while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Walking through a mall and a supermarket right after Halloween, I noticed them putting up all the Christmas decorations and sale items. I wondered, what happened to Thanksgiving? The cynical answer that popped into my head is unfortunately probably the right one – they don't make much money off Thanksgiving, so it's on to the next revenue-generating holiday.

But Thanksgiving reminds us of what's really important – to bless and thank God for all we have received and to give freely of what we have, trusting in him to provide for us as we provide for others. In Confession, once I got what I thought was an easy penance – to make a list of the then things I am most grateful for. I was able to think of ten very quickly, but as I thought it over, some were selfish and a little superficial. I found myself going deeper and deeper into what are the true blessings in my life I ought to be grateful for. Some were things that didn't seem like blessings at the time because they were painful but turned out to be the most important parts of my life.

I'm hoping we can all do some deep thinking this Thanksgiving amid the celebrating with friends and relatives – and we'll discover more about how God has a wonderful plan for our lives, even when there are crosses and sufferings.

And let's be sure to show our thanks by giving. We'll be feeding 500 homeless along with St. Anthony of Padua in the South Bronx again this year. Want to come? Can you donate? Sign up here to help in any way you can: stlawrenceotoole.org/Thanksgiving.

The Knights and the Franciscans are continuing their tradition of feeding the homebound and local poor in Brewster, so maybe you can deliver or donate there as well.

Whatever God is calling you to do, remember that God can never be outdone in generosity... you'll get it back a hundredfold.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

P.S. Be sure to sign up for the Parish Mission Dec. 4 - 6 and bring some loved ones or friends who need you to help them rediscover what they're missing. If you don't invite them, how will they ever get back to God? He's sending you to help him find his lost sheep...

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

PEGGY ZAMBRASKI

Our Lady of the Lake Court #2585 of Sacred Heart Parish had the distinguished honor of hosting the Annual New York State Catholic Daughters of the Americas Memorial Mass and Luncheon on Saturday, Nov 5, 2022. The Mass was coordinated by the past Regents and Officers Chapter Of the Archdiocese of New York and was attended by CDA Courts from across New York State. During the Mass, members of each court who passed during this past year were remembered in a special memorial ceremony. A luncheon followed in the parish hall.

Helping others through charitable acts in the spirit of Jesus Christ is the heart of our Catholic Daughters. A few of the projects specific to the Catholic Daughters at Sacred Heart are running the Children's Chapel during the 10:30 am Mass on Sundays, Christmas Caroling at Putnam Ridge in December, leading Stations of the Cross during Lent and hosting an annual Mass and reception in June for couples from Sacred Heart and St. Lawrence who are celebrating their 25th or 50th anniversary during the year. The Court also supports many local and parish charities and Respect Life efforts. Our Lady of the Lake Court #2585 meets monthly at 6:45 pm on the first Monday of the month in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall, and new members are always welcome.

$1500 check was given to the Archdiocese of NY for the new seminarians

angels and saints, teach me to pray

Three weekends ago, at the 11:00 am Mass, I was meditating after receiving Communion and this thought came to me. I was viewing someone praying in our Adoration Chapel and Our Blessed Mother was on her right and a favorite saint on her left, praying with her. We know that wherever Jesus is, He is surrounded by angels, so I imagined two angels, rather than candlestands, by his side bearing the lights. Sometimes when I am in the chapel, I ask our Blessed Mother to pray with me or teach me to pray; I also commonly look around and squint, thinking that will help me glimpse one of many angelic beings which surely fill the room! Although I have never seen them with my eyes, this image feels very comfortable and familiar to me.

Scripture: Read Hebrews 12:1. What stands out?

Call to Action: Put yourself in this scene. Imagine kneeling before Jesus with the Blessed Mother and your favorite saint. Ask them and the angels to teach you to pray.
