new professor that I could understand, chemistry became less torturous, and providentially I was assigned a nice chemistry lab partner, Pat Maloney. He came to class one day, invited me to a dorm party, and told me to bring friends. On October 19, I brought my childhood friend Trina to Pat's party and the rest is Maloney family history. Since then, they have raised two daughters, and most recently retired from successful careers, sold their homes, cars, and anything that didn't fit in their new Ford F-350 pickup and large mobile home. Ten months ago, they began a new stage of life together touring the nation.

They are so grateful that I introduced them, but it is ironic, isn't it? If I had gotten out of taking chemistry or if I had done better with Professor Klein so that I finished up in the spring, I would not have met Pat and been able to introduce him to Trina. In retrospect, I can contrast a few miserable months of chemistry with a relationship so compatible that after 40+ years, their idea of joyful retirement is spending 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year together in a 400-square-foot mobile home! That insight takes the sting out of those dismal grades and has taught me to accept my challenges trusting that God will use them for good, even if it is only in a way that my future self will understand.

Scripture: Read Genesis 50:20. What stands out?

Call to Action: Pray and ask God to reveal to you the good that has come from very challenging times in your life.
